

RABID CAT BITES TARBORO LADY

"TABBY" CAUSES MUCH EXCITEMENT IN EDGE-COME COUNTY HOME.

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 7.—Upon advice from Raleigh yesterday afternoon that examination of the head of the cat that bit Mrs. Samuel L. Johnson Friday night, showed that the cat had the rabies, the lady was sent to the Pasteur Institute at Raleigh yesterday afternoon for treatment under Dr. C. A. Shore. At present she is doing as well as could be expected and it is thought she will recover in good time.

It seems that Mrs. Johnson had noticed the cat was not well for some days and they were doing what they could to cure it. Sunday afternoon it was lying by the stove and as Mrs. Johnson reached past it, for some thing, it sprang on her hand and bit and lacerated it severely. So ferocious was its attack that it had to be taken off by force. Mrs. Johnson had her baby in her arms at the time and as soon as possible the cat was driven out of the house and shot. Dr. W. J. Thigpen was called to the home to dress the wound and as everything indicated that he cat was mad he took its head and sent it to Raleigh for examination.

HALIFAX COUNTY BOY TO DIE

R. W. COBB WILL PAY DEATH PENALTY ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12.

Raleigh, Oct. 8.—R. W. Cobb, the Halifax county man under sentence of death for the murder and robbery of Thomas Shaw, prosperous merchant and planter of Rosemary, Halifax county, is to pay the death penalty in the penitentiary here on Friday, December 12. This date was fixed today by Governor Craig on receipt of the certification from the Supreme Court of the conviction and sentence as imposed in the Superior Court have been affirmed on appeal.

The murder and robbery were on the night of May 3, last, and the conviction and sentence followed in June. The Shaw home was three miles out from Rosemary and the store was two hundred yards from the residence. Thomas Shaw and his son, Shelton Shaw, locked the store at 10 o'clock and walked toward the house. Mr. Shaw having the money from the day's business under his arm. As they neared the house some one sprang up from the corner of the porch and demanded "hands up." Mr. Shaw exclaimed "get out and quit your foolishness." The man who was afterwards proven to be Cobb, fired. Shelton Shaw ran back toward the store for help, a number of men having left the store for their homes just as the place was closed. Thomas Shaw was found mortally wounded and died three days later in the hospital at Roanoke Rapids. Cobb is a young white man about 25 years old and grew up in the neighborhood where the murder was committed. There was evidence to show that he planned the robbery and murder, if necessary, in getting the money, with the purpose of getting away on a bicycle so as to avoid being tracked by blood hounds. A young man, Durkins, who was accused of being an accomplice, was acquitted at the same time that Cobb was convicted and sentenced.

"THE GIRL OF THE UNDERWORLD."

Few plays have met with success such as has been accorded "The Girl of the Underworld," a play by Jack Gorman, which comes to the Masonic Theatre on October 16.

Much has been written by the press of the entire country on this vital subject, and the public has always been eager to scan the columns of the dailies for information as to what it really means. In the play Mr. Gorman tells a most tense and interesting story, yet at no time offensive even to the most blasé theatre goer. The story is laid in New York City and taken from actual incidents that the author encountered while on his travels in the very pits of the real underworld. During the action of the play the humorous side, too, is shown, which readily relieves the more intense moments of which there are said to be many. If one desires to get a complete view of real life in a big city "The Girl of the Underworld" should appeal. The presenting company is one of real worth, while the scenic production is adequate in every detail. While this attraction will play at popular prices it must not be construed that the attraction is not one of merit. In as much as the attraction has played the big cities at popular prices Messrs. Lovick and Taylor are doing the same here.

GIVING AWAY COPIES OF "THE LEOPARD'S SPOTS."

Those who have not read Thomas Dixon's "Leopard's Spots" can get a copy free of charge at the Athens Theatre. L. J. Taylor, manager of the Masonic Theatre has secured five hundred copies of this thrilling story and is distributing them among the patrons of the theatre.
