Notice.

George Ipock has been appointed agent for the Journal at Ernul. He will receive and receipt for payments on subscription or advertising and is prepared to let not only the Ernul subscribers but many others in the same section including Vanceboro and Vanceboro R. F. D. 3 know how their accounts stand. If you have any business with the Journal call on Mr. Ipock

To meet the problem of the "hunger strike" of the militant suffragette, Great Britain proposes to pass a law. That's the way we do it over here.

Simple federal exercises were held in Rome for J. Pierpont Morgan. His relatives who were with him might have had a grand and impressive affair, but simplicity these days is synonymous with good taste and it appears that the Morgan family have that.

The United States, it appears now, will be the first to recognize the new republic of China. There is a man in the Presidential chair who believes in government by the consent of the governed. That accounts for the warming up of this country toward China.

ACCURATE COMPARISON.

Senator Simmons is responsible for what we believe is a very accurate comparison of Wilson with Taft and Roosevelt. Says he: "President Wilson weighs men and their statures. He listens, and he listens to them. President Taft took up a thing today and dropped it tomorrow. Roosevelt watched the popular wind and sometimes rode it. Mr. Wilson is weighing everything and everybody. It would be a difficult task to impress on him."

R. M. PHILLIPS.

The news of the death of Robert M. Phillips, associate editor of the Greensboro News, was a great shock to his many friends and acquaintances. He was one of the few newspaper men known all over the State. He never failed to attend meetings of the State Press Association and in his own editorial office in Greensboro he always had the glad hand for visiting members of his profession. He was a prominent figure at the Methodist conferences of the State and had held official position on several occasions in the General Assembly. These facts accounted for his wide acquaintance. Affable and companionable he made everybody comfortable in his presence. His short paragraphs in the News were quite a feature of the paper, breathing as they did an unfeeling cheerfulness, a keen sense of humor and a hearty and wholesome enjoyment of the pleasures of living. His larger editorials were marked by practical wisdom, facility of expression and thoroughness of treatment.

The newspaper profession in North Carolina is distinctly the loser as the result of the death of Mr. Phillips. The annual meetings of the Press Association will be particularly lacking in good fellowship and joviality because his figure will be no longer seen in its councils.

DRESS TO PLEASE WHOM?

"What do men care whether women adorn their heads with feathers or bristles, so long as they look fetching?" asks Lord Curzon. Where did the former Viceroy of India get the idea that women dress to please men?—New York World.

And where did the World get the idea that women dress only to please their half of the human race? Give names and specifications.—Bloomington Pantograph.

The Bloomington Pantograph is a new one, but it asks a perfectly pertinent question. Most matters of doubt with reference to women by the way, are not such a puzzle as some people seem to think. Women are pretty much like men and if one bears that in mind and makes it the promise of a conclusion he will not find the adorning of the gentler sex an entirely baffling problem. To get back now to the question as to who the women dress to please: They dress to please themselves and the people they like, some of whom are of their own sex and some of who are of the opposite sex.

Burlington gets another hokey mill, says a news item. If Burlington can have several, we wonder why a city like New Bern couldn't have one. We all want to see this town grow, but it will grow very slowly unless some more manufacturing enterprises are secured.

That bust ca down in Mexico has been called a revolution and an insurrection, but the late dispatches, which call it a "mece," appear to have been the most for unate in their choice of a name.

Mr. McCombs continues to flit with that diplomatic post in Paris. Perhaps he will have to let his friend Woodrow Wilson, who is no afraid of making decisions, make up his mind for him.

Out of the list of candidates for places on the Board of Aldermen it ought to be possible to select a first class board of energetic, level-headed business men. It is safe to predict that the next Board of Aldermen will be one of the most progressive in the late history of the city.

Americans generally will be sorry that one of those suffragettes in London who have gone on a strike so foolish as a "hunger strike" is an American. The typical American suffragette is a woman of much more common sense than is indicated by the behavior of the English apostles of the doctrine of "votes for women."

Raleigh adopted the commission form without much of a wrench. It will find it a harder task to find three competent men to serve as commissioners. Men of initiative and backbone, such as are needed to manage the affairs of a complex like a city the size of Raleigh, and willing to give up the work they are now engaged, are not plentiful.

The tariff bill will be a compromise measure. It will represent the principle of "give and take." Representatives of opposing views are indicating a conciliatory disposition. Under the wise and tactful leadership of Woodrow Wilson it seems likely that acrimonious debate and party dissensions in connection with revision will be obviated.

It is said that very violent opposition to an Eastside park may be expected. Nevertheless the thought of a beautiful park on land wrested from the embrace of the Neus and extending out to water deep enough for large steamers must be a very agreeable one to New Bernians who want to see their city go forward in scenic embellishment as well as in industrial and commercial progress.

It is always interesting to note what the farmers are doing. For when they get thoroughly aroused to the fact that they stand between the rest of the people and starvation, conditions will be easier for every one. The Georgia division of the Farmers' Union met Thursday and the advice of one of the leading speakers was to raise less cotton and more hay, grain and stock. That sounds a good deal like a reduction in the cost of living.

By a singular co-incidence there came immediately following the death of Robert M. Phillips, a well known newspaper man of this State, that of James G. Boylin, editor of the Messenger and Intelligencer of Wadesboro, whose name was almost as well known in the newspaper world as that of Mr. Phillips. He had lived and edited a newspaper in Wadesboro for years and was one of the most influential citizens of his county.

Reports from Washington indicate that there is a possibility of progressive and conservative Democrats avoiding a row by parceling out the Federal offices equally among themselves. The President is a progressive and naturally it would seem that the Democrats of that stripe would have the advantage but it took the votes of all varieties of Democrats to elect the President and no doubt he will not feel like ignoring the conservative altogether though nobody can blame him if he shows a little partiality for the men who were for him even before he became chief jehu on the band wagon.

The Democrats are going to graduate the income tax. Some folks contend that that would not be democratic. Well, anyhow it will be Democratic.

The Progressives denounce both Democrats and Republicans. Yet if their leader had been nominated by the Republicans for the Presidency there would be no Progressives.

Can You Doubt It?

When the Proof Can Be So Easily Investigated.

When so many grateful citizens of New Bern testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of New Bern says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you demand more convincing testimony?

C. F. Harget, 47 Burns St., New Bern, N. C., says: "I am just as pleased to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills at this time as I was after I first used them some years ago. My back ached a great deal and I had pain through my kidneys which plainly showed that I was afflicted with kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured from the Bradham Drug Co. and they so effectively removed my trouble that I have only had need of them once since then. At that time they again acted promptly and gave me entire relief. I know that this preparation acts as represented and is worthy of the highest praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBurrn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
