Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Those muchine guns in the streets of Mexico City were al nost as danger ous as automobiles.

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reasor for it as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more scrious diseases that sc often follow. Chamber'ain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

Square Miles In Extent. The smallest state in Europe, the he boundary between Germany and Moresnet has an area of barely one and a quarter square miles and a population of 3.500. It owes its existen to a boundary controversy for the control of a once important zinc mine. A boundary commission settling the frontiers of Holland and Prussia after the fall of Napoleon in 1814 was unable to agree upon the ownership of this tiny piece of land, with its valuable mining rights, and finally left the question for future settlement. Neither power was to occupy it, and it was administered jointly by the two states.

In practice the joint administration soon resulted in an administration by neither state, and the community became autonomous under the protection and tutelage of Prussia and Holland and later of Prussia and Belgium. In 1841 the two guaranteeing countries, regularized this and formally gave the district its own independent administration. It has no courts, but litigants can choose between the Belgium and Prussian tribunals in beginning litigation, which is subject to the laws neither of Germany nor of Belgium, but of the ancient Code Napoleon .- Chicago Inter Ocean.

Desert People Still Have the Custome of Abraham's Time.

In the wild deserts Arab life is an primitive as in Abraham's time. Sheep are still slain to seal a vow. The salt or bread covenant is observed, and when a man dies his tent is torn down and destroyed.

Old names such as Joseph, Moses many cases have been cured by its and Alexander are still in common use among Arabs, though pronounced "Yusuf," "Musa" and "Skandar."

> To divorce his wife a man may repeat the formula Ent telek three times. Usually saving it once makes the woman behave, and its repetition is not necessary. The "evil eye" superstition is common, and the first injunction given a visiting foreigner by experienced Arabian travelers is that he must not point at animals or persons in Arab settlements.

Arabs say a man gifted with this malign power can look at a bird flying in the air and that it will drop dead; that if he chooses to cast his wloked spell on a camel it may go lame or a child so selected will be struck blind. The Human Brain.

In estimating the size of the human brain in comparison with the brain of other animals we must figure on not only the positive size, but the relative. Were this not the case man would stand below the elephant and whale, as the brains of those creatures far exceed man's in positive size, while as regards relative size they stand so far below him that, while the brain of the elephant amounts to about the five-

"I was once for some weeks at a sugar plautation, near a small provin-cial town in Mexico," wrote the late Mr. Labouchere in 1879. "In the town lived a brigaud. He was highly es-teemed by his neighbors, and I passed many a pleasant evening with him and his family. His daughter was a 'beauty,' and this estimable, parent was amassing a little fortune for her.

"His babit was to ride at night to the road between Mexico and Vera Cruz with two or three associates and to levy contributions on the diligence. When I left the town I wanted to when I left the town I wanted to strike this road, and I went with him and his friends. We reached it at about 6 in the morning. Having par-taken of chocolate, the brigands post-ed themselves behind some rocks, and I looked on. Soon the diligence was seen approaching. The brigands emerg-ed, the conchman stopped, the passen-mark were requested to descend and gers were requested to descend and were politely eased of their money. "The passengers then took their places again in the coach, and it drove off, while the brigands conrecously bowed to them. So bonest were they In their peculiar way that they wishe me to take my share in the spoil, but this, of course, my standard of morality being different from theirs, I de-clined, and I wished them goodby.

QUEER BURIAL SERVICE.

How Adaman Islanders Protect Their Dead From Evil Spirits,

Strange is the burial service among the Adaman islanders. It is the custom of the islanders to drop the bodies of their parents into the sea at the end of ropes and leave them there until nothing remains but the bones, which they then gather and hang from the

It is a common custom for a relative to sit by the hour and watch the bones of some relative. This is the way they have of showing their love and respect The bodies are treated in this fashion so that the evil spirits cannot tease and pinch them. All that is left are the dried bones, and these are placed high so that if the exil spirits wander into the huis they will have a hard time to find them, if a bone is carried away it means some bad spirit has selzed it, and this means that some terrible calamity will befall the fam-

D. E. Henderson, who recently pought the Tisdale place with the pur-pose of developing it as a suburb, has in interesting announcement in the Journal this morning. It is that he will give ten dollars in gold to the per-son who suggests the best name for the proposed new suburb. The judges will pass on the merit of the several names suggested and announce the vinner Saturday evening, March 1. Mr. Henderson does not bind himself to accept the name the judges select as the most appropriate, but he will pay the ten dollars to the person sug-gesting the name that appeals to the judges as the most suitable. Dogs That Hunt Crabs.

A collector for the London zoo has succeeded in capturing several crab hunting and crab eating dogs in Brazil. The dogs are balf fox, but they do not seem to care very much for poultry. They have been known to turn up their noses at nice, fat pullets and go fishing for crabs instead. The dogs hunt in packs along the banks of the rivers in the Amazon valley, and the crawfish and land crabs of that region are their especial prey. The crabs often put up a vigorous fight, but the dogs have a them in a vital spot just as the thoroughbred terrier polishes off a rat.-New York Herald,
