BRILLIANT DANCE AT INLET INN

BEAUFORT'S FAMOUS RESORT SCENE OF SUCCESSFUL BALL LAST EVENING.

(Special to the Journal)
 Beaufort, June 18.—One of the largest and most brilliant dances of the season was held tonight in the spacious ball room at the Inlet Inn.
 The ball room had been attractively decorated for the occasion with bunnings and flags festooned with Japanese lanterns and potted plants and the scene was a veritable fairyland. Worth's orchestra of New Bern which has been engaged for the season, furnished the music and until the wee ' sma hours the dancers held the floor.
 Among the guests participating in the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. O'Brien of New York, Misses Mattie and Irene Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Duncan of Raleigh, Mrs. Numa Eure and Mrs. Stephens of Arkansas, Mrs. W. J. Shull, Mr. and Mrs. Dearborn of Seattle, Mrs. J. B. Skinner of Elizabeth City, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Buckman of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey of Goldsboro, Miss Mattie Darden of Rocky Mount, G. N. Ennett and T. D. Warren of New Bern.

MOVES TO FRANCE IF SUFFRAGETTES GET UPPER HAND HERE

Paris, June 18.—Mrs. W. H. Taft, who is traveling with 24 trunks and 4 grips, was interviewed at Liberté Hotel on her arrival in Paris. She said she would become a naturalized Frenchwoman if ever the suffragettes got the upper hand in America. On learning that there are also many suffragettes in France, she declared: "I can't believe France has fallen so low as that. How she must have lost prestige in the eyes of the other nations."
 Asked for her opinion of current politics, Mrs. Taft said: "I don't want to talk politics. I don't understand anything about them. All I know is that our new president Mr. Wilson, is rather too much of an innovator and owes his triumphs to the caprice of the American people and the suffragettes. There is no woman in America who doesn't absolutely adore President Wilson. It's really quite alarming."

 As an instance of the strength of the woman's movement she cited Senator Chamberlain's recent report in favor of votes for women and the fact that he had been promised the support of his colleagues.
 Mrs. Taft will leave Thursday for Aix-les-Bains.

Fresh Air for The Baby
 Don't neglect the baby's health by keeping it cooped up at home—he will be wonderfully if you will give him a daily outing in the bright sun and what you save in medicine and doctor's bills will more than pay for one of these dainty go carts or carriages. We have just received an assorted shipment of Reed body carriages, made of selected German reed, with hair filled cushions. Every carriage is made with the best steel gears and cushion frames—the most substantial made. We have them ranging in prices from $25.00 to $35.00.
 We give Pony Contest Coupons with every cash purchase or payments on accounts.
