

DISCOVER SERUM TO CURE TYPHOID

ANNOUNCEMENT JUST MADE IN PARIS CAUSES MUCH INTEREST.

Paris, June 10.—The announcement of another wonderful "serum" cure is causing considerable interest in medical circles. Professor Vicente, of the Valdegracia Military Hospital, is credited with having discovered a serum which both prevents and cures typhoid fever.

It is said that more than 50,000 persons have received treatment with Dr. Vicente's cure.

Wonderfully successful tests are announced. For instance, one day a patient who had been treated with the serum drank a glass of pure cultures of bacilli. It was expected that the man was beyond hope and the doctors all said he would die. As a matter of fact, the bacilli apparently had no immediate effect upon him. There was no increased indication of fever, however, and after several weeks of observation the physicians declared that he completely escaped contagion.

Dr. Theroux, of the Pitie Hospital of this city, who had watched the case, secured another patient who had been treated with the serum three weeks before and subjected him to a subcutaneous injection of pure virulent typhoid bacilli. The first injection was three cubic centimeters of germs. There was not the slightest sign of reaction.

Eight days later a second injection was made and when three weeks more had passed the patient was injected for the third time. The patient's condition remained unchanged throughout the treatment.

Dr. Theroux declares that he has effected cures at the hospital in seventeen days.

THE DRUGGISTS ARE IN SESSION

Annual Convention North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association Begun Yesterday.

MANY DELEGATES DETAINED

Day Brought To A Close By A Most Brilliant Reception.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association convened in this city yesterday morning. Owing to the fact that a number of the druggists were detained at home on account of business only about seventy-five members were in attendance at yesterday's sessions but a number of others, among whom will be President, J. G. M. Cordon of Clayton, will arrive this morning.

The business sessions were held in the High School building and the first meeting, in the absence of President Cordon, was called to order by Vice-President C. P. Harper of Selma. Following a very impressive invocation by Rev. B. F. Huske, rector of Christ Episcopal church, an excellent address of welcome was delivered in behalf of the city of New Bern by E. H. Meadows.

Mr. Meadows was among the first organizers of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association and his remarks were both interesting and instructive. After bidding the visiting druggists to enjoy their visit to the "Athens of North Carolina" Mr. Meadows spoke for a few minutes on matters which were of vital importance. He urged them to take no backward step but to progress with the times. He suggested that all applicants to practice pharmacy become proficient in microscopical examinations.

Mr. Meadows also suggested to the Association that they encourage the education of females to practice pharmacy. "There is none so well adapted to pharmacy as ladies," said Mr. Meadows, "Their care, reliability, neatness and intelligence recommend them."

"They have but one disqualifying quality, from a bachelors' view-point, their inability to keep a secret, the falsity of which is known by all men save and except our bachelor brothers—Why are they so wise? They have made good in the fields of human endeavor as bankers, educators, manufacturers, railroaders, and commercial enterprises—I venture to say not one in these present, but have the impress of their minds in their early education."

"They are noted for their honesty and disinclination to gamble in stocks, which commends them as bankers—I know of an instance where a lady was made president of a small bank whose capital stock was only $5,000.00 who by her financial ability built up the institution whose recent exhibit to Dana and Bradstreet's Agency showed capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of $450,000.00, and deposits of $750,000.00, the like of which is phenomenal—another instance of a lady who was engaged in railroading as secretary and treasurer of a road in this State, the duties of general manager having often devolved upon her, so managed its affairs, through a short line branch road, sold out its holdings at approximately two millions of dollars."

"Among the educators of our State has any a more brilliant record than Miss Robinson of Greensboro Female College, Mrs. Shipp of Farrisfern and Miss May Hendren and Miss Mabel Chadwick of the New Bern Graded School?"

"So open wide your doors to the ladies and bid them to your membership."

In concluding his address, Mr. Meadows said: "Again I tender you in behalf of the local Pharmacists a whole-hearted welcome, a welcome to the smiles of New Bern's fair daughters, a welcome to our parks, a welcome to our beautiful rivers, but I pray you to take none of them from us, if such appeal to you abide with us and they are all yours, and if you are not so impressed, come again, and remember that the latching string hangs on the outside."

Dr. C. P. Harper of Selma, Vice-president of the Association, responded to the address of welcome on behalf of the visiting physicians. Dr. Harper is an orator of ability and his remarks were thoroughly enjoyed. In part he said:

"The hearty welcome which has been accorded us has surpassed my expectations. To those of us who are visitors in your city, it is every gratifying, it is very satisfying. I knew the gentleman's greeting would be kind and cordial, but I did not know that he would turn the whole town over to us. If we take it, we will promise to be good, to keep off the grass, to let the blind tigers alone, and to return it to you in good condition when our three days of work and recreation are over. For me to attempt to speak of hospitality without mentioning New Bern, would be like trying to describe Switzerland without mentioning the Alps. A year ago at our annual meeting in Waynesville, when it was decided to hold this convention in New Bern, I was delighted, for on former occasions, I had become to know something of the hospitality of your warm hearted citizens. We know that in the past your town has charmed its visitors by the manner of its entertainment. When conventions have assembled here and the delegates have enjoyed the pleasures which it affords, they go away feeling that New Bern would be a delightful place to live."

Dr. R. DuVal Jones of this city welcomed the visitors on behalf of the local physicians. His address was brief but was thoroughly enjoyed. He was followed by Dr. F. W. Hancock of Oxford. Dr. Hancock is a native of New Bern and has a host of friends all over this section. His tribute to the city of his birth was fitting and beautiful and during the time that he held the floor there was intense interest manifested.

Owing to the fact that the president and a number of members were absent, it was decided to delay the majority of the business until today and this was done. Secretary J. G. Baird of Clayton read a number of communications from other associations sending fraternal greetings and best wishes after which the session came to a close.

Last night the druggists were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bradham on Union street. This event, which proved one of the most brilliant of the season, was largely attended and proved greatly enjoyable.

TYPHOID PROVED FATAL

Ira Dixon Succumbed To The Disease Last Night.

Ira Dixon, a prosperous farmer of Olympia, Pamlico county, succumbed to an attack of typhoid at Stewart's sanitarium last night at 10:25 o'clock.

Mr. Dixon was stricken with the fever about three and a half weeks ago. He was brought to this city from his home at Olympia and was placed in Stewart's sanitarium for treatment. Despite the fact that his case was a severe one the attending physicians did not think that it would prove fatal. Yesterday afternoon he seemed to be much improved but just before nightfall he was seized with a hard chill and his condition rapidly grew worse until death occurred.

The deceased was thirty-two years of age. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Mary Holton of Olympia; one brother, Carl Dixon of Olympia, and three sisters, Mrs. W. K. Baxter of this city, Mrs. R. H. Baxter of Durham and Mrs. J. H. Stephenson of Bellair. The remains will be taken to Olympia this morning and at 1 o'clock this afternoon will be interred in the family burying ground near that place.

RESPIRE GRANTED! WIFE MURDERER

NELSON W. CARTER WAS TO HAVE DIED FRIDAY FOR MURDER OF WIFE.

Richmond, Va., June 11.—Nelson W. Carter of Spotsylvania, sentenced to die next Friday for the murder of his wife, whom he stabbed to death, has been granted a respite for two weeks by Governor Mann. Carter made no defense at the time of his trial save that he was insane. The man has been in the death colony for some time.

Carter is the man whose daughter figured in a marriage here a few weeks ago. She came to this city following the death of her mother and the sentence of her father to death, obtaining employment and going to work to earn her own living.

She was only about eighteen years old, and when she appeared with her husband-to-be for the license it was found that she could not wed because of her age. Then Judge Moncreuf of the Chancery Court got into the matter, agreeing to hear argument and to name a guardian for her. This was done, the guardian was named, and his consent to the marriage was obtained, the ceremony being performed by "Parson" Mike Macon.

MAY ASK THEM TO RESIGN.

The following paragraph is taken from the Washington correspondence in the Greensboro News of yesterday: "Should President Wilson accede to the requests of a number of leading Democrats and postpone the proposed reorganization of the customs service until January, 1914, Democratic senators and congressmen here, it is said, will ask that the present collectors of the ports of New Bern, Elizabeth City and Beaufort be asked to resign and Democrats appointed in their stead. The jobs under the present plan pay $1,500 per year each. If the reorganization is put into effect the salaries will be reduced to almost nothing."

MR. BRYAN SPEAKS TO FARMER BOYS

The Most Important Subject Of Education, Secretary Says, Is The Heart.

IS ORATOR AT DRIVER, VA.

Too Many Men, He Declares, Have Sold Their Brain To The Cause Of Injustice.

Driver, Va., June 11.—Fifty farmer boys on horseback raced from Lee's wharf on Nansemond river, to Driver yesterday afternoon with William J. Bryan, Secretary of State, who, at 2:30 o'clock, made a speech at the Nansemond village a which he told an audience of 2,000 people his idea of the proper education for farmer boys and all boys. The most important subject of education in the human being, according to the secretary, is the heart, neglect of which he believes is the source of most of the troubles that wreck men and nations.

"This country and mankind at large," said Secretary Bryan, "are governed by educated men, but the pity of it is that educated men, so many of them, have sold their brain to the cause of injustice to mankind. My message to you is that you improve your bodies and make them strong, improve your farms and make them productive, improve your schools and colleges to the end that your minds may have every facility for improvement; but, unless, at the same time, you develop in your heart the spirit of justice to mankind, of service to your fellow to mankind, means to material profit through time, then it is all wasted and life has been a failure."

"I believe that the cure for the difficulties and sins about which individuals and nations degrade themselves by conflict and bloodshed lies in harmonizing the heart with the Creator, and to attain that end must be the ideal of all properly directed education."

The occasion was the closing exercises of the Second Congressional District Agricultural High School here, Representative E. E. Holland having previously arranged for the secretary to speak. Mr. Bryan went to Old Point this morning to receive Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign affairs of Brazil, who arrived in Hampton Roads at 5:30 o'clock in the evening on the Brazilian dreadnought Minas Geraes.

Derangement of the program at Old Point, due to the long delay in the arrival of the Brazilian dreadnought, came near upsetting also the plans Mr. Hoffman had made for the secretary to address the Nansemond audience. As it was, the secretary went in great haste, made a speech which he said was greatly handicapped by the lack of an hour or so for its delivery, and returned to Old Point in the same haste and hurry.

ORCHESTRA RETURNS.

The Worth Orchestra, a new musical organization for this city, but which had a successful career in other places before coming to New Bern, returned yesterday from Greenville where it filled an engagement to play Monday night for the alumnae banquet, one of the features of the commencement of the East Carolina Teachers Training School. Monday afternoon the orchestra played for an informal dance given for the benefit of the students.

AUDITOR MAKING HEADWAY ON CITY BOOKS.

The expert auditors who now have pose of getting up a detailed statement of the affairs of the municipality, are making fairly good progress in their work. To go over every account made during the past two years or more is somewhat of a task and considerable time is naturally needed in which to carry out the work. The auditors hope to have their report ready for the Aldermen at their next regular monthly meeting.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
