ALL NEWS TRUTHS NOT PUBLISHABLE.

The newspapers that adhere to the motto to print "all the news that's fit," have the real basis and the true guide for just publication.

No place in the world contains so many secrets as the newspaper office. No one is better acquainted with family skeletons of the community than the local newspaper office.

The following from the Indianapolis Sun, reveals what is known to all editors, but which will be read with interest by those who think they know the editor and the newspaper office.

LOOKING THE STABLE DOOR.

With a temperature twenty or more degrees below the freezing point, it is unnecessary to warn householders, storekeepers and all who have water pipes, that the water in these pipes will freeze, unless one of two things be provided for in advance of these severe freezing spells.

Taking the local situation Saturday, and what was attempted afterwards, there were few who were able to meet the weather successfully unless it is the correct thing to ward off danger, by turning on every faucet on the premises and letting these run until weather changes to assured warmth.

Clarence L. Racine, 17 year old, nearly despatched his mother, then killed himself at Millford, Mass.

I will agree to give it a fine new finish, from the wood or metal up - at the lowest possible cost.

There is only one system which is quick enough to varnish a car throughout from Monday to Saturday - VALENTINE'S CELOX FOUR DAY SYSTEM.

I will return it Saturday! G. S. WATERS & SONS NEW BERN, N. C.

time to save the pipes from being frozen up.

It is unnecessary to detail the menace that this reckless water running entails. The fact that without any serious fire, there is general privation throughout the city, besides a waste and threatened damage to the city's water works, because of the severe extra tax made upon them, these are sufficient in themselves to cause every citizen to be worried in advance and take the needed action and precautionary method in cold weather to save water, not waste water.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER. Julian Hawthorne, Josiah Quincy and others were indicted for illegal use of the mails.

$100 REWARD $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages.
