LARGE NUMBER RETAILING CASES

Disposed Of at Yesterday's Session Of Federal Court. Much Interest Manifested In The Proceedings.

One case of retailing with a government license after another constituted yesterday's session of Federal Court. There were a large number of spectators in the court room and the general impression left on them was that the whole of this district was a hot bed of violators of the Internal Revenue law. The majority of the offenders showed outward evidence of being degenerate in every detail of their physical and mental make up and there is little wonder that they grasped this opportunity of breaking the law and gaining thereby.

The general plea of defence put up by the offenders when they see no other loop hole is that they secured the whisky for the purchasers just for accommodation and received no remuneration for their services. However, this explanation rarely ever holds good and the offender is given his or her just deserts.

The following cases were disposed of during the day:

U. S. vs. Mack Hudson, charged with retailing. Found guilty and sentenced to serve 6 months in the Federal prison and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. Mattie Williams, charged with retailing. Found guilty and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. Arthur McIver, charged with retailing. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

U. S. vs. W. A. Chapman, charged with retailing. Found guilty and sentenced to a term of three months in jail and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. Andrew Furlow, charged with retailing. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

U. S. vs. Jesse McDaniel, charged with retailing. Defendant plead guilty. Sentenced not to pass.

U. S. vs. James Jones, charged with retailing. Found guilty and sentenced to serve 6 months in prison and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. Joseph Rouse, charged with retailing. Found guilty. Judgment suspended and the defendant is misled.

U. S. vs. Claud Jenkins, charged with retailing. Defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to 3 months in prison and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. George Porter, charged with retailing. Found guilty and sentenced to 6 months in prison and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the case.

U. S. vs. Theodore Hawkins, charged with retailing. Jury returned verdict of not guilty.

U. S. vs. Leslie Hawkins, charged with retailing. Found guilty. Sentence not yet passed.

TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF JONES COUNTY

I hereby declare myself a candidate for the nomination of Sheriff of Jones County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries of the county.

Respectfully,
M. N. HARRIETT.

Signal Honor For Senator Simmons.

Senator Simmons has been selected by his Democratic associates on the Finance Committee to have charge of the metal schedule tariff bill on the floor of the Senate and will vigorously press the bill to a vote. This bill has already passed the house. It makes heavy reductions in the iniquitous duties on iron and steel manufactures and if adopted will give the people much relief.

Of this action of the Democratic members of the Committee, the Charlotte Chronicle says: "The selection of Senator Simmons to lead the fight for the Dem crats at this important stage of the tariff controversy is considered a very high compliment to the ability and standing of the senior North Carolina Senator. His friends claim that this refutes the charge that he would not be promoted to the Chairmanship of the Finance Committee in the event of a Democratic Senate."

The Charlotte Observer says editorially: "We may all congratulate the Senate upon the signal honor which has been done one of its representatives in the Senate at Washington. With Senator Martin of Virginia, as Democratic leader of the Senate, and with Senator Simmons of North Carolina, at the head of the Finance Committee of the Senate, the South is coming into its own place in the political and economic affairs of the country. Long experience and business ability have resulted in the case of our North Carolina Senator in this important recognition of his ability and faithful party service. In honoring him, his Democratic colleagues in the State have honored North Carolina."

WILL FIGHT STANDARD OIL

Rothschilds Interests Buy Docks, Tanks and Refineries In Texas To Handle OIL.

Los Angeles, April 26.—The Rothschild's oil interests, a dominating financial factor in almost every European nation, have secured a lease on Southern Pacific land facing the outer harbor and propose to make Los Angeles the seat of a war against the Standard Oil Application has been filed with the Harbor Commission for permission to erect on this land oil tanks and a distributing basis that will represent immediate investment of $5,000,000. Additional warehouses will be located in this city.

The forty big tank steamers which are used by the Rothschild interests in transporting Oriental oil along the commercial highways of the Pacific Ocean will bring petroleum from the oil fields of the far East to the distributing basis at San Pedro for transshipment to the entire Southwest and territory as far East as the Mississippi river.

This business will be entirely in competition with the wealthy oil interests of America, above which stands, head and shoulders, the great power of the Standard Oil.

Business is to be started on such a scale that there will be at least one of the trans-Pacific tank steamers unloading at San Pedro constantly. Three facts are based on the statements of a representative of the Rothschild, H. R. Gallagher, who is at the office of the Harbor Commission shortly before leaving for San Francisco.

The name of the subsidiary concern under which the European oil magnates will operate is the Indian Refining Company of California Ltd. has been leased by the Indian Refining Company from the Southern Pacific on the bluff at the end of the Government breakwater. Engineers in the employ of the Indian Refining Company began the work of making plans and surveys of the land involved today. The Lieberman Works has been given the contract for the steel tanks.

U. S. vs. George Jackson charged with retailing. Defendant plead guilty and proved an excellent character. Judgment suspended upon payment of the costs of the case and required to give a bond for his appearance at the next term of court and prove good conduct.

U. S. vs. J. R. Melton, charged with retailing. Verdict not guilty.

U. S. vs. Clara Smith, guilty, but owing to the physical condition of the prisoner judgment was suspended.

U. S. vs. Wm Cox, retailing, not guilty.

Will Ask Protection of Law.

A call has been issued for the better class of people and tax payers of James City to meet en masse at a specified place in that village, Monday night, April 29th. The purpose of the meeting is to formulate a petition to be presented to the county authorities to appoint such officials as are necessary to protect the peace, dignity and property of the community. There are many decent, industrious colored people who have built themselves neat, comfortable homes of their own, over there, to whom the lawless and disorderly condition their village is abhorrent, but they have been powerless to help themselves because of no local officials to enforce the law. They say that heretofore the authorities have paid but little attention to them except at tax-paying time, but now, as free holders and law abiding citizens they are going to ask and demand protection of the law.

JUDGE CONNOR COMMENTS ON TRIVIAL CASES

The Large Number of Trivial Cases Sent to the Federal Court When They Could Easily be Disposed of by Local Authorities.

At yesterday's session of Federal court, which is now in session in this city, Judge Connor took occasion to comment upon the large number of trivial cases sent up to this court from all over this district, which could easily be disposed of by the local authorities. He said that he could not clearly understand why the police at the various places could not get enough evidence against the offender in order to place them under arrest but could and did come and give their testimony against the prisoners after they had been arrested and brought up before the U. S. Court. In one case, W. H. Smith (the renowned John Doe) of Vanceboro, testified that he believed the prisoner at the bar was engaged in the sale of liquor. When asked by the Judge why, in his official capacity, he did not place the man under arrest, he stated that he did not know. There are a large number of cases on the docket that could easily have been disposed of by local authorities and the needless time and expense caused in bringing prisoners here and trying them saved.

The following cases were disposed of during the day:

U. S. vs. Gus Holly, charged with retailing, guilty; left open for sentence.

U. S. vs. Slover Bryan, charged with retailing, guilty. No sentence yet passed.

U. S. vs. George Jackson charged with retailing. Defendant plead guilty and proved an excellent character. Judgment suspended upon payment of the costs of the case and required to give a bond for his appearance at the next term of court and prove good conduct.

U. S. vs. J. R. Melton, charged with retailing. Verdict not guilty.

U. S. vs. Clara Smith, guilty, but owing to the physical condition of the prisoner judgment was suspended.

U. S. vs. Wm Cox, retailing, not guilty.

Some Fishing This. at Morehead.

A phone message received at the Journal office, late yesterday afternoon from Mr. W. J. Moore, proprietor of the Hotel Charles, at Morehead City, told of a record catch of fish made in the waters near there. A party made up of citizens and sojourners of the hotel went out after breakfast, and with hooks and lines caught 3,000 trout and other fine fish, returning in time for late dinner. There were several North ern gentlemen in the party and they were intensely delighted with the fine sport. Fishing is said to be finer down there this season than it has been in many years. In fact, Florida has nothing on Morehead City in the way of sporty fishing.

SMALLPOX THREATENS

The Unvaccinated. You Can Protect Yourself Through Being Vaccinated.

Smallpox, the most contagious disease known to science, has recently appeared in our community. All who have not been successfully vaccinated within the last five years are in danger of contracting the disease unless they are vaccinated at once. If you have not been vaccinated, you have good cause for alarm; if you have, you need have no fear of contracting smallpox.

Until lately the State required smallpox to be quarantined. The State Board of Health shall now no longer advocate or insist upon the quarantine of smallpox. The Board takes this position for three reasons:

First, Quarantine is an uncertain protection; vaccination a certain protection. Quarantine works positive harm in many cases by giving people a false sense of security against the disease, thereby tempting them to forego the certain protection which vaccination would give them.

Second, Quarantine is a very expensive protection. The cost of the quarantine of smallpox to the State in recent years has approximated $100,000 annually, or enough to more than maintain the State University.

Third, Quarantine is inequitable. By its taxes that all contribute are used to protect a class. The majority of the people, having been vaccinated, secure no protection from quarantine, as they are already protected.

Vaccination is duty—a duty, first, to one's self, and, second, to one's community. You should preserve your own health in order to accomplish the most good possible in the world, and you should take precautions to prevent your carrying disease to others.

Brilliant Marriage Event at Beaufort.

Beaufort, N. C., April 25.—At St. Paul's Episcopal church, today at 1 p. m. was solemnized the marriage of Nannie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Taylor, and William King Hinshaw, the popular Norfolk-Southern conductor. Rev. F. N. Skinner, Rector of St. Paul's officiated.

The church had been artistically decorated in honor of the occasion and was a scene of loveliness. The altar was a bank of palms and ferns.

As the bridal party entered the church Mr. Chas. T. Pumphrey, of New Bern sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, attractively gowned in white dutch satin with real lace and pearls and carrying a large bouquet of lilies of the valley entered first attended by her bridesmaids, Mrs. Allan D. O'Brien and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, the brides cousins. At the altar they were met by the groom who was attended by Mr. Leslie Davis, his best man.

The short, but solemn ceremony of the Episcopal church was used.

Following the ceremony a reception was tendered by the parents of the bride. The home was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and green. The dining room was especially attractive, the table being covered with real lace over pink and lighted with candles. A delicious iced course was served.

The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for a visit at Washington, Niagara Falls and New York City. Upon their return they will reside at Beaufort.

The bridesmaids were Misses Lillian Hinshaw, of Comfort, Kathleen Herbert, of Morehead City; Sophia Dill and Lois Pelletier, of Beaufort, Miss Elizabeth Duncan was maid of honor.

The groomsmen were Messrs William Williford, of Rocky Mount, Jack Hornady and Albertson of Beaufort.

Mrs. Samuel Thomas and Allan O'Brien, of Beaufort acted as ushers. The many presents attested the regard in which the lovely bride and her husband were held.

WEEKLY COTTON MARKET REVIEW

Active Speculation Firm. Spot Prices Cotton Goods In Demand.

New York, April 27.—Cotton advanced steadily for a time owing to heavy rains especially in the section east of the Mississippi river. They were accompanied by bad reports in regard to floods in the lower Mississippi Valley, where some sections were said to be under 5 to 15 feet of water, which had swept over thousands of acres of fertile land. Farm work in many sections is said to be two weeks to a month behind. In the meantime, the spot markets have been firm. Cotton goods have been strong with a good demand. Spinners have been buying the next crop months. Liverpool spot sales at times have been liberal. Tuesday Waldorf Astoria operators are said to have bought 75,000 to 100,000 bales of Oct. and December here. Wall Street and spot interests have also bought at times freely. The Waldorf buying was believed to be for both sides of the account, but in the main for a rise. Liverpool has sent some buying orders. The continent has been buying at Liverpool. Some experienced people here doubt the possibility now of a crop of 14,000,000 bales being raised this season. They also believe that a crop of that size is imperative. Heavy rains have prevailed at times in the Atlantic and Eastern Gulf States. The conditions in that section improved on Wednesday and Thursday and very many favorable reports have been received from Texas and Oklahoma, particularly from Texas. Those have given rise to the belief that the next Texas crop may easily exceed any ever before raised. On Thursday came very heavy liquidation coincident with a good weather snap. In fact on Wednesday there was also some heavy selling. Liverpool prices have latterly been rather disappointing. Liquidation has evidently been going on there as well as in America. Many believe that with a period of a couple of weeks of good weather at the South the lost ground would be largely made up.

Others maintain that the consumption is being overestimated and that in all likelihood a big surplus will be carried over into the next season, which would offset very largely even a considerable decrease in the next crop. Liverpool and the continent have at times sold here and there has been a good deal of liquidation for local Western and Southern account as well as for Wall street interests. It is largely a weather market. On Friday spot sales in Liverpool jumped to 14,000 bales. Little planning has been done in Georgia and Alabama. Latterly, however, under the pressure of liquidation, some action in prices has occurred.

Closing Exercises at Emmerton School

Swanboro, April 28th.—The closing exercises of the above popular and prosperous scholastic institution were held on Thursday and Friday last. On Thursday the Misses Johnson and French, the talented and accomplished instructors, took their pupils for a trip over the sea banks and to the Life Saving Station, where they witnessed the drill of the crew. After this they partook of a dainty luncheon on the sands, returning by steamboat in the afternoon, every member of the party being delighted with the day's outing.

Friday was devoted to examinations and demonstration work in the various subjects of the academic course which the pupils have studied during the Fall and Winter sessions.

As in previous years the demonstration work proved a great and pleasant surprise to parents and friends present, who freely expressed themselves as abundantly satisfied with the fine progress made by every child.

Year after year the Emmerton School and its splendidly equipped corps of teachers makes good its ever increasing usefulness to the entire community, through its unique methods of training and educating, not only children, but the young men and maidens of the town through the medium of literary and musical entertainments, boys clubs, sewing circles, etc.

Since this school was founded 8 years ago a new impetus has been given to the life of the old historic town, and a great transformation has been effected in the social, moral and intellectual uplift of the entire community.

The Glow of The Rubies.

Today we present our readers with the first instalment of that remarkable story written by Francis Perry Elliott entitled "The Glow of The Rubies."

We are frank to confess that its only object is to make you laugh. The story is as impossible as any Arabian Nights tale, and by the same token entertaining and amusing. There are many strange and remarkable happenings just because one man repaid a kindness with a gift of a remarkable pair of silk pajamas, once the property of a Chinese princess. You should imagine more absurd or ridiculous situations than those portrayed in this new serial and if you are in search of a story with a laugh in every paragraph you should not fail to read "The Glow of The Rubies."

Revival This Week at Tabernacle.

A series of revival meetings will begin tomorrow night at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, continuing throughout the week. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. J. B. Phillips, of Macon, Ga., who is expected to arrive Monday morning. Mr. Phillips is an evangelist of wide renown in the South. He comes here from Spartanburg, S. C., where he has been holding a most successful revival. The local paper of Spartanburg, gives a glowing account of Evangelist Phillips' good work in that town, stating in the headlines of the article, that at least fifteen hundred people clamored for admission to the church last Sunday to hear the great preacher.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these meetings. Preaching will begin at 8:00 o'clock, preceded by a song service of 15 minutes.
