SHORT PASSING EVENTS

SATURDAY.

The New Bern Iron Works yesterday shipped to Jacksonville, Fla., twelve large pontoon pipes which will be used at that place. This company has gained for itself an enviable reputation in the manufacture of these pipes and have on hand several other orders for them.

Several locomotives that had become disabled during service have been brought to the Norfolk-Southern shops in this city during the past few days and are being rebuilt. This company makes every possible effort to keep its rolling stock in good condition and its succeeds remarkably well in doing this.

Unless the amount of $1,500 has been raised by next Wednesday there will be no aeroplane flights in this city during the big Agricultural and Stock Exhibit, which is to be held in this city on November 22 and 23. Several hundred dollars have already been subscribed for this cause. Subscriptions are located at every public place in the city and you will find no trouble in locating one. Show your public spiritedness by subscribing for one or more tickets at 50 cents each.

SUNDAY.

The many friends in this city of Mr. W. J. Moore of Swansboro, will learn with sincere regret of the death from acute indigestion of his son Charlie Moore, the young man dying early Saturday morning.

The revenue cutter Pamlico has returned from a cruise down the sound. On this trip they rescued a sloop which had been overturned near Oyster. The boat had been loaded with crystals. The crew was rescued by a gasoline boat.

Last Friday the steamer "Oeracoke" which at one time plied between New Bern and Elizabeth City, ran aground near Norfolk and up to the present time has not been pulled off. An accident to the steering gear caused the accident.

Yesterday New Bern received a portion of the bad weather which has prevailed along the Atlantic coast for the past two or three days. The inclement weather kept practically all of the would-be visitors at home and the local merchants done a comparatively small business during the day.

James Carter, of Richlands; Onslow county, man who was sentenced to a term of 18 months in the Federal prison at Atlanta at last week's session of Federal court in this city, will be taken to that institution tomorrow by one of the local deputies. Several other prisoners will also be carried at the same time.

Mr. Warren Ellis leaves early in the morning for a few days fishing at the Straits, making headquarters at Salter. He will take among others in the party, Mr. Latham, Dr. Summerell, Mr. W. P. M. Bryan. All the party expect to have a fine trip, if the bad weather shall have ended by Monday noon.

TUESDAY.

The three-masted schooner "William T. Hill" is on the ways at Meadows' ship yard undergoing repairs and being repainted.

Today is the last day that you will be given a discount of two per cent on city taxes. Pay your taxes today and get this discount.

The railroads running into New Bern will give reduced rates during the big Agricultural and Stock Exhibit which is to be held in this city on November 22 and 23. The rates will be published later.

Next Saturday morning, Nov. 4th, the Craven County Teachers' Association will hold their first meeting of the present term. At this meeting officers for the term will be elected, and every member is urged to be present.

Today and tomorrow you will be given your last opportunity of subscribing to the fund being raised for the purpose of securing aeroplane flights in this city on Nov. 22d and 23rd. Subscription blanks will be found at every public place in the city.

Today at noon at the court house doors, there will be sold to the highest bidder some 16 lots in the subdivision known as Ghent, which have been duly advertised according to law. The sale will be conducted by S. R. Street. These are very desirable lots.

Next Saturday afternoon local football enthusiasts will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the most interesting games that will be played here this season. At that time the New Bern football team will play the Washington team. No admission will be charged.

Beginning tomorrow, November 1st, and continuing until November 11th, a series of meetings will be held at St. Cyprian's Church. The purpose of these meetings is to raise funds for heating and lighting the church. Rev. Hoake will conduct the services on All Saints Day.

Since several parts of the mechanism of the clock in the tower of the Federal building have been replaced, that instrument is working nicely. All of the lights on the large dial will be replaced within the next few days and again, as of yore, will this much talked of clock be an object of admiration.

Within the next few days the Circulating Library will make a report of the receipts of the concert given last Friday night by the Metropolitan Grand Concert Company. Despite the fact that this event had been thoroughly advertised, there was not as large a crowd as had been expected. Those who did not attend missed one of the best musical treats of the season.

The War Department Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors will hold a public hearing at or about 11 a. m., November 7th, 1911, at the court house in Beaufort, to hear all persons interested in proposed work at Cape Lookout as a commercial harbor. All such persons are invited to attend and submit their views with regard to the necessity for improvements.

Last Friday there passed away at Greenville a man who had as much or more power among his subjects than the president of the U. S. This man was Mr. Joseph Sheehan, an Asyrian. He had the oversight of all the Syrians in eastern North Carolina, directing them in business, where to purchase their goods and as to their social relations. A large number of the local members of that nationality attended the funeral.

Mayor McCarthy had quite a lengthy docket in his court yesterday afternoon Isaac Cobb, colored, was taxed with the costs for being drunk and down. Gas Hoely was fined $5 and the costs of the case for being disorderly. Joe Sulfras was taxed with the costs for being disorderly. Several other colored citizens were also in the toils for being disorderly, but none of these were found guilty and were dismissed.

Last Sunday morning and evening Rev. A. C. Shuler preached his farewell sermons to the congregation of the Tabernacle Baptist church. At both services the church was packed. At the night service benches and chairs were brought in and placed in the aisles to accommodate the crowd. Rev. Shuler has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Boston, Ga., and will leave for that city some time this week. There is genuine regret among the members of the Tabernacle church that Rev. Shuler is to leave New Bern, but they wish for him and his estimable wife much success in their new field.

At Norfolk Judge Waddill rendered decisions against the tug Prudence and the Danish schooner Nord Amerika.

Major-General W. H. Carter was made commander-in-chief of the newly organized army, central division.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health. As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chamberlain Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for official instructions, and 50-page book, "Woman's Trouble," sent to you free, on request.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

Disappointed. "So you advise me not to sue?" said the client. "I do," said the lawyer. "Well," returned the disappointed client, "it seems strange that when a man pays for advice he can't get the kind he wants."—Chicago Post.

A REAL BARGAIN

Owing to the fact that my business requires my attention and presence at another place, I have decided to place my house and lot on the market. The lot contains 3 acres of the best land in the vicinity of Clarks. The dwelling house is new and modern, and the out-houses are in the best of condition. A fine young orchard is also located on the lot, also a fine grape vineyard. I will sell this place cheap to the proper person. If interested write to or see me at once.

Verdi Was Right.

When Verdi was putting the last touches to "Il Trovatore" he was visited in his study by a privileged friend, who was one of the ablest living musicians and critics. He was permitted to examine the score and run over the "Anvil Chorus" on the pianoforte. "What do you think of that?" asked Verdi. "Trash!" responded the connoisseur. Verdi rubbed his hands and chuckled. "Now look at this," he said. "Rubbish!" said the other, rolling a cigarette. The composer rose and embraced him with a burst of joy. "What do you mean?" asked the critic. "My dear friend," cried Verdi, "I have been making a popular opera. In it I resolved to please everybody except the purists, the great judges, the classicists like you. Had I pleased you I should have pleased no one else. What you say assures me of success. In three months 'Il Trovatore' will be sung and roared and whistled and barrel organed all over Italy." And so it proved.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Deceased.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows: "I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently. Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

Canterbury Club Meets.

The Canterbury Club held its first meeting of the winter. Tuesday evening with Mrs. E. K. Bishop. The club has chosen for this season's work the study of the shorter poems of Robert Browning. An excellent introductory paper, "Leading Literary Characteristics of the Victorian Age," was read by Miss Hendren. Miss Chadwick followed this with a talk, "Introduction of the study of Browning," concluding with a reading and interpretation of "A Toccata of Galuppi's."

At the close of the meeting a refreshment course was served by the hostesses.

Lowery W. Goode, president of the Cairo and Norfolk Railroad, committed suicide at Boston.

LARGE NUMBER RETAILING CASES

Disposed of at Yesterday's Session of Federal Court. Grand Jury Conclude Its Work.

Practically the entire session of Federal court yesterday was consumed in the disposing of retailing and illicit distilling cases. Today a number of other cases of the same variety will be tried. The grand jury completed its work and was discharged. All of the civil cases on the circuit court docket have been continued until the next term. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

U. S. vs S. D. Jones, charged with retailing, guilty; judgment suspended upon the payment of the costs in the case.

U. S. vs Ed Hill, charged with retailing, jury returns verdict of guilty; sentenced to one year and one day in Federal prison and also to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and the cost of the case.

U. S. vs Sally Tolson, charged with retailing, verdict of guilty rendered; judgment suspended.

U. S. vs James Whitley, charged with retailing, guilty; sentenced to one year and one day in the Federal prison and pay a fine of one hundred dollars and the cost of the case.

U. S. vs James Bryant, charged with retailing, defendant entered plea of nolo contendere. Judgment suspended upon payment of the costs and to give a bond for his appearance at the next term and to prove good behavior.

U. S. vs Albert Karain, charged with retailing; verdict of not guilty rendered.

U. S. vs John F. Hughes and Jay Cade, both plead guilty to aiding and abetting in illicit distilling; judgment suspended upon the payment of the costs.

U. S. vs J. W. Rountree, charged with retailing; jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The Retort Genial.

A southern woman who is now past her prime, but whose ready wit still makes her a welcome guest wherever she goes, tells the following story about an encounter with what she terms a "northern iceberger." She was at a musical entertainment at a private house in New York, and at the end of a song which had been delightfully rendered she turned with an exclamation of pleasure to a lady who sat near and whom she knew by sight, but had never met. The woman addressed looked at her in surprise for a moment and then asked coldly "Have I the pleasure of knowing you?" "No," was the answer, "but I felt at liberty to speak to you on account of your being under such very great obligations to me." "Will you have the goodness to explain what you mean?" said the New York woman haughtily. "Merely that I refused your husband last twenty-five years ago," replied the little southerner as she moved away to seek a more congenial atmosphere.
