THAW REFUSES TO MAKE HIS ESCAPE ON AT LEAST TWO OCCASIONS HE HAS HAD CHANCE FOR SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT.

New York, March 14.—Harry K. Thaw flatly refused to avail himself of a chance to escape from the jurisdiction of New York State into Connecticut, where his freedom would have been assured, according to a statement made today by Dr. Austin Flint in renewing his attack upon the administration of State Superintendent of Prisons Scott.

The occasion when Thaw was given the opportunity to flee, as told by Dr. Flint, was at the time of the first hearing as to his sanity at White Plains. But according to close friends of Thaw, to whom this story was told tonight, that was not the first time that he had refused it. As the incident was related tonight by one who has enjoyed the closest relations with Thaw, on the afternoon of Thaw's acquittal in Justice Dowling's court and while he was on his way to Matteawan under the order of commitment to the asylum one of Thaw's brothers approached him and put $5,000 in cash in his hand.

"Take this and hold on to it," Thaw was instructed, "and do just what is told you. When we reach Fishkill Landing a crowd will form around you and you will be rushed toward the boat landing. The two guards that have you in charge are elderly men and not much trouble can be looked for from them. At Fishkill Landing a yacht will be in waiting, and you will be rushed on board and taken out of their jurisdiction."

Thaw, according to this story, listened carefully to the plan, and then absolutely refused to have anything to do with it. He replied in substance that he believed his sanity would soon be established, and then, he would be able to go anywhere he pleased a free man.

Similarly, it was declared tonight, that another opportunity had been offered him to escape on the occasion that he came to New York to testify in a proceeding in the Federal Court. And again he turned down the proposition.

With regard to the occasion mentioned by Dr. Flint, the latter said today:

"It was when the question of his sanity was first tried at White Plains. On this occasion Thaw was accompanied by his wife and his counsel, Daniel O'Connell, and Charles Morschauser. They were leaving White Plains for Matteawan, fifty yards on the rear was an under-sheriff who was to take Thaw back to the asylum. When O'Connell saw the situation and the open stretch of road, he said to Thaw: 'I can get an automobile to drive up and you can jump in it. It will be the easiest thing in the world to get across the Connecticut State line in a few minutes.'

"Thaw refused absolutely to be a party to the plot," continued Dr. Flint. "He doesn't want to escape. His ambition ever since he has been an inmate of Matteawan has been to become a lawyer."

LIVELY TIME AT WHITE HOUSE

Official Photographer Has Trouble With the Babies.

Washington, March 13.—About the liveliest and most typical scene of the Wilson administration so far was witnessed yesterday at a photographic gallery, when the White House baby, Josephine Wilson Cothran, seventeen months old; Virginia Peyton Howe, fat, rosy and blonde, three years old; Wilson Howe, her brother, ten years old; and Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson, also ten years old, dropped in to have their pictures taken.

One of the White House cars carried the children down into the business section. With them were Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe, grandmother of the baby; a black "mammy," with a genuine "down South" air about her; Mrs. Wilson Howe, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Annie Wilson Howe, and, bringing up the rear, a young negro girl, whose duty it was to constantly corral the scattering youngsters.

It was some trouble to get them all in a group, then to get the right expression on their faces, and then, when all was ready, to get the camera focused and the tips of the photographer's fingers on the rubber bulb before they were all scattered again like feathers before the wind.

Virginia Peyton Howe especially wanted the cunning little stool to sit on, but did not want to sit on it while the picture man was getting "things ready." She left it frequently to wander about and investigate the studio, and finally, when in despair her mother called after her, "Virginia, go back before someone gets on your stool," Virginia went back, but merely to get the stool and carry it with her on her next tour of inspection.

At last, however, the picture was taken and the proofs ordered up for the approval of "Uncle Woodrow," as the group of smiling faces is to have the place of honor on the President's desk.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Theodor's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Theodor's."
