SUICIDE PACT EXPLAINED

Not Childlessness But Loss Of Fortune Caused Deed.

Zurich, Switerland, June 21.—The mystery surrounding the suicide last Thursday of Eugene Maggi, reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in Switzerland, and his wife has been cleared up by the discovery among Maggi's papers of a letter to his family saying he had been irretrieveably ruined financially and had decided to kill himself.

Underneath this message, in his wife's handwriting, was the following:

'I believed myself rich, and I was happy. Eugene has just revealed to me that we are ruined and announced his determination to die. My duty is to follow him in death. Adieu.

An investigation has confirmed the fact that M. Maggi had lost his fortune.

When Maggi and his wife were found dead as a result of gas asphyxiation in a beedroom in their villa here it was believed that the double suicide had been prompted by the fact that although their wealth was estimated at 10,000,000 they were greatly disappointed because they had no children.

Maggi was the owner of extensive flour mills in Zurich and other parts of Switzerland and had numerous other widespread interests.
