GRAND JURY RETURNS BILLS SUBMARINE SANK TO TERRIBLE LACK OF INTEREST THE CAUSE

fendant la Now In West Virginia But Will Be Brought Buck To Trial.

Wilmington, July 18.—Mrs. Eliza-beth VanB. Nichols, widow of the late Mr. Allas B. Nichols, and who for many are was a recognized leader in exhere she was born and spent a large rtion of her life, has been indicted y the New Hanover grand jury at the present term of court, in three aparate cases, charging embezzlement of funds aggregating $14,675, from her long-time close friend, Mrs. P. Le Masse-na, of Philadelphia.

Having the utmost confidence in risen to the surface from such a depth.

Ber friend ability as a financier, Mrs.

Le Massena is said to have turned over Le Massena is said to have turned over to her all told about $30,000 to be invested. It is stated that Mrs. Nichols would pay over to Mrs. LeMasse na certain amounts at stated intervals, h was supposed to represent interest or dividends on the in-ments. This continued, it is calmed, until a year ago, when Mrs. ichela suffered a nervous breakdown and was taken to a sanitarium in the North for treatment. Soon thereafter an investigation is said to have been started by Mrs. LeMassena with the result that the charge was openly made a few weeks late: that no record of the investments could be found. Hon. John D. Bellamy, of this city, was employed by Mrs. LeMassena and it is understood that he has been busy on the case ever since, culminating in the return of indictments by the present grand jury.

A good-sized sensation was created yesterday morning when the word went forth that the grand jury had returned the indictments against Mrs. had rain in connection with his appear and high social standing. For the past at Mountain Lake Park yesterday, several years she has fived in Wil. yet the crowd was large and enthusias partments in The Carolina and later taking up her residence on South street, and she entertained lavishly. She is a woman of favorite in the more exclusive social

Mrs. LeMassena left Wednesday vening for her home in Philadelphia, after appearing before the grand jury, and she will return to Wilmington for the trial in the event Mrs. Nichols is arrested or comes back of her own

It is stated that Mrs. LeMassena has been brought to very hard circum-stances, financially, by reason of the money she lost through Mrs. Nichols.

In two of the cases Wilmington bankers are marked as witnesses, Mr. J. V. Grainger, vice-president of the Murchison National Bank, appearing in one case, and Mr. Chas. E. Taylor Jr., in the other. Before her first marriage Mrs. Nich-

Owing to the lack of interest mani fested by the members of the First Company, Coast Artillery, a local military organization; the icompany has been disbanded and the equipment has been returned to the State. This toppipany, which was organized bridge five years ago, was the first in the State, and for the first two years the members manifested a great deal of interest in it. The company grew steadily up until about a year ago and then it began to go backward. The State had furnished the Company with the very best equipment and their public drills were always viewed with Smith took charge of the company several months ago he exerted every effort to revive interest in it but without avail. On the nights which were desig nated for the regular monthly drills only, a few of the men would be in attendance. Captain Smith desired to hold the company together at least until after the annual encampment, but conditions became so bad that he decided to disband the company and this was done. New Bern now has only one military organization, the Naval Reserves, but this is flourishing and is a credit to the city.
