

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

TUESDAY.

Rapid progress is being made in the work of erecting the new brick building for Messrs. S. Coplon & Son on the vacant lot adjacent to the Busy Bee Cafe on Middle St. A large force of laborers and mechanics are employed in this work and all possible haste is being made to rush its completion.

Last Saturday the Craven County Farmers' Union held its regular monthly session at the court house in this city. Among the most important proceedings of the meeting was the discussion and the formulating of plans for assisting in making the Agricultural and Stock Exhibit a complete success.

A communication received from the Land and Industrial Department of the Norfolk-Southern Railway Company states that already they have received a number of replies from letters sent to citizens of Ohio asking if they would take a trip to eastern North Carolina and that several had stated that they would join such an excursion. It is to be hoped that they will be successful in satisfactorily arranging to bring these visitors to this section.

Many of the residents of the city have already begun to decorate their homes and business houses in honor of the Agricultural and Stock Exhibit which will be held here on November 22d and 23d. There are hundreds of yards of bunting, flags and streamers which were used during the Bi-Centennial Celebration, which could again be brought into service for this event and the people of the city should decorate their buildings before these dates.

Several weeks ago there appeared in the Journal a local item in regards to a banana tree which is located on Mr. J. C. Whitty's premises on South Front street. Yesterday Mr. Thomas Mitchell plucked from this tree, thirty full-grown and almost ripe bananas. This incident clearly demonstrates the fact that no place in North Carolina has better climate condition than New Bern. This tree was not protected from the weather in any way and has been given but little attention.

WEDNESDAY.

The Craven County Sunday School Convention will meet at Centenary Methodist church on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28th and 29th.

Thomas E. Warren, bridge tender at the Neuse river bridge, was given a hearing before Mayor McCarthy on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $40 belonging to Harry Sultan. The case will be concluded this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Within the next few days the Hyman Supply Company will receive from the manufacturers a solid car load of "Overland" touring cars. These cars have proven to be winners wherever they have been introduced and there is not the least doubt but that they will find favor among the automobile purchasers in this section. The price of these cars is very low and the quality is the very best.

The weather bureau has sent out information that another cold wave is headed in this direction and will doubtless reach this section by Friday or Saturday. If you have not already on hand a sufficient supply of fuel to enable you to keep warm in case this cold weather arrives as predicted, better telephone your coal and wood dealer to supply you with these necessities at once and avoid being frozen out.

During the past few days a number of boats have arrived in port heavily loaded with cargoes of merchandise from northern ports, and which was consigned to local dealers. The rates paid for shipments made by water route is much cheaper than when sent by rail and in many cases just about as prompt service is given. There is not the least doubt but that a boat line from New Bern to some northern port would prove to be a highly remunerative investment.

Last Sunday afternoon a colored man who gave his name as James Loftin and who stated that his home was at Dover, appeared at Bridgeton in a very dilapidated condition. When questioned he said that he had been knocked off the Neuse river railroad bridge by the train. A short while later he became delirious and the county physician was called in and rendered medical attention. A telephone message was sent to Dover but no satisfactory reply was given by the authorities at that place.

Relieves Backache Instantly

Sloan's Liniment is a great remedy for backache. It penetrates and relieves the pain instantly—no rubbing necessary—just lay it on lightly.

Here's Proof.

"I had my back hurt in the Boer War and in San Francisco two years ago. I was hit by a street car in the same place. I tried all kinds of drugs without success. Two weeks ago I saw your liniment in a drug store and got a bottle to try. The first application caused instant relief, and now except for a little stiffness, I am almost well."

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00.

The man is still at Bridgeton and is being cared for by the authorities there until some disposition can be made of him by the Board of Commissioners.

THURSDAY.

Yesterday the law breakers gave Mayor McCarthy a brief respite. There was not a single case on the docket in the police court and not an arrest made during the day.

Governor Kitchin has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, setting aside Thursday, November 30th, as a day of giving thanks for the many blessings that have been bestowed upon the State during the past twelve months.

Both of the railway companies which enter New Bern are offering reduced rates from all points along their lines to this city during the big Agricultural and Stock Exhibit which is to be held here November 22 and 23. Information in regard to the fare from different points may be obtained from any ticket agent. There will be ample accommodations for taking care of all visitors.

A visitor in the city yesterday from Pamlico county informed the reporter that a heavy wind storm passed over that county on the previous night. He stated that many trees and fences were blown down and that rain fell in torrents. This storm also visited New Bern and although the wind blew at a high velocity and quantities of rain fell, there was no damage done as far as can be learned.

Edwin Coward, a colored man whose home is at Vanceboro, was given a hearing before the United States Commissioner at this place yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Collector J. E. Cameron, charging him with retailing whiskey without a government license. Probable cause was found and in default of a bond of $200 the defendant was placed in Craven county jail to await the next term of Federal court in this city.

The 76th session of the North Carolina Conference will convene at Kinston on Wednesday, November 22, and will continue until the 27th. Bishop E. E. Hoos, of Oklahoma, will preside. Although the North Carolina Conference is not as strong numerically as the Western N. C. Conference, it is equal to its neighbor in influence and power. It is conference has 189 preachers and 19 on trial; a membership of 78,187 and churches worth $1,789,786. Its church parsonages are worth $324,212 and other church property worth $123,435.

TO AMEND ANTI-TRUST LAW

Will Be Democratic Endeavor at Next Congressional Session. Other Problems to Work Out.

Washington, November 16—Amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law at the coming session of Congress is to be undertaken in earnest by Democrats of the House, according to a declaration by Representative Henry, of Texas, ranking member of the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Henry's announcement came while President Taft and Attorney-General Wickersham were in conference at the White House as to the advisability of supplemental anti-trust legislation. The House Democrats, it was declared at the Capitol, will push legislation along this line whatever may be the administration's determination in the matter.

In addition to anti-trust legislation, the Judiciary Committee also has decided upon revision of the injunction statutes and the laws regulating indirect contempt cases.

"The coming session of Congress is by no means to be overshadowed by tariff legislation," said Representative Henry in speaking of the plans of the Judiciary Committee. "Of course, the tariff revision will be of great importance, but it will not minimize other problems before the House."

Representative Clayton, of Alabama, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who had been conferring with Representative Henry and other members during the recess, is expected in Washington within a few days, when work already begun on the bill amending the Sherman law, will be resumed. Efforts of the committee will be directed chiefly toward elimination from the statute of the "rule of reason," as interpreted by the Supreme Court.

A law providing trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt of court and modification of the injunction restrictions are regarded by the Democratic leaders as essential to fulfillment of the party pledges as expressed in the platform of the Denver convention.

vention of the North Carolina Drainage Association, of which he is president. The convention convened yesterday afternoon and will continue in session through today. The Association met in Wilmington last year and it was the biggest convention ever held by the organization up to that time. Since that time a number of new members have been added and the present meeting bids fair to be even larger than the last.

New Bern will be a scene of activity all during next week. On Wednesday and Thursday the Agricultural and Stock Exhibit and Aviation Meet will be held. The city will be ablaze with hundreds of electric lights at night and profuse in decorations during the day. Hundreds of visitors will be in the city and everybody will be having a good time. Come to New Bern on those two days and join the throngs. In addition to the agricultural and stock exhibit and aviation meet there will be a game of football between New Bern and Washington and horse racing.

Yesterday the New Bern Iron Works shipped to the Swansboro Lumber Company 150 feet of eight iron smoke stack. This stack was designed and manufactured in the local foundry and is one of the largest ever shipped out of this city by any manufacturer. On last Monday they shipped to the Bowers Steam Dredging Company at Jacksonville, Fla., a large hoisting machine which was designed and manufactured in the same foundry. This company is gaining for itself an enviable reputation in the manufacture of anything that can be made in the most up-to-date way.

BANKERS AND PENITENTIARY

Life, Parole Law Causing Depletion in Bankers Colony. Selected as Trustees.

(Leavenworth, Kan.) despatch to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

The "Bankers' Colony" at the United States penitentiary has lost almost one-half of its population through the operation of the Parole law. When the law became effective the "Bankers' Colony" numbered forty men and it now includes but 24.

The present population includes 2 presidents, 1 vice-president, 8 cashiers, 2 assistant cashiers, 6 tellers, 2 bookkeepers and 3 clerks, serving sentences varying from 15 years in the case of William W. Montgomery, former cashier of the First National Bank of Pittsburgh, to one year and one day.

Several of the bankers remaining are expecting early release, and several others will be eligible to appear at the next meeting of the board in January. A few applications for parole by banker prisoners have been rejected and they must serve their full sentences, less "good-time" allowance.

During the present year but 5 men connected with the national banks have been received at the penitentiary, the smallest number received since 1907, when 4 came in. Whether national bankers are becoming honest or whether they have become more expert in covering up their peculations, the prison officials are not prepared to say.

Only one banker is due to leave this year by expiration of sentence. He is Herman Genna, of Houston, Tex., who will be released Dec. 26th. Two are due to leave in 1912, while the last of the present lot, unless his term is shortened by parole or commutation, will leave Dec. 24, 1912.

As a rule the banker convicts are the best behaved in the prison, only 1 having violated a rule of sufficient importance to merit solitary confinement. This man has applied for parole but his application has been rejected.

Nearly all of the convict clerical and stenographic positions at the prison are held by former bankers. With one exception all are "trusties," and now that the bankers are going, former postal employees are getting the clerical jobs.

The "Bankers' Colony" occupies rooms over the office of the deputy warden, each banker having a room-mate. The rooms are better furnished than ordinary cells, the windows having white curtains, and each man can, under certain limitations, furnish his own room. The rooms are not locked nights. After they retire to their rooms at the close of the day's work the bankers are free to visit each other, under certain restrictions.

After the cell houses are locked the bankers spend the hour from 6 to 7 in the yard in summer. Most of these men were doing clerical duty and needed an hour's exercise in the open air.

Another privilege given the "banker trustees" is that of eating at a "special mess" table, for which a better fare is provided than for the general run of prisoners.

Police Court Proceedings.

Three minor cases constituted the docket in the police court yesterday afternoon.

Arthur Whitehead, a colored hack driver, was in the toils on a warrant charging him with driving his vehicle after darkness had fallen without taking the precaution of lighting his lamps which adorn each side. Lit' Arthur told the Mayor that his oil had given out unexpectedly, and that he was homeward bound to replenish the tanks when the guardians of the law spotted him. But slack—also also, he was told that owing to the fact that he had been so negligent of keeping his illuminators properly supplied with fuel, so that he would be prepared to light up at any minute, he would be permitted to contribute $2.50 to the city.

Samuel Richardson, another member of the dusky tribe, imbibed too freely of "rejuvenator" on Monday night and continued his celebration until the first small streaks of approaching day began to appear above the eastern horizon. Officer Parker ran across the ebullient disturber of the peace on one of his rounds and promptly "laid him away" to sober up. A fine of $1 and the costs, which amounted to $2.55, was Sam's despatch.

Luther Neal, who was one of the law breakers who were sentenced to "feed the bear" on the previous day for being disorderly within the city limits, but who managed to make his exit from the court room without leaving his offering to Bruin, was again among the "selected few" lined up before the bar. He told the Mayor that he understood him to say that he "could go" and that he went. The sum of $1.55 was required of the defendant before he was again allowed to "go."

MONEY USED FOR CURRENT EXPENSES.

WHEN you are holding money for current expenses or for the purchase of some new machinery, the payment of notes, interest, taxes or rent, the money should be carefully deposited with the bank where it will earn interest and be positively safe. The New Bern Banking & Trust Company accepts deposits in any amount, paying 4 per cent per annum on savings and time deposits. The money is always payable on demand or at maturity of certificates. The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book.

It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light.

The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price. It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers.
