A large pile driver is now at work at Graysville putting down the posts that will support the long bridge being built in connection with the E. H. & J. A. Meadows' new fertilizer plant which will be erected at that place.

One of Craven county's leading farmers, informed the reporter yesterday that he had already begun to prepare his exhibit for the big agricultural exhibit to be held in this city on November 22 and 23 and that he was intending to show the public that Craven's products could not be excelled. If all of the farmers in the county would take this view of the matter, the exhibit could not be otherwise than a big success.

The fire companies were called out last evening shortly after 7 o'clock to extinguish a blaze in one of the dry kilns at Broadus & Ives' lumber mill. Fortunately the blaze was soon extinguished with but little loss to the property. Hundreds of people, attracted by the shrill blasts of the many whistles in that locality, were on the scene and there were several narrow escapes from injury by the hose wagons and other vehicles.

WEDNESDAY.

The excursion to Norfolk yesterday morning was well patronized. Quite a number of people went over from this city and both the train from the east and the train from the west carried a number of people who were taking in what will probably be the last excursion of the season.

A number of colored people left this city yesterday morning for Pamlico county where they will pick cotton during the next few weeks. The farmers in that section are finding it hard to secure sufficient help to get their cotton out of the fields and they are paying exceptionally good prices for competent men and women.

Opportunities to indulge in hearty laughter are none too frequent in this life of strain and stress and the forthcoming visit of "The Girl in The Taxi" to the Masonic Theatre for an engagement of one night, Oct. 2nd, should not be missed. Laughter is the keynote of this successful entertainment which comes to this city with quantities of broken records for box office receipts and large attendance to its credit. "The Girl in The Taxi" sped along without interruption for long runs in New York, Chicago and Boston, and promises to be the brightest spot in this season's offerings.

THURSDAY.

Several blind children, twelve or more, were on yesterday morning's N-S train being taken to the school for the blind at Raleigh.

A number of damaged freight cars have been brought to this city and put in the Norfolk-Southern shops to be rebuilt and placed in first class condition.

Married last evening by Justice of Peace W. R. Barrington at her home corner of George and New Sts., Mr. Elvin McDaniel and Miss Millie Ringgold daughter of Mr. J. A. Ringgold.

The announcement which appeared in yesterday morning's Journal and which stated that a business college would be opened up in this city within a short while, met with general approval.

The local market is well supplied with scuppernon and black grapes just at this time and those persons whose appetites crave these delicacies are having ample opportunity to secure as many as they desire at the small price of 5 cents per quart.

The New Bern bar met at the court house yesterday morning and arranged the civil docket for the next term of Craven county court. Owing to the fact that there are so many cases on the criminal docket, it is not definitely known whether any of these cases will be reached during the first part of the week set aside for them.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

"I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains."

"Cardui worked like a charm." There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been successful for more than 60 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease. Please try it, for your troubles.

PEACE OF EUROPE THREATENED

Inter-continental Troubles In All Countries. Alphonso of Spain Fighting For His Throne.

London, Sept. 21.—Serious unrest, ranging from a full-fledged revolution in Spain to strike riots in Ireland, prevails in Europe today. The internal commotions are so general and so varied in character that the peace of the continent is seriously menaced.

In Spain, war is interfered with and very little direct news is coming over the frontier, but it is certain Alfonso is fighting tooth and nail for his throne. The revolutionists are in the field well armed and equipped and the outcome will be in doubt for some time.

In Vienna martial law prevails because of the riots as protests against the high price of food.

In Budapest also, there have been food riots and the police had to resort to extreme measures to restore order. Further trouble is feared.

Ireland is menaced by a general strike. By a big display of force the government has prevented serious rioting.

In Russia, as the result of the assassination of Premier Stolypin, fears are entertained of great Jewish massacres and of reprisals by the Jewish and Finnish terrorists against high officials.

Ironworkers are on strike in Wales and in Scotland many trades are in difficulties.

Rioting has also been renewed in France as the result of the high price of food, but so far has not attained dangerous proportions.

SELL DUTCHMEN SALT HORSE

New Jersey Meat Packers Caught Pickling Diseased Horses For Human Consumption.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 21.—The State Board of Health of New Jersey, at the direction of the United States Department of Agriculture, has notified the Attorney-General of New Jersey to take action against the Schwarz Brothers Company of Kearny, that state.

It is alleged that the Schwarz concern has been pickling diseased horse meat and sending it to Europe for human consumption. Most of the meat it is asserted, was shipped to Holland.

The Attorney General is asked to prosecute the Schwarz firm under the general provisions of the New Jersey law. One accusation is that the firm violated the provisions of the State's Pure Food law. The other is that the company transgressed the state law relating to slaughter house licenses.

The formal charges against the Schwarz Brothers company were embodied in a letter from the Bureau of Chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture. The letter, dated Washington, Sept. 15, and signed by F. L. Dunlap, acting chief of the bureau, was addressed to Dr. R. E. Fitz-Randolph, State Board of Health, Trenton, N. J.

Chief Dunlap asserted that his inspectors had obtained conclusive evidence that the Schwarz Brothers Co. was buying up horses, live or dead, turning part of them into fat and fertilizers, pickling the rest and shipping it to Rotterdam.

Severcy, according to Dunlap, attended the preparation, pickling and shipment of the horse meat, and while it was generally known by the firm's employees that a traffic of this nature was being carried on, not more than two were sufficiently within the confidence of members of the firm to have accurate knowledge of the matter.

The government's charge is that the firm has prepared the carcasses of diseased and emaciated animals for human consumption; that horses were cut up for food on the same floor where lay slaughtered and other animals, killed by diseases communicable to man, and that the whole was packed and branded "pickled beef."

Only the timely arrival of government inspectors, as it is said, prevented a cargo of this alleged diseased and misbranded meat from being put aboard ship for export.
