SHORT PASSING EVENTS

SATURDAY

Mr. Phillip Howard, who several weeks ago went into bankruptcy, has again opened his store on Middle street and will be glad to have customers call on him.

Mr. F. P. Avery, father of young Wm. Avery, who was shot and killed by Baker Bryan last Christmas night, has instituted suit against Bryan for $25,000. Bryan's property in this city has been attached and placed in charge of a watchman.

A two weeks term of civil court for Lenoir county will be convened in Kinston on Monday March 11th. The calendar arranged by the bar provides a busy session and quite a number of more or less important cases will be tried. Judge Ferguson will probably preside over the court.

Supt. Lane informs us that the convict force is now doing some good work on Craven county's roads. A number of new recruits were added to the force at the last term of superior court and they are not allowed to waste their time setting around the convict camp, but every available hour is spent in shoveling dirt.

Shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning the home of Dr. J. P. McCullen, near Bridgeton, was completely destroyed by fire which originated by a spark from the kitchen flue. By hard work the neighbors saved practically all of the furnishings but the building was completely destroyed. The building was valued at $5,000 and was partially covered by insurance.

Mr. George Willis, who was admitted to the Craven county bar at the last term of Superior Court, has opened up an office on the second floor of the building occupied by the Southern Express Company on Craven street. Mr. Willis made an enviable record during the time he was studying law and there is not the least doubt but that he will become one of the leading lights in his profession.

WILL PASS IN-COME TAX BILL

Easy Sailing in The House, But Will Strike Rocks in The Senate.
 Washington, March 4.—The House is expected to begin discussion of the Democratic bill to levy an excise tax on all net incomes above $5,000 a year, including salaries, by Wednesday or Thursday next. It will be reported from the Ways and Means Committee, together with the bill to put sugar on the free list. The two measures probably will be considered conjointly and both will be passed within a week or 10 days.

The known success of the two measures in the Democratic House, turned all discussion today to the Senate end of the capital in which it was admitted that both bills would have a tempestuous career. In the Senate the bills will be referred to different committees, and many Senators unfriendly to them there is little likelihood that they can be linked together as is proposed in the House.

The so-called income tax, or extended corporation tax bill, under the Senate rules will go to the Committee on Judiciary, where it is said it will meet an unfriendly reception. The free sugar bill will go to the finance committee. Senate leaders declared tonight that the finance committee would have a feel justified in reporting a bill cutting off more than $50,000,000 in revenues without knowing what the Senate proposed doing with the income tax bill, looked to make up the deficit. On the other hand, it was said the members of the judiciary committee would not be easily convinced of the necessity of the new taxing measure in the absence of the passage of the sugar bill and the consequent deficit of the revenues.

Seattle, Wash., March 4.—"I am in favor of the income tax bill," said William J. Bryan here today, "and am glad the Democrats have introduced it. Mr. Taft said in 1908 in opposing an income tax that it could be secured by statute whenever the people wanted it."

Senator Bristol in a speech in the Senate opposed the majority report extorting Senator Stephenon.

Vice-President Sherman, it was announced, would take the stump for President Taft.

NOTICE

COTTON SEED VALUE TO FARMERS.

For two years I have planted only a long staple cotton. Got last year 20c. and this year 12c per pound in Norfolk Write Savage Son & Co. The 12c this year is in proportion to the lower price of the general crop as good as 20c last year. Over the Cook and other short staple cotton yielding 40 per cent lint I got $12 per bale of 500 lbs more for the long than they did for the short, allowing for their better yield at gin. It will make over 1 to 3 at gin as MUCH as ANY cotton in the field—bolls large, opens early, vigorous plant. Some seed at 75 cents per bushel for sale.

BETTER OPTICAL SERVICE

Optical Talk No. 1
 By J. O. Baxter, Optometrist

In every trade, profession or branch of work, there are found a few men, who from special fitness, or education, or both, are better prepared to serve you in their line than the multitude of others in the same field.

Since optometry requires special ability in both professional and mechanical work, men that are fitted to do both equally well are scarce. Therefore you cannot be too particular about the selection of the man to whom you intrust your eyes.

The professional work—the examining of your eye defects, must be skillfully and correctly done. The mechanical part—the making and adjusting of your glasses, is no less important.

Every phase of optical work is thoroughly and intelligently done here. From the first step in the examination to the final adjustment of the frame or mounting and a single thing is overlooked or oversight. I do all the work myself, and having had much personal experience with most difficult, complicated eyes, I do not hesitate to say that I can give you perfect satisfaction.

A visit will bring no obligation.

J. O. Baxter OPTOMETRIST and MFG. OPTICIAN

SAVING BRINGS SUCCESS.

Every person who receives money lay down the rule of spending less than is received. No person can be successful for any length of time if he does not live up to this principle. He must save to succeed. That man who is no better off at thirty than he was at twenty faces failure. Every year should see some substantial addition to your bank account. Of course, there may be unavoidable accidents, but the habit of economizing will help you cover all of them. Remember that this bank welcomes savings accounts in any amount.
