WOMAN'S BANK WRECKER

Confesses Taking Money To Pay Husband's Gambling Debts.
Chicago, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Margaret L. Kirby, wife of the president of the defunct Kirby Savings Bank, in the United States Judge Landis' court related an involved story of banking gambling which reached a point of dramatic intensity, when two suspected swindlers were brought before Mrs. Kirby and the court for identification.

Mrs. Kirby could not identify the two men whom she had charged with swindling her banker husband of $600,000 through a fake wire-tapping scheme. Kirby and his nephew, Daniel Kirby, also failed to identify the men.

Throughout the day a crowd jammed Judge Landis' court and listened eagerly to every detail of the woman's confession, every sentence of which further implicated her husband in the failure of his private savings bank. She told of how she trustingly made bank deposits under fictitious names under her husband's order. In simple narrative she told of wild night rides in taxicabs, when she carried from $10,000 to $20,000 in a small black handbag, hurrying to Kirby that he might have more funds with which to engage in the alleged wire-tapping scheme.

Mrs. Kirby averred that she was almost penniless, having even turned over her jewelry to her mother in order to obtain money with which to employ counsel.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.
Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one-third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time."
"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENBUR, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.
New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything."
"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1641 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.
Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles."
"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman. I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MARTIE HONOR, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.
Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself."
"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBURY, 713 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.
Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed."
"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it."
"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Why don't you try this reliable remedy?

The next man who mentions politics to Taft will get the stony stare.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers (Adv.)

Well, well, the Colonel did maintain that silence for nearly two days.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal leaving a scar. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

It will be difficult to distribute 100,000 offices among 1,000,000 original Wilson men.

Marriage may either form one's character or reform it.

SICK HEADACHE.
This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

The average woman knows more about some other woman than she knows about herself.

ESCAPES AN AWFUL FATE.
A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough, she writes. 'Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now.' Quick and safe, its the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists. (Adv.)

There are spots on the sun, yet some people expect a small boy to be perfect. The self-made man is unable to see where he could have made any improvement on his work.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My Children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them, says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

It takes a good dinner to dissolve an ordinary grouch.

"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Chambell, of Lavonia, Ga. "I have used it with all of my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers. (advertisement.)

Wilson will be the "doctor" now.

Is your husband cross? An irritable fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

Boy Pirates Hush Baby's Cries With Cookies

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Just like all the money in the world, was the way $33 looked to two twelve-year-old robbers who looted the till of a Lake street grocery, fed a baby gin-wanows to keep it quiet while they made the raid, and then fled to Lake Minnetonka, where they planned to become pirates, with a cave on Michael's Island for headquarters. The pirate flag was never raised, for the night of two youngsters buying ice cream sodas by the half dozen and dicker with boatmen to charter a launch was too blaring to escape the notice of Chief of Police John Powers of Excelsior. With but $5 of the money spent, the pirate cruise ended in the city jail.

The boys told their own story when they were locked up. They said they went into Gust Johnson's grocery, 333 East Lake street, just to spend a few pennies. They found the store de-

IN THE CLUTCHES OF GOLF FRENZY

"There is nothing else so sad," declared the woman who had the floor, "as to view a strong man in the clutches of that perfidious disease, the golf fever. He becomes as a small boy who runs home joyfully to relate how he played 'keeps' and won all the marbles from the other small boys, or else wants comfort because they won his marbles."

"After a successful afternoon at his club Edward returns to his family so excited that he doesn't know whether the dish before him is pickled dogmat or porthouse steak. He begins talking at once, while I sit waiting for a break in his talk, so that I can ring for more butter or ask for water, and while the children hold on to their chairs by main force, starving to death because he has forgotten to serve them, and they know papa must not be interrupted when he is talking."

"Yes," Edward says, "I licked 'em today! Never saw such a score." (Business of fishing score card from pocket.) "Why, the third and sixth and seventh I made in two less than bogey—think of it, two less! And the first and fourth and the next three over the fourth I did in bogey and the others in just one over—no, by Jove, I did the nineteenth in less than bogey, too!"

"Why," I murmur, "That was a score, certainly! Will you pass—"

"Hopkins plays a close game," Edward proceeds cheerily. "I had to look sharp to win over him. I thought I was lost when he did that 220-yard drive at the third hole, and if I do say it, I'm strong on driving!"

"Yes, you are, dear," I agree, bright-eyed. "Will you please give Eddie some of the—"

"The committee ought to have the long grass on the tenth mowed," Edward breaks in, fiercely. "It's a disgrace to the club! The caddies deliberately lose the balls in that grass I nearly reported my caddy today—paid no attention to the game at all I made a fine drive and he was looking the other way! I—"

"'Boo-ho-oo!' some one of the children wails when hunger grows unendurable. Then Edward peers about him unseeing and wants to know what on earth alls Eddie or Jane. I suggest that if they get a share of the dinner they may feel better."

"Sometimes I go out to the club to join Edward for dinner. If you are on the terrace when the golfers come in, hot and grimy and disheveled after their round, you get it full force. You see two men sawing the air and shouting like a political convention and getting purple in the face and acting as though they were just waiting to be dared to jump at each other and claw and scratch. But all in the world that is happening is that one of them is explaining why he lost a stroke at seventh hole and the other is insisting that he should by good rights have lost two if he had scored correctly. Or, maybe one of them is saying the green at the eleventh hole slopes up and the other is declaring that it slopes down."

"I admire the reserve force in a golfer. He will tramp five miles under a sun that would fry eggs, using up good muscle swatting a ball around, and arrive at the club looking as though he was going to die of apoplexy, if not just plain exhaustion. As you wildly start to bring him first aid to the injured another golfer in like condition makes some remark to which he objects and then they're off at a mile a minute gallop, arms whirling like windmills, quarrelling over the best way to get a ball out of the gully behind the twelfth green."

"The winners are the worst. They take a shower and put on their niftiest clothes and prance up and down all that evening, explaining just how bad the other fellows were. Golf is the only game in which it is sportsmanlike to run down your opponent. It is really expected of you and if you don't do it you are instantly suspected of being no gentleman."

"Still, I approve of golf clubs—they're such nice places to go for a dinner on a hot night when your coat has left!"—Chicago Daily News.

ALWAYS WORTH THE LIVING

Despondency Only of the Moment, and Life is Bound to Resume Its Cheerfulness.

Of course we have all heard the query, "Is life worth living?" Perhaps we've asked it of ourselves many times, in moments of discouragement, when all things seemed to be working for the darker side, and the sunlight of hope was for the time being obscured by heavy clouds.

Many are the answers—in fact, all humanity from the very beginning has been responding to the great challenge—and we are today the living exponents of the problem.

"If my life, your life and the life of our neighbor has been 'lived' and holds the power to keep on doing so, then yes, a thousand times, our lives are worth living!"

But if, for some or many reasons, these lives have been spent in days of idleness, or worse, the answer is to be found on the face of the undeniable failures which are the outcome of such waste.

People who are in earnest about whatever they are engaged in doing seldom have time to stop and ask such questions; they are too busy making their own and the lives of those with whom they are associated really worth while; to withdraw from life's great army of workers and "livers"—merely to stand by the roadside and say, "Is it all worth while?"

Some people remind us of "insulated" bodies; they are wholly unresponsive, cut off—as it were—from the influence of anything good, true and beautiful, seemingly surrounded by their own narrowness of mind and smallness of soul.

And they are the ones who ask, "Is life worth living?"—Exchange.

SEE AMERICA IN TWO DAYS

Pretty English Girl Has Mistaken Idea of the Size of This County.

New York.—America was discovered by one of the prettiest girls who ever brought an accent from the British Isles. She learned that Uncle Sam's domain runs for a considerable distance due west from Hoboken.

Miss May Garstang stood on the deck of the steamship Cedric and made plans for a two days' vacation.

"I'm going to see America, you know," she said. "I really must run out and see the place you call Frisco. Then I'll have to run up to Chicago and down to Texas to see where your cowboys come from. But I can't waste more than a couple of days."

Miss Garstang was told that it was more than 3,000 miles to the Pacific coast and that it would take a week to get to Frisco.

"Really, now you're chaffing me!" she cried. "Why, in England one can go from coast to coast in a day. Isn't it extraordinary?" she exclaimed.

"Of course, I've seen maps of your country, but I'd no idea the maps were so rightfully inaccurate."

are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell of Luca, N.
