Allen Trial Held.
Wytheville, Va., July 4th.—Proceedings in the second trial of Claude Allen were brought to a sudden halt yesterday when one of the jurors, C. T. Bilsow, was stricken with an attack of acute indigestion. It is thought that the juror will be well enough by tomorrow for the trial to proceed.

Dealing statements were made by the Commonwealth and the defense today, and two witnesses, Judge D. W. Hester, examined. Hester repeated the statements made by him at the former trial of Claude Allen, saying the young man had the first shot and that was the one which killed Judge Hester. Nothing new was brought out.

PLANTERS WILL CO-OPERATE

With the Department of Agriculture in Introducing New Methods.

Washington, July 6th.—That the cotton planters of the South are anxious to cooperate with the Department of Agriculture in the efforts of the government to introduce better methods of handling and marketing cotton, is the report brought to Secretary Wilson by Charles J. Brand and W. A. Sherman, who have just returned from an extended reconnaissance trip through the South and Southwest.

"The greatest weakness of the cotton growing interests," said Mr. Brand, "is their lack of organization in units of sufficient size to enable them to furnish even running sales in commercial quantities. It is hoped to overcome this difficulty through the organization of cotton growers' associations, all of whose members will grow a uniform variety of cotton, which investigations of the department have shown best adapted to their conditions. The department contemplates actual demonstrations in handling and marketing in the most direct manner practicable.

"The New England and Southern spinning interests have expressed their interest in the new work. In the Imperial valley in California, where cotton had been grown commercially only for three years, the growers already have organized.

"Similar organizations are getting together in other states."

Well Known Citizen Falls on Sleep.

Following a stroke of apoplexy Mr. Alexander McLacklan passed away at his home, No. 134 Pollock street yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock.

On Friday night Mr. McLacklan attended a special meeting of the Royal Arcanum Lodge of which he was a member. Arriving home shortly after 11 o'clock he went to his room and sat down by a window and began smoking a cigar. Suddenly his wife, who was in the room at the time, saw him drop the cigar. Calling to him to inquire the cause of his action she received no answer and upon investigating found him in an unconscious condition. Physicians were summoned and rendered medical aid but the patient died without regaining consciousness.

Serving Mr. McLacklan are his wife, Mrs. Lucy Williams, Mrs. R. E. Smith and Miss Mamie McLacklan and five sons, Messrs Edward and Herbert of Commerce, R. L. and Ernest, Frank and Robert of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Wolfenden and Mrs. W. S. Bloor of this city.

The deceased was 61 years of age and had resided in this city for many years.

The funeral will be conducted from the Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and the interment made in Cedar Grove cemetery.

On the ground included in this sale is a small brick structure. The consideration paid for the entire property was $7,000. Mr. Crockett sold to Mr. J. A. Jones the small house and lot and the owner will lease the building and add the tract of land to his farm. Mr. Bradham has purchased the building and land opposite the depot, known as the Dunn property, the consideration paid being $2,700. It is understood that he will erect a modern brick block on this site.

TRAINS CRASH; MANY KILLED

Lackawanna Express Crashes Into Passenger Train. Thirty-five Dead.

Corning, N. Y., July 5.—Thirty-five passengers were killed and 50 injured when an express train crashed into the fast westbound Lackawanna passenger train No. 9 two miles east of this city yesterday morning.

The passenger train which runs from New York to Buffalo, had been standing on the track for 20 minutes when the express train, which carried no passengers, struck it in the rear at full speed.

The two day coaches attached to the rear of No. 9 were hurled down an embankment and the express plunged half way through the rear Pullman of the standing train before it came to a stop.

The collision occurred at 2:25 o'clock. Most of the killed were passengers in the day coaches who were returning home to spend the Fourth.

On account of the confusion and the lack of wires the news of the disaster was slow in reaching here, but by 6 o'clock physicians were on the scene and the injured brought to a hospital here.

At 8 o'clock a number of the injured were still pinned under the wreckage and their groans and shrieks could be clearly heard.

At one time there were 50 persons, many of them fatally injured, lying on the floor of the emergency room at the local hospital. Every undertaker in Corning was called to help care for the dead, but their wagons were first pressed into service to carry the injured to the hospital.

The place where the wreck occurred was a straight stretch of track. So far as can be ascertained the engineer of the express train had no warning that the passenger train was in his way.

The crowded passenger train was held up by a break in a freight train on the track ahead. No. 11 came along at the rate of 60 miles an hour. William Spaver, the engineer, failed to see the stalled train ahead because of a dense fog that prevailed at the time. The engine crashed through the observation car and telescoped three coaches ahead.

Mayor Rodman's Son Operated Upon.

Dr. J. C. Rodman of this city, Dr. Robert Primrose, of New Bern, and Dr. Duncan, of Beaufort, operated on Major Wiley C. Rodman's son, Wiley Croom Jr., at the Inlet Inn, Beaufort, N. C., Wednesday for Empyema. The operation was very successful and the little fellow is now improving.

The youngest child of Major and Mrs. Rodman is still very ill at Beaufort. Dr. Rodman expects to remain at Beaufort several days longer.—Washington, N. C. News.

Postal Savings Bonds.

Washington, July 5.—Secretary MacVeagh prepared to issue $554,860 in postal saving bonds to depositors in the postal banks who wish to convert their savings into 20 year 2 1/2 per cent. bonds.

The new issue is the third of the series and will bring the total savings bonds outstanding up to $2,314,149. It is estimated that the total savings deposits have reached $29,000,000.

State Rests in Thaw Case.

White Plains, N. Y., July 6.—At the conclusion of yesterday's session the State practically rested its case in the hearing before Supreme Court Judge K. Thaw from the Matthew saylum.

Dr. Carlos MacDonal, the third of the alienists to assert that Thaw is still suffering from paranoia, finished his testimony after being put through two days of cross-examination by Clarence J. Shearn, Thaw's counsel. Throughout the lengthy inquisition the alienist insisted that the slayer of Stanford White is still possessed of insane delusions and should be kept in an asylum.

Mr. Shearn intends to put on the stand alienists favorable to Thaw as the next step in the hearing. Thaw's attorneys are Dr. Adolph Meyer, Dr. Frederick A. Mills, and Dr. William A. White. It is believed Mr. Shearn will call also some 40 other witnesses, all of whom are expected to give evidence which will tend to prove that Thaw is sane, and that the delusions he is supposed to have are based upon actual facts.

The hearing was adjourned until Monday.

MEXICANS ARE STILL FIGHTING

Guerrilla Warfare Threatens Devastation. Many Skirmishes.

El Paso, Tex., July 5.—Organized revolution in Mexico insofar as it simulates a military campaign of concentrated forces, was by yesterday's movement of the rebel army shown to have ended and in its place there was substituted a guerrilla warfare, threatening widespread devastation to North-western Mexico.

Five troop trains bore the regimental insurgents from the vicinity of Chihuahua City to Juarez, opposite here, and before the day was over it was expected that most of the rebels would be sent south-west from Juarez a distance of 75 miles to Casas Grandes, from which point it was intended to effect an entrance to the rich mining State of Sonora.

Having abandoned Chihuahua to the F. derals, the rebels destroyed all bridges between Bachimba, where the last battle occurred, and Sauez 30 miles north of the small station at which the rebel outposts now are gathered. The evacuation of Chihuahua means that the zone of rebel control will be greatly diminished, Juarez being the only important point that remains.

General Pascual Orozco, the rebel chief, spent the night at Sauez, but was expected in Juarez today to direct the movements of various bands into which the rebel army is now disintegrating. Juarez at present is the rebel capital, train loads of archives having been sent there within the last three days. Though the invasion of Sonora means a campaign in the mountains, the rebels most of them mountaineers, believe themselves equal to it.

The revolution in that form, they say will prove more vexatious to the government than an ordinary campaign. To check the rebel invasion of Sonora, the Mexican government is moving forces from Agua Prieta and Western Sonora. Fully four thousand men are believed to be under way to intercept the rebels.

General Salinas left Agua Prieta today for Fronteras, Sonora, to take command of the main column, and while the forces of General Salinas are engaging the rebels on the State line between Sonora and Chihuahua the army of General Huerta is to move up from the city of Chihuahua along the Mexican Northwestern Railroad toward Casas Grandes and attack the rebels from the rear.

The next battle if any occurs, should be at Casas Grandes. At Juarez there is little likelihood of a fight as the rebels plan to withdraw most of their forces toward Sonora.

Reports early were to the effect that no Federalists had yet entered the city of Chihuahua though a detachment of cavalry under General Rabago was said to be nearing the town.

C. W. MUNGER.

All that was mortal of the late C. W. Munger was laid to rest in Cedar Grove Cemetery last evening. At Centenary Church services were held, over which Revs. J. B. Hurley and R. C. Beaman, the two pastors and close friends of the deceased, presided. The floral tokens were beautiful and in profusion. The music by the choir and the reminiscences by the pastors created a profound sympathetic interest in the hearts of the great concourse present.

It can seldom be said that a community suffers so distinctive a loss in the death of a citizen, that citizen may be prominent and even influential, as does New Bern in the passing of C. W. Munger. This community of interest felt for Mr. Munger, was commercial, industrial, religious. No citizen was personally and individually so financially interested and in so many different local business concerns, as he. Every man of presumed financial standing, is solicited for help. Mr. Munger was and the difference between him and most others, he took some stock, put in some money, when the appeal was shown at least prospectively good, and this in a quiet way, for Mr. Munger, however keen in trade affairs, was very quiet in personal demeanor. This self-help so generously extended to so many by Mr. Munger is best known and most felt by the recipients. It has done much for the city and its people, and the absence of this man will be felt by many.

Revisits His Old Battle Fields.

Captain J. F. Clarke has returned from an interesting and very pleasant trip to Western Maryland where he visited the battlefields of Sharpsburg, Antietam and Athens upon which he fought in his early manhood.

The following notice of his visit is taken from the Daily Mail, of Hagerstown, Md.

"Mr. James F. Clarke, a well known merchant of New Bern, N. C., is spending a few days in Western Maryland. He was sergeant-major of the Third N. C. Infantry, Ripley's brigade, D. H. Hill's division. In the first invasion of Stonewall Jackson into Maryland 1862, his command was actively engaged.

The command was at Boonsboro on September 13, about sundown, when the signal gun in South Mountain Gap was fired. His regiment made a dash from Boonsboro to the gap in about 40 minutes. They ran all the way and went immediately to the mountain where they were engaged until 10 o'clock at night. The mountain was evacuated by the Confederates on Monday morning and took a position across the Antietam, where on Wednesday, Sept. 17th, they were engaged in a fierce conflict, 13,000 men being killed and wounded.

This is Mr. Clarke's first visit in Western Maryland since 1862. At that time he was a young man and is now aged 70. He purposes to take in all the battlefields before his return. During his visit he expects to greet a number of old comrades whether they wore the blue or gray. He is a most affable gentleman and was a pleasant caller at The Mail office.

Last Wednesday morning United States Deputy Marshal Samuel Lilly of this city and Miss Mary Dixon, of Morehead City, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at Beaufort, Rev. J. H. McCracken, of that place performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lilly will make their home in New Bern.

Thanks of Congress.

Washington, July 5.—The thanks of Congress are conveyed to Captain Arthur H. Rostron and the officers and crew of the liner Carpathia for their rescue of 704 survivors of the Titanic, in a Senate bill passed by the House today. The measure now goes to President Taft for signature. In addition the bill provides for a $1,000 gold medal or Captain Rostron which, in the language of the bill, shall express the high estimation in which Congress holds the service of this officer, to whose promptness and vigilance was due the rescue of 774 women and children and 330 men.

Many Ships Built by the Americans.

Washington, July 4.—American shipbuilders completed 229 vessels of all descriptions during the month of June. Most of the craft were of the small wooden steamer variety and total gross tonnage for the lot was only 31,355. Nine steel steam vessels were turned out, the largest being the Renova, of 4,154 gross tons, built at Corian Ohio for the Standard Oil Company, and the Sol Duc, of 1,095 gross tons, built at Seattle, Wash., for the Seattle Construction Company.

FEDERALS STILL FIGHTING HARD

Government Forces Now Have the Most Advantageous Position.

At General Huerta's federal headquarters, Bachimba, July 4th.—Eight hours of hard fighting gave the government forces the advantageous position they now hold, and when the fighting resumed tomorrow General Huerta believes he will have no difficulty in forcing the entire rebel army from their mountain stronghold.

"The government army made a great showing," said General Huerta as he moved his box car telegraph office into Bachimba station at ten o'clock last night, a place only yesterday held by the rebels.

Tomorrow at daybreak, he declared, the federals will renew the attack. Two bomb throwing machines were captured from the rebels and several prisoners were taken. Casualties are unknown tonight as the battlefield has not been examined, but as most of the firing was long range its not believed the loss will be heavy on either side. Unless General Orozco on account of a scarcity of ammunition has withdrawn his force northward as has been reported here, it is probable that tomorrow's fighting will be decisive.

Cuban Rebels Attack Police.

Santiago, Cuba, July 6.—A force of insurgents late last night attacked a police outpost in the suburbs of this city, shooting and killing one policeman. The rebels retired apparently without loss. Government troops were dispatched immediately on their trail.

The citizens are much alarmed, as the insurgents were supposed to have been completely dispersed and driven off to the woods, and the audacious attack on the suburbs was a complete surprise. The strength of the attacking force is not known.

Appropriation for Militia Invalid.

Washington, July 5.—The whole extensive program for the joint encampment and maneuvers of the regular army and the national guard, which began today, came near being suspended through omission in the enrollment of the act of Congress providing for the exercises.

In the haste of the legislators the law bore the usual initial declaration, "by the senate and the house of representatives of the United States." But the words "of America," which should have followed, were omitted and the act thus was made invalid.

The war department law officers, however, discovered that the appropriations for the maintenance of the regular establishment might be used to a limited extent for about two weeks to defray the expenses of the troops, and before the expiration of that time Congress is expected to correct the error.

Hard on the Governor.

Even if governor Kitchin should succeed in his effort to prove Senator Simmons was not fit to succeed himself in the senate would he not have to go all over the state again to prove that he himself was fit for the job? The Governor dwells at length on records. He has been in office 16 years and if he has a record of large achievements, even his staunchest supporters have failed to produce it. Is the governor occupying all of his time in attacking his opponent in order to keep the public eye away from his own record? It begins to look that way.—Concord Times, (Democrat.)

Rebel Army on Retreat.

Mapuis, Mexico, July 5.—The entire rebel army withdrew from Bachimba twenty-five miles north of here. The rebels admit defeat, attributing it to lack of ammunition.

The whole rebel army will retreat toward the American border, abandoning Chihuahua city to the federals.

Women Patients Escape.

New York, July 6.—While fire was eating its way down from the top floor of the Pathological Institute, a hospital and library building on Ward's Island, in the East river, late last night over 400 women patients were safely removed from the structures. Excellent discipline was maintained and no one was injured. The three story brick building was completely destroyed.

More than 4,000 patients in other hospital buildings on the island were kept from harm by insurance that the fire was a slight one.

WEEKLY COTTON MARKET REVIEW

Government Report Causes Active Advance. Crop Situation.

New York, July 6.—The cotton trade was caught napping by the government report on Wednesday. Even many of the bulls seemed to be dozing. They waked up, however. Everybody seemed to be buying at once as soon as the condition and acreage figures were announced and prices therefore rapidly advanced. The condition was given as 80.4 per cent against 78.9 a month ago, 88.3 last year and 80.7 as the ten-year average. As for the acreage it was given as only 34,097,000 or 2,584,000 less than the total for last year. As regards the condition, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee, made an especially bad showing. Nor do the Carolinas, Florida and Oklahoma appear to advantage. They are well behind last year. Georgia is so far behind as to attract special attention. And since the report June 25, there have been complaints of excessive rains and cold nights in the Atlantic section and also to some extent in the eastern gulf and central portions of the belt. That makes some people think that the real condition of the crop is below 80 per cent. However this may be, very many are bullish on the idea that the condition of the crop is rather bad, that the season is two to three weeks late and that exceptionally favorable weather will be necessary during July and August to raise a crop of anything like the size required. Of late there has been persistent heavy rains in parts of Georgia, Tennessee and Arkansas. Meantime the spot sales in Liverpool are surprisingly large. Bulls are elated over this fact. On the other hand, there are those who think that the price of cotton is altogether too high. They believe that spinners are well supplied on both sides of the water. Recently some of them have been selling a little of their spot cotton, evidently believing that it can be replaced to advantage later on. The outlook in Texas is very favorable. Many believe that the crop in that state will this year be the largest ever raised. Poor crop reports, active spot markets, home and abroad, the strength of July in New Orleans and latterly the nervousness of shorts have contributed to cause an advance in prices. The government puts the decrease in acreage at about seven per cent as against recent estimates from other sources as low as a decrease as one-half of one per cent.

Union Picnic.

There was quite a pleasant and profitable gathering at Tuscarora on Thursday July 4th.

The Sunday schools of Gethsemane, Clerks and Tuscarora met at the latter place with well filled baskets for a day of physical rest and of social uplift.

The exercises began in the church at eleven o'clock with singing, prayer and Bible reading.

Mr. S. M. Brinson, of New Bern, was then introduced and made a very impressive talk to the Sunday schools. Mr. Brinson emphasized the great worth of the Sunday schools showing their importance, and live a wise master builder, showed the importance of Bible study and urged its use not only in the Sunday school, but that it should be used daily by every teacher of the county in our day schools.

After the exercises in the church the gathering of about 300 souls repaired to the grove to examine and appropriate the contents of the baskets and boxes, a bountiful feast was spread, we all enjoyed the repast. Then for two or three hours the social life was prominent and in groups of two or more, often only two, the crowd proceeded to enjoy the pleasant afternoon.

The older boys from 40 to 75 years of age talked farming and politics, we don't know of what those groups of two talked as we were too polite to eavesdrop them.

One rather strange event was noted, in a wagon on the grounds were ten young ladies, and the strange part was not a boy on that wagon. We older boys who were once chivalrous could not understand it.

No, Cordelia, going up in an airship isn't dangerous. It's the coming down that is apt to give the undertaker a job.
