

KIDNAPPED TOT BACK TO MOTHER

CHILD OF EIGHT STOLEN TO BE SOLD AS WHITE SLAVE
IS THE CHARGE.

New York, May 11.—When Mrs. Rose Livingstone leaves for Cincinnati this week she will take with her as far as Cleveland 8-year-old Helen Best, who was kidnapped from her home in that city five months ago.

The child was stolen by an enemy of her father, James Best, and was rescued through the efforts of Mrs. Livingstone in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Livingstone is called the "Angel of Chinatown" from the number of children she has rescued from evil in that section.

She was summoned to Cleveland in February to participate in the suffrage fight and to tell how New York women were aiding in the campaign against white slavery.

One of those attracted to the meetings was the father of Helen. He told Mrs. Livingstone that an enemy had kidnapped his child to sell her as a white slave. She is large for her age and appears to be even more than 12 years old. The father thought she might be in Philadelphia. The child was found in the slums of Philadelphia.

The disappearance of her daughter drove Mrs. Best insane. Helen will be taken to her mother at once in the hope that Mrs. Best, recognizing her, may recover.

During her brief stay here Helen will be the guest of Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, a supporter of Mrs. Livingstone's work.

BAN ON TURKEY TROT LIFTED

But Vassar Faculty Will Keep A Sharp Eye On Promenade.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 14.—Vassar College seniors who will be sweet girl graduates in June, are gleeful because the rule forbidding the "turkey trot," "tango" and similar dances which come under the conventional classification of one-steps has been rescinded by the faculty.

At the senior promenade, which will take place on May 30, unlike the junior sophomore hop recently, there will be no ban on the newest steps upon the condition that propriety must be exercised strictly by the dancers.

The announcement which was made today created great excitement among the students. Vassar College is the first institution of its kind to abolish the rule against the much-criticized dances. The reason given by the faculty is that when they are properly executed the new dances are no less moral than the two-step or the waltz.

The students made it known recently that they were through with the old-fashioned steps for good. There was a great scarcity of men at the junior sophomore hop because the new dances had been strictly forbidden.

A meeting of several members of the faculty, including President James M. Taylor and Miss McCaleb, who will be Vassar's first dean next term, was held and it was decided that to forbid the "turkey trot" again would be to stir up dissatisfaction among the members of the graduating class, who were counting on a good time, their final one in college. They gave out notice that there would be no embargo on the modern dances at the senior prom.

A "law and order" committee of faculty members and carefully selected students will attend the coming prom to see that strictest propriety is observed.

"We mean," said a member of the committee today, "in regulate the entire matter by the selection of musical numbers which will almost make it impossible to 'rag.' Then we rely upon the students to conduct themselves like refined and cultured young women."

Laurie Kiekman.

On Monday evening May 5, 1913, the death angel visited the home of Mr. E. A. Kirkman and took from him his loving son. He had suffered a long time with a dreadful disease, but was confined to his room only 15 days. He was 30 years of age. All was done for him that loving friends could do but the Lord knew best and took him home to live with Him. He leaves his broken hearted father, two brothers one sister and many friends to mourn his loss. He was laid to rest in the Epworth cemetery to await the resurrection morn. He has only paid the debt that we all must pay.

Dearest one thou hast left us
And the loss we deeply feel,
But it is God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

We miss him, oh we miss him,
In our home here below
But out of sin and sorrow
Our dear one was called to go

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT FOR GEORGE M. LEWIS.

Jan. 27 1913—Marked the departure into eternal life of one of the faithful members of our Farmers' Union at Grantsboro.—Bro. Geo. M. Lewis. He was born in 1831 and was a member of the Christian church. He had found comfort and joy in the master's service. In the home he was a faithful husband and father; in the neighborhood a considerate friend and neighbor; to his State a valiant soldier answering her call by volunteering in the year of 1861 in Cogdell's company 10th N. C. Regiment heavy artillery. He answered the last roll-call on Monday morning Jan. 27 and when the summons came he was ready. He leaves a wife three sons two daughters and a number of grand children also a host of friends.

May the surviving member of the family be comforted and may they meet him in the home of the soul beyond the skies.
