SWANSBORO LETTER.

Sept. 25—Cotton in this section is all open, and only a fair crop; seed cotton is selling for 4 cents per pound.

Mr. I. N. Henderson & Son have installed a new turbine wheel in their water mill at Hubert. They will run a ginny and saw mill in connection with the great mill. Mr. Leroy Henderson is an up-to-date mill man.

The hook worm experts have moved on to other places, only about half the applicants received treatment.

Dr. Willis, the cool drink dispenser at the drug store is sick, and sick at heart also, that he cannot serve his customers: The young people say that the drinks do not taste good unless he serves them.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Mr. Claude B. Frazzle. He has been in bad shape for a long time, paralyzed. Mr. Frazzle was highly esteemed in this county. He was a good school teacher, and an all-around good man, a devoted member of the Unitarian church, a Free Mason in high standing. He leaves a wife and two children who have the sympathy of this entire community in their sad bereavement.

There are some visitors here this week from Fayetteville, among them are: Mrs. Ellen Bramble and daughter, Miss Carrie Bramble, Miss Roberta Phillips, of Bear Creek, gave a tea party in honor of Miss Bramble. There was some delightful music, both vocal and instrumental. Miss Phillips is an expert violinist and she entertained her guest delightfully. The writer was one of them and he enjoyed the evening immensely.

Mr. Dan Phillips' wife is in a hospital at Wilmington to undergo an operation for tumor.

General Willis will go to New Bern next week to carry his little daughter who will be operated upon for a slight deformity.

The Seismograph.

The seismograph is a most interesting instrument. It is kept in a sub-basement room, far from disturbing influences. There it records upon a strip of paper such earthquakes as may happen anywhere. The scientists then study the strip of paper and herald to the world the news that the tremor which shook down several cities was duly registered.

The seismograph is a remarkable contrivance, though in just what way it is not yet determined. However, in the interests of science, it is as valuable as would be the turbine of the hoof upon the seat of the trousers of a man who had been kicked by a mule. After the event he could study the ink print and assure himself that he had been kicked—Life.

GOOD FOR BILIOUSNESS.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone, of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by all dealers. Samples free.

Kissing Ethel.

She was fashionably dressed and gave out the perfume of violets as the brakeman turned to help her up the steps of the train which was due to leave. Turning to her maid, she said: "Oh, I must kiss Ethel goodbye!" "Oh, go on," said the fresh brakeman. "I'll kiss Ethel goodbye." "No, you won't, either," came from the woman. "That precious dog was never kissed by a stranger in her whole life!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Four earthquakes did serious damage in Ecuador.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all dealers.

HER ENGAGEMENT.

It Started Conflicting Emotions at Work in Her Mother.

Mrs. DeGross drew a deep sigh when her daughter told her that she had become engaged to Mr. Bobles.

"I suppose it's foolish of me to feel so bad about it," she said, wiping her eyes, but I can't help it. I know it's a woman's destiny to be married, dear, and I have always hoped that you would marry and be happy. But a mother can never lose a daughter without feeling deeply on the subject. She can never help regarding it as an awful loss—a tragedy. She cannot give up her little girl, even to the best man that ever lived, without the deepest reluctance."

"But, mother, dear, I shall come and see you often. And you mustn't cry as if it were going to happen right away. You will have time to get used to it."

"Will it? How soon are you to be married?"

"Not for nearly a year. Bob thinks that—"

"Not for a year? What on earth does he mean by putting it off that long? I don't believe he intends to marry you at all, the smirking young snip! If he did he'd insist on having the wedding right away. And I shall tell him so. You bring him to time, Clara. You tell him that he'll either marry you next month or never. Huh! I'll show him!"

Business.

"Now, about the oratorio. Shall we put Handel's picture on the program or the picture of the leading soprano?"

"I vote for the soprano. She has twenty or thirty relatives who'll buy tickets to the show."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and not it. He will work with energy and think clear, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

NAMES AND FACES.

Douglas Marked the Men He Wanted to Know Again.

"Stephen A. Douglas had the most remarkable memory for faces of any man in public life," declares a correspondent. "Upon the occasion of a visit to Washington on election day in 1850 the late Colonel John W. Forney was discussing the election of Garfield over Hancock with Colonel Harmon of Detroit. Colonel Harmon had been mayor of Detroit and prominent in national politics. Harmon and Forney got to talking about earlier politics, and Harmon related the story of a meeting with Douglas in New York. Douglas had been nominated in Baltimore by one faction of the Democratic party. Breckinridge was chosen by the other faction in Charleston. When he heard of his nomination Douglas was in New York. He entered the Astor House, then the headquarters for all politicians and the principal hotel in New York, and immediately was surrounded by his political admirers. Among them was Colonel Harmon. The latter, according to the story he told me, put forth his hand and congratulated Douglas on his nomination.

"Thank you, Colonel Harmon," replied Douglas.

"Harmon was amazed that Douglas should have remembered his name, for he had met the 'little giant' but once, fifteen years before, and then for but a brief period. After a time he returned and asked Douglas how he was able to call him by name.

"My dear colonel," said Douglas, "whenever I meet a man I want to know again I put a mark on him and I never forget."—Washington Post.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

Their History Rich In Events of Consequence to the Nation.

The south is especially rich in points of historic consequence, remarks a writer in Leslie's Weekly. At the outset Virginia was the most populous as well as the most powerful of all the states. As "the mother of presidents" she practically gave the law to the country from the accession of Washington in 1789 to the retirement of Monroe in 1825, except during the four years of John Adams in the presidency. In the next third of a century, with its Hayne, Calhoun, McDuffie and other statesmen of large influence, South Carolina was the center of events in the nation. Texas, with its boundary dispute with Mexico, precipitated the war between the latter and the United States, in which by conquest and purchase we obtained Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada, California and parts of Colorado and Wyoming. The necessity for the control of the mouth of the Mississippi incited the negotiation with France which resulted in the annexation of the province of Louisiana, by which the area of the United States was doubled and all subsequent accessions of territory were rendered inevitable. Florida saw the earliest white settlements which were planted anywhere in the present United States. In the Watauga colony in Tennessee self government made its advent west of the Alleghenies.

Right Handed Parrots.

Past the parrot cages walked the bird fancier, poking an inquisitive finger at the birds.

"I am looking for a right handed parrot," he said, "but there doesn't seem to be one in this lot. Most parrots are left handed. Training, not nature, made them so.

"Their owners are right handed and when putting out a finger for the bird to stand on it is most convenient for him to step up with the left foot. In a little while that left handed action becomes second nature and he doesn't know how to use his right foot first. The only right handed parrots have belonged to left handed persons. In their training the order was reversed. The left finger was extended for a perch and the bird naturally grasped it with his right foot."—New York Sun.

A Glimpse of Dr. Johnson.

From Boswell's "Life of Johnson": "In one of Dr. Johnson's manuscript diaries there is the following entry, which marks his curious minute attention: July 26, 1768—I shaved my nail by accident in wetting the knife about an eighth of an inch from the bottom and about a fourth from the top. This I measure that I may know the growth of nails." And 'Aug. 15, 1783, I cut from the vine forty-one leaves which weighed five ounces and a half and eight scruples. I lay them upon my bookcase, to see what weight they will lose by drying."
