

Both of these are called "complete" fertilizers, but they are very different.

If you prefer ready-mixed fertilizers, insist on having enough Potash in them to raise the crop as well as to raise the price. Crops contain more than three times as much Potash as phosphoric acid.

It was found years ago that the composition of the crop is not a sure guide to the most profitable fertilizer, but it does indicate a very smart man to figure out that a well-balanced fertilizer should contain at least as much Potash as Phosphoric Acid. Insist on having it so.

If you do not find the brand you want, make talk to your dealer and ask him to carry Potash in stock or order it for you. It will pay you both.

PLAN TO HONOR TITANIC HEROES

NORFOLK LEADS MOVEMENT

Undertaking Launched at Annual Banquet Held By Marine Engineers.

Norfolk, Jan. 4.—A movement was set on foot last night at the annual banquet of the Marine Engineers Benefit Association, by John C. Hilton, commonwealth's attorney, to perpetuate the memory of marine engineers who are buried in the sunken hull of the Titanic. If the association continues this movement it will be the first organization in the world to give official recognition to the bravery and heroism of the 34 men who remained at posts of death in the engine rooms of the doomed vessel.

Not one engineer was saved from the sinking ship. They remained in the hold until the ship turned her bow to the bottom, going down with lights burning, propellers churning and wireless apparatus still supplied with current. Mr. Tilton classed those men with the bravest heroes of history. Every marine engineer bears similar responsibilities and Mr. Tilton declared they should take steps to see that the memory of those who sacrificed life to ambition never grows dim. He suggested that memorial shafts be erected at the entrance to New York and Liverpool harbors, with Norfolk the first to head a subscription list.

Charles A. Bond was toastmaster and made the initial speech of the evening. In a few words he explained the aims and objects of the association, saying 1912 had been a prosperous year for marine engineers in Norfolk and had been marked by almost no friction between engineers and employers. Short talks were heard from several other guests among them F. E. Ward A. Richardson of the New York Pennsylvania and Norfolk Railroad; James V. Trehy, George W. Harney, Richard A. Dobie, B. Gray Tunstall, Walter H. Taylor, Jr., Clinton L. Wright and Dr. James G. Rickick.

Mudhole in Driveway Is Being Much Criticized.

On lower Middle street, just north of the Blade's building, is a space of several hundred square feet which is unoccupied except by a small frame structure used as a restaurant. A section of this unoccupied plot of ground is used as a driveway to the dock just back of the Blades building and hundreds of wagons traverse it each day. For many weeks this driveway has been a "loblolly" of mud and water, at times becoming in such condition that it is almost impossible for vehicles to pass there while pedestrians do not venture to do so.

This spot has been the object of much adverse criticism of late. Persons visiting New Bern are surprised to see such a place right in the business district of the city and they as well as many local people wonder why it is permitted.

Tail of the Fiery Dragon.

One of the peculiarities of the ancient writers on natural history subjects was the implicit faith which they placed in the genuineness of the various basilisk and dragon stories which were told to them. Brunetto, for an instance to the point, relates with all soberness that "the basilisk is the king of serpents. He wears a white crest upon his head, and such is the abundance of his venom that the air is poisoned wherever this dire reptile passes. Trees in which he rears his home exhale such a poisonous odor that birds in flying over are so overcome with it that they fall to the ground dead."

"The dragon," says the same author, "is the very largest of serpents and inhabits especially India and Ethiopia. When he flies out of the caverns in which he makes his home he furrows the air with such violence as to make it gleam with fire. His mouth is small, and he has not the power to inflict deadly wounds with his teeth. In his tail, however, his power lies, and with it he can instantly strangle the largest elephant."

"BLOOD IS THICKEER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in their own sweat and blood, or those who are shut up indoors in winter time with a cool stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic dioxide gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, is anemic people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intensely from the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

MEETS AWFUL DEATH

Young Man Falls From Train and Car Wheel Passes Over Body.

A young man named Eubanks employed by the John L. Roper Lumber Company met an awful death yesterday about ten o'clock near Camp Perry when he fell from a log train and was run over by one of the wheels of the train. He died a short while afterward. The body was brought to Pollockville over the Roper road and was met there by the mother, Mrs. A. T. Banks of Maysville. It was prepared for burial and sent to Northeast where the interment will take place. The young man was about eighteen years of age. He was the son of Mrs. Banks by a former marriage.

ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN

Enjoyable Affair Under Auspices of Lawson Sunday School. (Special to the Journal)

De Bruhl's, Jan. 4.—Last night the Sunday school of Lawson's Baptist chapel held their Christmas entertainment and it proved to be one of the most pleasing events of the holiday season. The church had been appropriately decorated for the occasion and together with the large Christmas tree the scene was indeed an attractive one. An extensive program had been prepared for the occasion and the large audience present thoroughly enjoyed the entire event. Short talks were made by Rev. J. D. White, J. E. Richardson, Isaiah McMillan, and Charles Richardson. Gilbert Dixon and Miss Emma Dixon have returned from a visit with relatives and friends at Kinston.

HEWS HIS FOOT.

While engaged Friday afternoon in trimming a piece of timber to be used in the construction of a small bridge, J. T. Moore, who lives near Truitt's, had the misfortune to seriously cut his left foot with the axe which he was using in his work. The instrument in some way slipped from the piece of timber and struck Mr. Moore's foot with full force. A telephone message was sent to Dr. Raymond Pollock of this city and he went to the home of the wounded man and rendered medical aid. The accident is such that the victim will not be able to walk again in several weeks.

UNION ELECTS OFFICERS. (Special to the Journal)

Jan. 4.—The Onslow County Farmers' Union met in Jacksonville Wednesday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: J. H. Aman, President; O. B. Basden, Vice President; A. W. Cooper, Secretary and Treasurer. During the past year the Union has added a large number of new members and the work accomplished by them has manifested in the improved farming conditions in this section. The new officers are men of ability and the prospect for the ensuing year is very encouraging.

RETRENCHING.

Besides the changes in train service affecting New Bern which take place today the Norfolk Southern is making a number of other changes that affect other places to a greater degree than New Bern. Norfolk loses the local train between that city and Edenton. The regular forenoon train out of Norfolk will leave at 9:45 instead of at 11 as now and will run as local. A train between Raleigh and Fayetteville will also be discontinued.

Southpaw Smokers.

With his left hand he took pipe and tobacco from his pocket, and with his right hand he felt for a match. He had none. His fellow idler at the other end of the park bench gave him a match and then let his own cigar go in his astonishment at seeing his left handed neighbor light his pipe with his right hand.

"That's funny," said he. "You are just about the most confirmed left handed I ever met, yet for that little trick you use your right hand as if born to it."

"All right handed people do," was the reply. "Just think over the list of your smoking acquaintances and see if you ever knew one who lit his pipe with his left hand. I'll bet you didn't. I never did, and I have numbered among my pipe loving friends several men whose right hand seemed nearly helpless for everything else."—New York Press.

Ye Bad Boyes In Church.

In Salem, in 1076, it was ordered by the town that "all ye boyes of ye towne are appointed to sitt upon three pale of stairs in ye meeting house, and William Lord is appointed to look after ye boyes upon ye pulpit stairs."

In Stratford the tithing man was ordered to "watch over youths of disorderly carriage and see they behave themselves comely and use such raps and blows as is in his discretion meet."

In Durham any misbehaving boy was punished publicly after the service was over. We would nowadays scarcely send twenty or thirty active boys together in church if we wished them to be models of attention and dignified behavior, but after the boys' seats were removed from the pulpit stairs they were all turned in together in a "boys' pew" in Windsor, Conn., as late as 1845, and pretty noisy it usually was.

An Incautious Critic.

Almost the last work that Sir Edwin Landseer was engaged on was a life sized picture of Neil Gwyn passing through an archway on a white palfrey. This picture, in which the horse alone was finished, was bought by one of the Rothschild family and given to Sir John Millais to complete. One morning a celebrated art critic called and was much impressed with his work. "Ah, to be sure!" he said, going up close and examining a deerhound, which almost breathed, in the foreground of the picture. "How easily one can recognize Landseer's dogs! Wonderful, isn't it?" "Yes, it is wonderful," remarked Sir John, lighting another pipe. "I finished painting that dog yesterday and have done the whole of it myself." That critic was sorry he spoke.

Daniel Was a Worker.

Truly there were giants in colonial days. One Daniel Leuke of Salisbury, N. H., made during his lifetime and was paid for 1,000,000 shingles. During the years he was accomplishing this colossal work he cleared 300 acres of land, tapped for twenty years at least 4,000 pounds of sugar a year. He could mow six acres a day, giving nine tons of hay. His strong, long arms cut a swath twelve feet wide. In his spare time he worked as a cooper, and he was a famous drum maker.

A Secret Defined.

A secret is a thing which you communicate to one whom you can trust. He in turn tells it to somebody that he can trust, and that somebody reveals it to another somebody whom he can trust. And so it goes the rounds, but it is still a secret, although everybody knows it.

Not to Blame.

NEW LAW LOWERS PRICES

Chief Function of Parcel Post Explained by Representative Lewis.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Opportunity for housewives to buy real country butter, eggs and poultry direct from farmers is the chief function of the new parcel post system, according to Representative David J. Lewis, of Maryland, co-author of the law.

"The housewives in a village or town from which a rural route starts can make practical use of the parcels post," said Lewis. "She can order direct from the producer in her 'zone.' Suppose she needs two pounds of butter, two dozen eggs, two pounds of sausage and a chicken. She can order them delivered to her kitchen for 15 cents. And she can get them at one-half of the cost of buying them from retailers."

Lewis scored Senator Bourne and the Senate for insisting upon high rates in the compromise bill, which became law. He says the parcel post charges for short distance traffic are entirely too high.

"C. O. D. regulations for the use of farmers shipping their products to consumers will be provided soon," Lewis predicted.

KINDNESS NETS FORTUNE

Doctor Who "Grubstaked" Man Will Share in Rich Mins.

New York, Jan. 4.—Dr. Isaac W. Furman, a dentist of Bayboro, L. I., brother of ex-District Attorney George H. Furman, of Suffolk County, was on a pleasure trip in Arizona to 17,000 ago and met a miner who was penniless, but rich in hope. Dr. Furman "grubbed and staked" the miner, who agreed, if he should make a "strike", that the dentist was to receive a share of the proceeds.

As the years went by Dr. Furman almost forgot the miner. He hadn't help chucking when he remembered he had once thought seriously he might get some return for his money.

But a few days ago the dentist received a letter that startled him. The miner had made his long-hoped-for "strike." He also sent a gold ore specimen that assayed $700 a ton. The value of the mine, which is on the "Gold Road," in Arizona, is said to be $1,000,000. Dr. Furman cash the first train for Arizona.
