NINE INJURED DURING RIOT

Strikers Causing Much Trouble At Indianapolis.

REQUEST GOVERNOR'S AID

Probable That The State Militia Will Be Called Out.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—An effort to resume street car traffic which has been tied up since Friday night by a strike, resulted today in the serious injury of seven strikebreakers and two policemen and the destruction of a car. A crowd of several thousand persons, many of them armed with bricks, surrounded the car and prevented progress while a downpour of missiles from the roofs and windows of buildings along the route threatened the lives of the strikebreakers and police.

Indications tonight were that the militia would be called out tomorrow. A committee of the civic and commercial organizations presented a request to Governor Ralston asking for troops and stating the organizations would share the responsibility for the action.

While Governor Ralston would not state what action he would take, he intimated that his reason for not calling the troops at once was that they could not be mobilized before tomorrow morning and that he feared the announcement that the militia had been called out for tomorrow would result in a night of lawlessness.

The strikebreakers injured in today's rioting who are able to travel returned to Chicago tonight.

A number of strike sympathizers went back to the wrecked car later in the day to remove it from the tracks and to block further traffic on the line. They were dispersed when a riot call brought fifty policemen to the scene. Another death due to the strike resulted when Thomas Carlton, who was shot at the Louisiana street barn riot, died today.

The first regular meeting of the Piano and Violin Club for this term will be held in the Auditorium Wednesday afternoon November 12th at four o'clock. It is hoped that all of the music pupils will attend.

The girls of the 4C grade had had perfect attendance this week. We are very much interested in long division; every one in the grade received excellent to day on this subject.

Our Spelling Bee was very good, only 13 words missed, six on one side and seven on the other.

There were only two absent marks against the 5A grade this week—both caused by one boy, who was so unfortunate as to be sick.

We are studying the Geography of the Middle Atlantic States, and yesterday's lesson was made more interesting when the Superintendent dropped in, and joined us in a few minutes' talk about cokes, etc.

In the Auditorium exercises on Friday morning, a vocal duet entitled "To the Stars" was very sweetly sung by Margaret Emmert and Benjamin Moore.

Connecticut Women Protest Against Hanging Of A Female.

MURDERED HER HUSBAND

Suffrage Leader Says She Is A Victim Of Social System.

New Haven, Nov. 8.—Overcome by the thought that she must now live within sight of the yard where she will be hanged on March 4, Mrs. Besie Wakefield was today taken in a state of collapse from the county jail to the death cell in the State prison at Wethersfield.

She became hysterical this morning when told that she was to be moved. "I am so frightened!" she sobbed. "They are kind to me here. I am afraid they will be cruel to me at Wethersfield. If I could only see my babies! I am so sorry, so lonesome, so terrified!"

Upon Governor Baldwin and the board of pardons is being brought all the influence that the women of this and other New England States can bring in an effort to save Mrs. Wakefield from the gallows.

The Connecticut State Woman Suffrage Association is leading in the general movement. Mrs. Thomas N. Hepburn, president of the State Association, declared today that her organization on behalf of the condemned woman.

"I do not believe that Mrs. Wakefield should be hanged," and Mrs. Hepburn, "Not because she is a woman as I opposed. I am opposed to capital punishment. I am sure I voice the sentiment of the suffragettes of Hartford."

Miss Emily Pierson, State organizer of the Woman Suffrage Association, said:

"There is no plank in our platform other than equal suffrage. But capital punishment is a relic of the dark ages and should be abolished. It is not unlikely that Mrs. Wakefield was a victim of our demoralized social system. She is not to blame for that. We shall protest against her execution."

STRIKE SETTLED AT INDIANAPOLIS

Governor Ralston Chiefly Responsible For Agreement Of Companies.

SOLDIERS WERE NOT NEEDED

Cars Will Be Operated After Twenty-four Hours—All Old Employees Return To Work.

Indianapolis Ind. Nov. 8.—The strike of the employees of the Indianapolis Traction & Terminal Company was settled late today through the efforts of Governor Samuel M. Ralston. The employees won their demand for arbitration but nothing is said about recognition of the Union or terms of settlement.

Street car service is to be resumed within 24 hours, according to the terms of the settlement which also provides against any further interference with the operation of the cars.

All the men who were in the employ of the company Friday night, October 31st, when the strike was called, and all employees who had been discharged on account of joining the union are to be reinstated by the company with full seniority rights and without prejudice. The company, however, is not compelled to reinstate men who engaged in violence during the strike.

Disputes and grievances as to wages, hours and conditions of service will be referred to the utilities commission for arbitration if the company and employees fail to reach an agreement within ten days. The company must take up these grievances with its employes within five days after the resumption of service. The utilities commission by the terms of settlement, must render a decision which shall be binding on all parties interested for three years and shall relate back to the resumption of work within 30 days from the date of the first hearing.

In addition to union and traction company officers, the agreement was signed by Ethelbert Stewart, representing the Federal government, and Governor Ralston of the State.

The settlement of the strike means that the 2,000 members of the Indiana National Guard called to Indianapolis yesterday by the Governor, for strike duty, will be dispatched to the home stations as soon as possible.

The strike began a week ago tonight and has resulted in four deaths and injuries to a hundred or more persons, including several police officers. Until yesterday, when the city quieted down, the downtown streets have been the scenes of almost continuous rioting and much damage has been done to street railway property.

Union officials declare that, while disappointed in not obtaining recognition of the union, they obtained their main contentions, arbitration of all disputes. The railroad company asserts it won in its fight not to recognize the union.

Credit for settlement of the strike is given to Governor Ralston, who has been untiring in his efforts to bring the company and its employes together.

SEVERAL NEW PUPILS ENROLLED

Enrollment At Craven's Farm Life School Is Increasing.

FIVE ADDED SINCE OPENING

Dr. J. E. Turlington, The Principal, Is Greatly Pleased With Prospects.

Dr. J. E. Turlington, principal of Craven county's Farm Life School, which began its Fall term last week, was in the city yesterday attending the first monthly meeting of the Craven county's Teachers' Association.

On the opening day of the school, thirty pupils were enrolled in the Farm Life Dept. since then five more have been enrolled and the total number in this department now numbers thirty-five.

Much interest is being manifested in this school by the young men and women of the county and a large number of applications for admittance are now on file. By the latter part of next week it is believed that the enrollment will reach fifty.

Dr. Turlington is greatly enthused over the school work. He has gathered around him the most efficient corps of teachers that could be secured and these are co-operating with him in every possible way. The Craven county Farm Life School is the first in the State to be put in operation and the eyes of every one interested in education are turned in its direction.

It is an assured fact that the institution will prove to be a success and that it will be only a matter of a year or two before a large number of similar institutions are in operation in this State.

SMITH'S GREATER SHOWS COMING

WILL EXHIBIT UNDER AUSPICES OF ATLANTIC FIRE COMPANY.

The Atlantic fire company are putting forth strenuous efforts to have the "Big Week" of the season for the amusement lovers of the city and surrounding territory. The Smith's Greater Shows will play here the week of November 17th under the auspices of this company, and it can be said it is one of the largest carnival organizations in the country. This is their first visit to this city and the class of attractions that go to make up the outfit far outclass the ordinary carnivals that have formerly visited the city.

The shows will be located in the Ghent Show grounds, situated on the car line. The company carry their own electric light plant, and when the button is pressed for the current on the evening of the 17th the whole grounds will be one mass of brilliancy.

One of the features of the Smith's Greater shows will be the trained animal circus. Among the exhibits are to be found two baby leopards, born in winter quarters, now about five months old. While these animals are young they are quite tame, but after they are full grown, they are said to be the most ferocious and treacherous beasts of the animal family. These baby-leopards are too small to work, but their mother with six other leopards and a puma, are to be seen in the trained animal circus twice daily. Another act in the trained animal circus, and a positive feature, is nine big full-grown African lions. The feats that they perform are almost unbelievable, jumping through hoops of fire, sitting at the table at the trainer's dinner and eating meat from the naked hand—a truly marvelous exhibition in the art of wild animal teaching. Another feature will be three baby lions born on the road while at Nelsonville, September 2nd. These cubs are snow white, are said to be the only white baby lions ever born. They are now being fed on cow's milk, and if they are living they will be seen twice daily in the trained animal circus.

Smith's greater Shows are said to contain one of the finest collections of trained animals of any show in the United States. Some of the larger circuses have a larger collection, but none of them will be found to perform in the trained manner you will find in this collection, and there will be nine other big shows, including the Smith's $15,000.00 Hurdles, burning 17 alternating red, white and blue lights, one of the most beautiful machines on the road. The shows are all high class, and such that any lady or gentleman can attend any, or all of them, at any or all times. The absence of confetti, slap sticks and come-back balls do away with rowdiness, and it is the intention of the management to cater to the best class of people. Adv.

THE ROBINSON-BLADES NUPTIALS

Most Brilliant Wedding In City's History Took Place Last Evening.

HUNDREDS WITNESS CEREMONY

Reception At The Home Of The Bride's Parents After The Marriage.

New Bern society was brilliantly represented last evening in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church at the wedding of Miss Ivy Blades, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Benjamin Blades, to Mrs. Charles Oakley Robinson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, of Elizabeth City.

There was gathered at the church one of the largest wedding assemblages ever seen within the precincts of historic New Bern. The decorations were beautiful and elaborate.

Following a color scheme of white and green, palms, ferns, Southern smilax and huge white chrysanthemums were used effectively.

Southern smilax was artistically festooned around the chancel, choir railing, window recesses and the gallery, being interspersed with loose petaled white chrysanthemums and cathedral candles which shed their luminous glow over the perfect scene.

Each guest pew was marked with a cathedral candle and a bunch of chrysanthemums and white tulle.

The floor covering of aisles and rostrum was white and potted ferns were placed on either side of the steps of the rostrum while at the top tall, white wicker baskets held huge bunches of the white chrysanthemums.

Stately palms were massed at the back of the rostrum and formed an arch under which the ceremony took place.

Previous to the entry of the bridal party a beautiful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Mary Benton, at the organ, while the bridal chorus from the "Rose Maid" was beautifully sung by a choir composed of the best musical talent in the city. Mr. Charles Humphrey in his rich tenor, charmed the audience by singing "O Perfect Love," by Louise Jacobus Wood. The party entered the church to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and advanced to the chancel from opposite aisles. First four groomsmen, Messrs. James Derickson, William Forman, of Elizabeth City, entering by the right aisle and Mr. William Gaither, of Elizabeth City, and Dr. Norflet Gibbs, entering by the left aisle. Following them came the bridesmaids Misses Sue Armstrong, of Maysville, Ky., Amanda Baxter, Sara Stewart, Mary Nixon, Harriett Marks, Maud Grice, Elizabeth Derrickson and Helen Robinson, of Elizabeth City, all wearing lovely gowns of pale blue charmeuse. They carried high arm bouquets of pink Killarney roses.

After these came the other groomsmen Messrs. John Haywood Jones and William Blades Jr., Messrs. Walter Wood, of Elizabeth City, and William Griffin. The matrons of honor, Mrs. Leigh Sheep, of Elizabeth City and Mrs. William Colvin, of Pittsburgh, Pa., were gowned alike in white charmeuse with crystal tunics. They carried shower bouquets of pink roses and fern.

Miss Eloise Robinson, sister of the groom, attended the bride as maid of honor. She was gowned in an imported hand embroidered pink chiffon over charmeuse trimmed with fur and real lace and carried a shower bouquet of white. Preceding the bride was the little flower girl, Misses Eleanor Gabbett and Emily Pollock, daintily attired in white lingerie frocks with pink ribbons and carried baskets of pink roses.

The party mounted the steps of the rostrum forming an aisle for the bride. The bride who entered the church with her father, was handsome in an exquisite gown of white althea, embroidered in seed pearls and trimmed with real point applique lace. Her tulle veil was arranged in a cap effect and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley and her only ornament was a pearl necklace, with pearl pendants, the gift of the groom.

The groom entered with his best man, Mr. Alexander Hanes, of Winston-Salem, from the side door and met the bride at the chancel.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. John B. Hurley, pastor of the church, the beautiful ring service being used.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The Reception.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents at their elegant home on Middle street. At the entrance was suspended in electric lights, 1888-1913, dates of their own and their daughter's weddings. Thus was there celebrated

NEW YORKER ARRIVES ON HIS YACHT.

William Keith, proprietor of Keith's vaudeville booking agency and owner of several large yachts in the North, arrived in port yesterday on board of his yacht "State Liberty" which is now anchored off East Front street. Mr. and Mrs. Keith are on their way to Florida where they will spend the winter cruising around the waters of that section. They will probably remain at this port for a day or two.

THE DAUGHTER'S WEDDING AND THE PARENTS' SILVER WEDDING AT THE SAME TIME.

Receiving the cards at the door were the flower girls Little Misses Eleanor Gabbett and Emily Pollock.

The interior of this handsome home was artistically festooned in Southern smilax, the graceful vine outlining the doors and windows and also entwining the stair rails with its verdant beauty.

Yellow chrysanthemums were used effectively in the reception hall where the guests were seated by Mrs. Nathaniel Street and introduced to the receiving line composed of Mr. James B. Blades, Mr. J. Vernon Blades, Mrs. Clay Forman, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Derickson, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Forman, Mrs. J. W. Gorman, Mrs. Alexander Hanes, Miss Mattie Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blades, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Blades.

Mrs. John T. Hollister and Miss Lizzie Neal invited the guests to the parlor which was attractively decorated in pink Killarney roses. Here the guests were charmingly received by Mr. and Mrs. Blades, parents of the bride and groom of twenty-five years. Mrs. Blades was lovely in a handsome imported gown of lavender embroidered crepe with rhinestones and crystal trimmings on real lace. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, parents of the groom, the latter beautifully gowned in white charmeuse with real lace.

The bride and groom were next in line and received hearty congratulations. The bridal party completed the receiving line and formed a pretty picture. The punch bowl in the hall which was adorned with grapes and wreathed at the bottom with maiden hair fern was presided over by Mesdames Mark Stevenson and Frank Hyman.

Mrs. Cecil Gabbett and Mortie Marks had charge of the gift room. Hundreds of beautiful and useful presents were received by the popular young couple. Included in this wonderful array of wedding gifts was a handsome chest of silver from the bride's parents and a beautiful silver service from the groom's parents.

The dining room which was presided over by Mesdames Charles Duffy and Charles Ives was a bower of beauty. A perfect color scheme of white and green was carried out.

The dining table had as centerpiece, a mound of lilies of the valley, brides roses and maiden hair fern with smilax wreathed around the edge, a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and smilax hung from the chandelier above.

Six candlesticks with crystal shades surrounded the centerpiece and the table was further adorned with bonbons dishes filled with heart-shaped mints.

The bridal scheme was carried out in the refreshments, the salad being served in heart shaped shells as were the almonds and the ices were served in baskets, the handles of which were adorned with sprays of orange blossoms. Two huge wedding cakes were in the dining room, one being the bride's and the other the groom's. These were adorned with bride and groom under the wedding bell, the other had two doves under the wedding bell which was decorated with orange blossoms. Serving in this room were Misses Lou Mitchell Nixon, Carol Hughes, Grace Stewart, May Baxter, Esther Marks and Julia Bryan screened.

An orchestra screened behind a bank of palms in the hall, discorded exquisite music during the reception.

Many hundreds of guests called and were registered in the guest book. It was an occasion of rare enjoyment, and will long linger in the hearts of those who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Blades' splendid hospitality.

The happy young bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, left on the midnight train for New York and other points North, carrying with them the sincere good wishes of hosts of friends.

The bride's travelling gown was a handsome dark blue cloth suit with hat and gloves to match.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding, in addition to the bridal party, were:

Robinson, of Elizabeth City, parents of the groom; Mrs. Alexander Hanes, Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Derickson, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Forman, Mr. Wesley Forman, Mr. Carl Blades, Mr. Harold Forman, Dr. and Mrs. L. CONVENTION TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Sixth Annual Meeting Of North Carolina Drainage Association.

WILL GATHER AT CHARLOTTE

Many Prominent Men Will Deliver Addresses On The Subject.

(Special to the Journal.)
Charlotte, Nov. 9.—There will be held at Charlotte, North Carolina, November 18th and 19th the Annual Convention of the North Carolina Drainage Association. Since the organization of this association in 1909 and the passage of the General Drainage Act of the State, about 70 drainage districts have been started. Of these 41 have been completed, representing an area of 417,900 acres of swamp land. About 60,000 acres are now being drained and 91,000 acres petitioned for, covering 23 counties of the Coastal Plain region. Drainage Districts have been organized in Piedmont and Western North Carolina in 16 counties representing a total area of 52,471 acres of overflowed land. From data which has been collected it appears that the drainage of these lands has enormously increased their agricultural value, and the money value of these lands has increased from $10 to $150 per acre, with an estimated average value of $65.00. This will give an aggregate increase of land values for these acres, many of which before draining yielded no returns whatever, of $40,000,000; and increases the general healthfulness of these sections from 75 per cent. to 100 per cent.

At this Convention there will be addresses from prominent speakers and engineers will be present, who will be in a position to give information of practical value to those who are interested in the formation of drainage districts. Everyone in this form of conservation not only from the standpoint of increased land values but in the conservation of public health, is most cordially invited to attend the sessions of the Convention, and will be considered as delegates.

There will be a discussion of the North Carolina Drainage law, and recommendations made as to any changes in it, which will help to promote the drainage work of the State.

WOODROW PLACE WILL BE BENEFITED.

The $15,000.00 recently appropriated by Congress to rebuild and improve National avenue should make it one of the very best boulevards in the State and one which the citizens of New Bern would delight in driving over and showing to their friends from a distance. It goes without saying that property along National avenue and in close proximity to it, will feel the effect of this improvement in a substantial increase in value, in fact, it is already advancing in price in anticipation of the improvements soon to be made.

It is a safe guess that Woodrow Place, New Bern's new residential suburb, which is located near the end of National Avenue, will also share in the general increase in values.—Adv.

CONG. FAISON RETURNS TO HIS HOME.

Congressman Jno. M. Faison, who has been spending a few days in the city attending to some business matters, has returned to his home at Faison. Congressman Faison is very much interested in the postoffice investigation which is to be held here at an early date, and before leaving stated that he would in all probability return next week and meet the inspector who is to be sent here to do the work.
