The Best Always Pays in The Long Run.

The average man when it comes to selecting a life insurance contract will take a yod thing that comes along. Its a case of "marry in haste and repent at leisure." Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been wasted and many families left destitute right here in this very town by such a foolish course. The UNION CENTRAL LIFE is the best company in America if the reports of various State Departments and unbiased statisticians count for anything, for excellent insurance at the lowest possible cost to policy holders. Gladly explained without the least obligation on your part.

RUBBER CANNON BALLS.

A World's Fair Exhibit That Puzzled Louis Napoleon.

An instance of the obsession of the mind by one idea is seen in a ludicrous mistake made by Louis Napoleon in 1865 at a world's fair held in Paris while he was emperor. He had been trained to war, and he could not see a strange object without regarding it in relation to war. The head of the United States commission at the exhibition was Mansell B. Field, who tells in his "Memoirs of Many Men" how greatly disturbed the emperor was by an American invention. The commissioner was present at a reception held at the palace.

"The emperor approached me and remarked that he had that afternoon walked through our department of the exposition—this was just before it was open to the public—that he had seen many things there which interested him, but that nothing had so much pleased him as the exhibition of vulcanized india rubber. Among the articles he had noticed something which had puzzled him ever since. He very much regretted that I was not present at the time of his visit.

"Here I interrupted him to say that I very much regretted it myself and that if he had sent me an intimation of his purpose I should have been certain to attend.

"Well," he answered, "in one corner I saw, stacked as one sees them in an artillery yard, a pile of vulcanized india rubber cannon balls. There was nobody there to answer the inquiries which I desired to make. Perhaps you can explain the matter to me."

"I had not even seen the balls in question and had to say so.

"I cannot imagine," resumed his majesty, "how an preparation of india rubber can be used for projectiles. It has often occurred to me that, in combination with other materials, it might be made useful for defensive purposes."

"I was compelled to admit that it was equally mysterious to me how the inventor could have thought seriously of making cannon balls of it. After so unsatisfactory an interview the emperor probably did not think that it would be civil to leave me immediately, so he asked me if I took much interest in military matters. I answered that I did not any more than civilians usually do.

"I was at that time residing very near the Palace of Industry. The next morning I went over before breakfast for the purpose of getting information upon the subject which had so puzzled the emperor. I went directly to the india rubber exhibit, and, sure enough I found the balls there just as they had been described to me. It was the early for me to expect to see the material in charge, but there was a person in his place. I asked what in the world he expected to do with india rubber cannon balls.

"They are not cannon balls," he answered; "they are footballs!"

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

GOINON'S TEST.

The Budding Composer Changed His Schoolmaster's Opinion.

When Goinon went to the school of one who was called the good Papa Pierson he was constantly scribbling musical notes. One day the school master sent for him into his study.

"Your parents complain," said Pierson. "They do not wish any musician in their family. You must be a professor."

"Never!"

"Your only choice is between Greek and Latin."

"But I will be a musician," said Goinon.

"You will? Give it up, I say! It is no profession at all. However, we will just see what you can do. Here's pen and paper. Compose for me a new air to Joseph's words, 'A peine un sortit de l'enfer!'"

It was the recreation hour. Before the bell sounded for the studies to begin again Goinon came back with his paper completely covered.

"Already?" cried Pierson. "Well, sing it then!"

Goinon sang and accompanied himself and so deeply affected poor Papa Pierson that with tears he pressed him in his arms and exclaimed:

"Oh, my dear boy! Henceforth they may say what they like, but a musician you shall be and nothing else."—From the German.

Profit by a sufferer's experience. Mrs. Lina Arthur, Sr., 528 W. Second street, Washington, N. C., says:—"I suffered greatly from dull, nagging backache, I could hardly get around at times, and was afraid to move on account of the knife-like twinges in my loins. My kidneys were weak and no doubt caused all the trouble. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and getting a box, I began their use. They relieved every symptom of my trouble and I am therefore pleased to recommend them." (Statement given January 13, 1907.)

CONFIRMED PROOF

Test For Stutterers.

A new method of voice control was tried by the lifelong stutterer. In a few lessons the impediment in speech was overcome.

"That's fine," said a candid friend. "Now I wish you would take a bit of advice. You talk all right today, but just keep a watch on yourself and see how you talk this time next week."

"You're a wet blanket, all right," growled the ex-stutterer. "What's the matter with next week?"

"Well, so in the full moon, then," said his friend. "It's a fact that everybody who has ever stuttered stutters worse when the moon is full than at any other time. Until you get so you can talk smoothly then you can't count yourself really cured."

The man with halting speech took notice, as advised, and found that several full moons passed before he could control his speech at that time.—New York Times.

The Gulls and the Black Crickets. When the Mormons first settled in Utah black crickets came in myriads from the mountains and would have destroyed the crops had it not been for the gulls that came by hundreds and thousands from the surrounding lakes. At that time the settlers at Salt Lake regarded the advent of the birds as a heaven sent miracle, and ever since the gull has been esteemed almost as a sacred bird by the Mormons. About the best and alfalfa fields when they are being irrigated the gulls still collect and feed largely on field mice that are so destructive to crops.—Success Magazine.

The southern lover was impetuously the author of a book of reminiscences of eastern Virginia entitled "Memory Days," and the maiden was bold and unused to passionate professions of marriage.

"Oh, don't," she interrupted in a whisper. "You frighten me dreadfully!"

Overcome by contrition, the young man humbly apologized for his fervor, and a painful silence ensued. The girl broke it at last.

"Robert," she began, with a hopeful smile. "I don't think—I shall be so frightened this time."
