Cotton Opening.

New York, Sept. 24.—Cotton was active and more or less excited during the early trading. Prices opened at an advance of three to eleven with October and January making new high records for the season. There was heavy realizing but the offerings were well taken. Offerings increased suddenly during the morning. Stop orders were uncovered on the decline which carried prices eight to fourteen points net lower. The market was steadied on trade buying. Noon prices showed rallies six to seven from the lowest.

BELIEVE SCHMIDT PLANNED MURDER

Had Planned To Reap Large Returns From Various Insurance Companies.

PLOTTED A GIGANTIC SWINDLE
Priest Sought To Bring Reputable Physician Into The Plot.

New York, Sept. 24.—Inspector Faurot, has received information indicating that Hans Schmidt, the priest-murderer of Anna Amueller, had evolved a plan to reap large returns from insurance companies by murdering insured parishioners and such others as he could induce to trust him with sums of money large enough to make them worth murdering.

Faurot says he has information that a reputable physician was approached by Schmidt or Muret, the Inspector declined to say which, and the suggestion made to the physician that all details of the wholesale murder plot had been worked out except the method of obtaining death certificates. This is the plan, as Faurot believes Father Schmidt had worked it out:

"Dr. Muret, the fake dentist who has a knowledge of four languages, was to have handled the insurance end of the scheme. Muret has done insurance work in Chicago New York and London.

Schmidt was to put out of the way persons whose deaths would mean profit to him and his confederate through insurance or otherwise.

The missing link in the proposed murder chain was a supposedly reputable physician who would issue death certificates and bring about the burial of victims without exciting the suspicion of the authorities.

Inspector Faurot declined to give the name of the doctor or to tell whether Schmidt or Muret or both had made the proposition. He said he could not discuss the matter until the detectives had completed their investigation.

Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty who returned yesterday from a three weeks' vacation said that after going over the situation with Inspector Faurot he was convinced that Schmidt had concocted a plan for wholesale murder with insurance collections as the reward.

Assistant District-Attorney James H. Delehanty said he was considering the names of four alienists from whom he would select two who would examine Schmidt as to his sanity. It is probable that this examination will be made tomorrow.

Mr. Delehanty also wants Schmidt to view the parts of the body of Anna Amueller, now in the Bellevue Morgue, while the alienists are present. He believes such a test would go far toward giving the insanity experts light on the mental condition of the prisoner.

Father Schmidt in reply to a question yesterday said he had not taken Anna Amueller from the Leo House for German Immigrants.

At the chancery of the archdiocese, 117th street and Madison avenue, it was said that Mgr. Mooney, after consultation with church authorities, had decided not to issue a formal statement in the case of Father Schmidt for the reason that in no previous instance had a priest, by means of forged papers, obtained recognition in this archdiocese.

The Rev. Father Francis Markert, teacher in the College of Techy, Techy Ill., and a boyhood acquaintance of Father Schmidt in Germany, visited the prisoner in the Tombs yesterday.

"I have known Father Schmidt since 1893," said Father Markert. "We entered the College of Mainz together. He was a brilliant student and very pious up to the time he was about twenty years old. Then he began to show a worldly disposition.

The last time I saw him he was at Gonzenheim, Germany, and was assistant priest of that parish. A few weeks later he left the Parish and I heard he had forged documents in connection with his degree of doctor of philosophy. I wrote to his brother, who replied that Schmidt was in a sanitarium." When Father Markert went to Father Schmidt's cell he asked:

"Is there any message you wish me to take to your parents? I am on my way to Germany."

"Nothing special; just give my love to my mother," said Schmidt.

WILL OPERATE BOATS AND AUTOS

Glenburnie Transportation Company Received A Charter Yesterday.

LOCAL MEN INCORPORATORS
Will Carry Passengers And Freight To And From The Fair Grounds.

Among the charters granted new corporations yesterday by the Secretary of State was that of the Glenburnie Transportation Company. This company has an authorized capital of fifty thousand dollars and twenty-five thousand of this amount has been subscribed by Clyde Eby, W. C. Willett and J. Leon Williams.

The gentlemen are all interested in the development of Glenburnie Park and in the Eastern Carolina Fair Association Company, and the new transportation company was organized for the purpose of carrying passengers and freight to and from Glenburnie Park and the Eastern Carolina Fair grounds both by automobile and boat.

It is the intention of the directors of the Fair Association Company to promote a number of events at the Fair ground in the future in addition to the Fairs which will be held each year and there must be some way for the public to reach the grounds. In addition to this, Glenburnie Park bids fair to become one of the most popular pleasure resorts in the State. At present a mammoth pavilion is being erected there and numerous other buildings will be erected before next summer, and large crowds are expected to visit that place every day and night during the warm weather.

The transportation company has not definitely decided just what type of motor vehicles they will use on their line. They have several varieties in view but will not accept either until they have been given a demonstration. However, it is an assured fact that New Bern citizens will soon be able to get aboard one of these cars and take a trip out to the Fair ground or Glenburnie Park at a very nominal cost.

It is understood that these cars and also the boats will be in operation during the approaching Fair.
