THE CHINESE REVOLUTION

Execution of Rebels Precipitates Crisis. Foreign Residents Assured Safety.

Hankow, China, Oct. 12.—Revolutionists are now in undisputed possession of Wu-Chang. The capture of the town was the climax of a series of sudden developments, all of which came about as the result of the troops being aroused by the execution of four rebels. The troops proved to be disaffected, and within a few hours after the first trouble developed, the entire city was in an uproar.

Fires were started in every corner of the town, the headquarters of the viceroys and of the provincial treasurer were burned, the military commander was killed by a dynamite bomb, and the viceroys himself escaped with his life only by his hasty flight.

The revolutionaries won a notable victory gaining possession of the city. The revolutionary committee issued a proclamation exhorting its followers not to harm the citizens of other countries. The fact that the wishes of the committee have been respected thus far while reassuring to other nations, is in itself a sinister sign for the government at Peking as it indicates that the rebellious movement is now more thoroughly organized.

The fear of the officials now is that the dissatisfaction in the troops will spread to Hankow, and every effort is being made to ward off this danger. Five gunboats are now in the river in readiness to protect Hankow should the necessity arise. The foreign consuls have also telegraphed their governments asking that warships be sent to the scene, American and Japanese cruisers are expected while several gunboats are hastening hither. As another measure of precaution the merchant vessels in the river are keeping steam up, and women and children will be permitted to go aboard them. Volunteers have surrounded the foreign quarters and will remain on guard duty day and night until the safety of all foreigners is secured.

Wu-Chang and Hankow, as great trade centers and ports for ocean steamers, have both felt to a considerable extent the influence of Western civilization and ideas. Both towns possess electric lighting systems, cotton mills, silk factories and schools. Wu-Chang is the seat of a normal school for women. Within the last five or six years both cities have thrown their idols into the street or into the river—burning their temples of priests and all emblems of worship, to make room for public schools. The movement has been a religious one, but has been purely materialistic. The leaders of it stimulated by the example of Japan in adopting Western methods of teaching have been tested with the idea that education is the one thing needed to make China great. The worship of Confucius remains for the present in the schools but observers declare that it is purely the worship of a great memory.

Martin Phillips, age 70 was executed at Belington, W. Va., of the charge of burning his wife to death.

I have told several prominent doctors what it did for me." Wm. H. Mowder, Washington, N. J., R. F. D.—March 16, 1911.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

TUESDAY.

Chinquapias have made their appearance on the local market and are selling readily.

Mr. A. S. Johnson, of Bridgeton, has purchased the Dawson Creek farm of Mr. E. W. Brinson, of Arapahoe.

The free street parade of the famous John Robinson's circus will be one the most spectacular events of the season. The parade will be more than a mile in length and more than two hundred horses will be used. This mighty aggregation will visit New Bern on October 17th.

Late yesterday afternoon a dilapidated horse which was hitched to an antique public vehicle, became frightened at some object on Broad street and immediately started in to kick himself free from all encumbrances. He succeeded admirably and to such an extent that a new pair of shafts were required for the vehicle before the animal was quieted down and peace again reigned in that locality.

The farmers are still having trouble in securing sufficient help to get their cotton picked. One gentleman who was in the city yesterday for this purpose informed the reporter that although he was paying 60 cents a hundred for picking the staple, that he had only been able to secure two hands during the whole morning. Still there are hundreds of worthless negroes hanging around the city, absolutely refusing to do a lick of work.

WEDNESDAY.

A charter has been granted to Messrs W. H. Hanks, H. F. Hanks and D. W. Hanks, of this city, to operate and conduct the Hanks Lumber Company. The authorized capital of the concern is $25,000 with $1,000 paid in.

The cool weather that has prevailed during the past few days is really delightful after the extremely warm weather of the past few months. Its effect is exhilarating and it is only to be hoped that it will continue.

Oliver Hill, of Lenoir county, and who was incarcerated in the county jail at Kinston on a warrant charging him with retailing, has been brought to this city for the purpose of testifying in the Casey trial. He is in charge of Chief of Police Beasley of that place.

Carl Spencer and Berkley Harker were given a hearing before Justice of the Peace S. R. Street yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Game Warden, Geo. B. Waters, charging them with killing a wild turkey out of season. Spencer was fined $5 and the costs of the case and Harker was taxed with the costs of the case.

County fairs are now holding sway in the western part of this State and the people in that locality are enjoying themselves hugely. The latter part of next month Craven county will have an agricultural exhibit that will be one of the biggest events pulled off in this city since the great B-Centennial. Every citizen of Craven county should lend their aid in any way in making this event a complete success in every way.

THURSDAY.

Mayor McCarthy had only three minor cases on his docket in the police court yesterday afternoon and but a short while was consumed in the session. The lawbreakers are laying low now that Superior court is in session.

Lehman Morris, colored, was arrested in this city yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with retailing. He could not give bond and was confined in the city jail until today, when he will be given a hearing before Mayor McCarthy.

Hack drivers in this city are now allowed to charge 15 cents for their fares anywhere within the city limits. This is an increase of 5 cents over the previous limit allowed them by the city ordinance and was allowed them on account of the long trips that they were

FEDERAL NEWS

CENSORSHIP

Such Threatens The Atlanta Journal and Constitution Failure Thus Far to Indict.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 12.—This city is momentarily expecting the establishment of a censorship of news by the Federal Government. Many efforts have been made by the authorities at Washington to make trouble for the newspapers of this city.

The United States government has made every effort in the past to indict the Atlanta Constitution and the Atlanta Journal for alleged misuse of the mails. The government charged that both papers had issued more sample copies than they were entitled to issue under the regulations governing the rates for second class matter. The Journal was indicted, but put in a demurrer and the indictment was dismissed. The same charges, with an additional one of conspiracy, were twice brought against the Atlanta Constitution, and twice the grand jury refused to indict. Then the government brought suit against both papers for amounts said to be for postage.

Most of the papers here were concerned in the exposure of the inefficient management of the Post Office Department. Current opinion here is to the effect that the government is actuated by a spirit of retaliation.

The Salvation Army again request donations from the public for the poor of the city whom they are assisting. Anything that you have to give; clothing, food or money, will be greatly appreciated and will be of much benefit. Call the Salvation Army headquarters and some one will call for your donation.

There is unusual building activity in and near New Bern just at this time. Not before in years has there been so many structures of different varieties erected at this season as now. Local carpenters and masons have all the work they can do and many workmen from other towns have come to this city and secured employment.

Bicycle thefts are again being reported, and owners of wheels would doubtless save themselves much trouble and anxiety by keeping their eyes on their machines when they are left in conspicuous places. Every few weeks there is an epidemic of these bicycle thefts and each time a number of bicycles disappear and are never again located.

If you have not already laid in your supply of coal and wood for use during the winter months you should do so at once, while the prices are comparatively low and the dealers are able to deliver on short notice. It will be too late to think of this when on some cold morning in the near future you find your coal bin is depleted and that the dealers cannot deliver any fuel within several hours.

Charles Franklin, of Goldsboro, who was brought here from that place on Wednesday night to answer to a charge of defrauding his helpers out of a sum of money while he was engaged in doing some work for the city, waived an examination before Mayor McCarthy yesterday afternoon and was bound over to the next term of Craven county Superior Court under a bond of $50.00 which he failed to give and was committed to jail.

Much progress is being made by the pupils in their work at the white graded school in this city. Professor Gray informs us that never before has so much interest been taken by the pupils in the school work. This is doubtless due to the fact that many of the new methods which are being used in the best schools in the North are being used in the local schools. A number of new pupils have been enrolled during the past few days.
