

ARRANGING TO HAVE THE FAIR OPEN EVERY NIGHT

Midway Will Be Ablaze With Light And Color And There Will Be Something Doing Every Minute—Subscriptions Being Secured

Will the approaching Eastern Carolina Fair grounds be open at night? This is the question being asked by hundreds of persons and in answer it is safe to say that it will. Unless the plans of the directors and officers of the Fair Association Company go astray, and every effort is being made to prevent this, the midway at the Fair grounds will, every night during the week, be ablaze with light and color and there will be something doing every minute during the night up until 12 o'clock.

In order to provide electric lights for the Fair it has been necessary to raise several hundred dollars. One of the officers has been securing subscriptions for this purpose and he informed a Journal reporter yesterday afternoon that about half of the amount has already been secured.

A little more than three weeks intervene before the Fair begins and during this time wires must be put up between the Fair grounds and the end of the city's electric line. This will take several days and the business men of the city who are interested in the development of the Fair are urged to lend their aid in this matter.

The electric wiring at the Fair ground has already been completed and the only thing left undone is the erection of the above mentioned line. Hundreds of people cannot attend the Fair during the day and it is mainly for the benefit of these that the Fair will be kept open at night.

MARKED RESEMBLANCE CAUSED HER TROUBLE

Woman Arrested In New York Was Not The Society Leader For Whom The Wilmington Authorities Are In Search—Charged With Swindling

New York, Sept. 30.—Held in prison here since Saturday last, charged with being a fugitive from justice, Mrs. Frances Maas today was released after many witnesses had failed to confirm the identification of Mrs. Helen P. Lemessen, of West Philadelphia, that she was the Mrs. Elizabeth Van B. Nichols, wanted in Wilmington, N. C., for an alleged swindling transaction.

Mrs. Lemessen formerly lived in Wilmington, where about three years ago she alleged she had been swindled in a real estate deal by a Mrs. Elizabeth Van B. Nichols, a society woman of that town.

Mrs. Frances Maas who was arrested on Saturday on complaint of Mrs. Helen D. Lemessen, who told the police that the defendant was Mrs. Elizabeth Von Nichols, wanted by the Wilmington, N. C., authorities for embezzling $3,000 from Mrs. Lemessen, was today discharged by Magistrate House in the Tombs police court. Mrs. Maas had spent two nights in the Tombs when Magistrate House discharged her, he did so with the apologies of the court.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY WANTS TO SELL BEER

Representative Kellum Presented Such a Measure Yesterday to the Legislature—Referred To Committee On Liquor Traffic

A joint resolution came from the Senate providing for President Wilson to be invited to deliver an address for unveiling the Horne monument to the Confederate Women in Capitol Square, and it was amended, on motion of Mr. Dowd, as to provide for the President to be also invited to deliver an address at the celebration of the 108th anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

Dr. Gordon introduced a bill carrying $190,000 appropriation for Central Hospital for the insane, Raleigh, and $8,000 for the Eastern Hospital for Negroes, at Goldsboro. The appropriation for the Raleigh institution is to erect an additional building for women patients, a home for nurses and a laboratory. Also $30,000 for maintenance.

Among the bills introduced were: By Sewall, a joint resolution for the investigation of the insurance companies; Rufin, to incorporate the Laurinburg and Rocky Mount Railroad Company.

MONSTER SHARK CAUGHT NEAR MOREHEAD CITY

Greensboro Man Hooked Seven Hundred Pound Fish And Succeeded In Towing Him To Shore—Was Eighteen Feet In Length

A shark which measured eighteen feet in length and weighed seven hundred pounds was caught just off Beaufort Inlet Sunday morning by J. G. Darden who, in company with a party of fishermen, had gone out for the purpose of catching trout.

Mr. Darden and his friends secured a launch early in the day and went out to a point near the sea buoy, which is just off the inlet. For thirty minutes or more the fish bit freely, then suddenly the hooks were left unmoored and despite the fact that the anglers used their utmost efforts to induce the fish to take the bait, there was nothing doing.

Believing that there were sharks around and that these fish had run the smaller ones away, Mr. Darden baited a large hook which had been taken along specially for shark fishing and threw it overboard. Within less than two minutes after the hook had settled in the water there was a mighty tug on the line and Mr. Darden knew that he had hooked a large fish and at once came to the conclusion that it was a shark.

Every minute the fishermen expected that either the hook or the line would be broken by the huge fish, but fortunately nothing like this occurred. Soon, in one of its mad rushes, the shark came to the top of the water and several shots from a revolver were fired into its body. This naturally weakened the fish but he was by no means ready to give up the fight for life.

Realizing that they would never be able to get the shark into the boat the fishermen told the operator of the vessel to start the engine and the shark was towed to Morehead City where it was killed.

As soon as Mr. Darden was sure that life was extinct in the big fish he had taken from the water and hung up for exhibition. The entire populace of the town viewed the fish during the day and according to the statements of some of the oldest inhabitants the fish was one of the largest ever caught in that section with a hook and line.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I took the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.
