Sulzer appears to be a man without a party.

In skinning out while the skinning was good, J. Lind is showing "hoss" sense.

John Lind appears to be taking leg bail for Uncle Sam's domain.

Of course kissing is unhealthy but then we don't mind a little sickness once in a while.

While we appreciate the fact that this is a very select community, still we do not care to go to the expense of fencing ourselves in.

Hammer and Webb are ominous names for Holton and Logan to ponder over.

Did you ever try to wean a calf?
If you have you know how hard it is to try to pry loose Messrs. Holton, Seawell et al.

While the people up North are suffering from snow storms the citizens of New Bern are quietly enjoying Indian summer.

"Whiskey is the nation's curse" says the W. C. T. U. Undoubtedly mean Virginia liquor has received more cursing at the hands (?) of North Carolinians than anything we know of.

Wouldn't it be awful if Overman takes up a job for Glenn, too? This senatorial race must not be a pink tea affair. Somebody has got to run against Overman if we have to do it ourselves.

Press reports say that we are giving Huerta so much time to do this, and that while Huerta seems to be taking as much time as he wants.

We do not care so much what it is so something is started in New Bern that will increase the pay roll. A new cotton mill has been suggested and work has already begun in trying to raise the amount necessary with which to begin operations. We hope the gentlemen behind the project will succeed.

While we do not say that yesterday's automobile accident was the result of speeding, it is a fact that the city's speed law is being violated almost impunity. We don't make this statement recklessly but from observation. Within the last few months a number of accidents have happened that should have been avoided. Somebody should get on the job.

MR. SIMMONS NOT INCONSIST-ENT.

"A few days since it was reported that the chances greatly favored the designation of Hon. Claude Kitchen as chairman of the Ways and Means committee, to succeed Mr. Underwood, and a feature of the report ascribed to Senator Simmons an intention to aid the North Carolina member. It was stated that factual differences had been forgotten and that the entire delegation from the state would do everything possible to bring about a realization of Mr. Kitchen's aspirations.

"At the time the Daily News found no fault with the reputed peace program, broadly speaking, but it occurred to us as singular that Mr. Simmons would find it so easy to overlook the character of the opposition which he had encouraged from Mr. Kitchen, declining the while to forgive and forget in the cases of the several postmasters who have not unreasonably incurred the displeasure of the senior senator, but who had been so more caustic than had Mr. Kitchen while the senatorial campaign was in progress. We thought we discerned an element of inconsistency in the attitude of the Senator.

"Since the publication of that editorial we have been informed, by those in position to be advised, that Mr. Simmons has not interested himself one way or another in the contest over the chairmanship of the Ways and Means committee, he feeling that this is a matter which does not greatly concern him.
"Views may be varied respecting correctness of the attitude of Senator Simmons towards the postmasters who opposed him for re-election, but inasmuch as the senator has taken no hand in the Ways and Means contest it can scarcely be said he has laid himself open to criticism on the score of inconsistency."—Greensboro News.

THE CRIME OF ARSON.

Arson is a crime, and the person who commits it should be punished just the same as the horse thief and the murderer. The man who fires a building, either his own or his neighbor's, does so without any guarantee that he will not cause loss of life either in connection with the fire in the building he aims to burn or in an adjoining building. The crime of arson is a difficult one to fasten on a person, no matter how guilty he may be, for the evidence must be largely circumstantial, because no one in his right mind sets fire to property in the presence of witnesses. This fact proves a stumbling block in the way of bringing incendiaries to justice. There is a strong sentiment against the murderer, the horse thief, and the violator of the prohibitory laws; but the "fire bug" is looked upon as a myth in many quarters and is regarded too often as a subterfuge manufactured by the insurance company to keep from having to pay the insurance policy. And the incendiary, instead of getting his just dues, gets sympathy in his battle with the company or with the State authority who investigates the fire.

The person who commits arson has many advantages. He usually operates in his own home or place of business, and can choose his own time and place for setting the fire. He can also prepare an alibi in advance and can prove that he was nowhere near when the fire was discovered. If the fire is successful, from the point of view of the property owner, the evidence burns up and there is nothing left but suspicious circumstances.

"Wilmington is going to have a "better babies contest," and according to the statement of the Editor of the Wilmington Dispatch it is going to take a car load of medals to supply the winners. We are indeed glad to know that there is such a large number of healthy specimens in the seaport town, and it is to be hoped that there are at least nine of them with baseball instincts, and that we can at some time get Wilmington started in on this proposition of a league for Eastern Carolina."—Rocky Mount Telegram.

DEFECTIVE FLUE CAME NEAR CAUSING A DESTRUCTIVE
BLAZE.

(Special to the Journal.) Bridgeton, Nov. 13.—Fire, which is believed to have started from a defective flue, came near destroying the building occupied by L. R. Davis at this place today at noon.

The blaze was discovered shortly after 12 o'clock and the alarm of fire turned in as quickly as possible. A large number of citizens were on the scene a few minutes later and a bucket brigade was formed. The fire fighters lost no time in getting water on the flames and in less than fifteen minutes had the blaze under control.

The building is owned by C. V.
McGehee, of New Bern. The damage to the structure will probably amount to two hundred dollars and this is covered by insurance.

A number of improvements are being made at the plant of the Bridgeton Lumber Company, which is owned by H. M. Bunting. The plant is being remodeled and a new band saw has been added.

DELAYED LETTER
CAUSES TROUBLE

CONTAINED CHECKS AMOUNT-ING TO ABOUT FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Never again will E. M. Lupton, who is a travelling salesman for T. P.
Ashford, turn over to another man valuable letters which he wishes to be posted right away. Mr. Lupton did this on Wednesday of this week and the failure of the man who was to place the letters in the postoffice, to get them there on schedule time caused a great deal of trouble and worry.

Mr. Lupton had been over in Onslow county collecting for Mr. Ashford and had placed the checks, amounting to about four hundred dollars, in an envelope and intended to mail them as early as possible. He was delayed in reaching the postoffice and turned the letter over to a friend to mail.
This friend turned it over to another and the latter forgot to mail it and carried it as far as Kinston on a trip which he was making up the country.

In the meantime Mr. Ashford began to be worried. He got in communication with Mr. Lupton and after being informed of the facts in the case, telephoned an advertisement to the Journal warning all banks not to cash the checks.

When the afternoon train arrived yesterday in came the letter with a special delivery stamp attached. Naturally all concerned felt relieved and Mr.
Lupton at once passed a new resolution to which he intends to adhere.

ANTI-TOXIN PRICES.

A recent letter to the State Board of Health from a citizen of North Carolina states that she has paid her druggist $15.00 for 10,000 units of diphtheria anti-toxin for her sick child.
There is no longer any reason why anyone should pay such exorbitant prices. The State Laboratory of Hygiene long ago made a contract with a reliable manufacturer for the sale of the anti-toxin in this State at drug stores in the various localities at reasonable rates. One thousand units may be bought for fifty cents, three thousand for $1.35, five thousand for $1.95. Consequently the ten thousand units in this case should have been obtained for about $3.90 instead of $15.00.

POLLOKSVILLE IS A BUSY TOWN

MOVEMENT ON FOOT TO ES-TABLISH A HARDWOOD
PLANT.

(Special to the Journal.)
Pollocksville, Nov. 14.—The people of this place are very much interested in politics just at this time regardless of the fact that several months will elapse before any of the candidates for offices will begin to "come out." The Pollocksville people are heartily in favor of Charles R. Thomas for governor, A. D. Ward for governor and S. M. Brison for Secretary of State.

The cotton yield in this section is very short and much complaint is being heard from the farmers. The yield all over Jones county is not more than half that of 1912.

Quite a number of new people are coming to this section to make their home. Among these are Wm. F. Foy, of Craven county who has purchased and will remodel the residence of E. B.
Elliott; Hardy Whitford, also of Craven county, who has purchased the home of J. H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parks of Olivers have also moved to Polloksville. When so many new people are moving to a new town is a sure thing that they know it is a good place in which to live.

Many of the citizens of Pollocksville... are interested in the present postoffice squabble at New Bern. While of course it cannot be predicted who will be appointed as the next postmaster in that city, there are many here who think that L. G. Daniels will be the fortunate man.

H. K. Land, proprietor of the New Bern Daily Journal, was among the business visitors in our town today and spent the day greeting his numerous friends. The Journal is an old standby in Jones county and its arrival every morning is awaited with much anticipation by the numerous subscribers.
A revival is now in progress at the Presbyterian church and large crowds are attending the services daily. Rev.
Gibbs, of Jacksonville and Rev. Shaw, of Wilmington are in charge of the meeting and they have already had a number of conversions.

A movement is on foot here to organize a company to erect and operate a hardwood factory to manufacture axe helves, wagon hubs, etc. Much interest is being shown in the movement and it is believed that the project will be put through and the plant in operation at no late date.

The public school at this place, which began its fall term a few weeks ago, is making excellent progress and Prof. A. H. White and his faculty, consisting of Misses Lowder, Elizabeth Moore and Lila Dilahant, are greatly pleased. Judging from all prospects the term will be the most successful in the history of the institution.

PROHIBITION FOR ENTIRE NATION

Governor Hodges Says Liquor Traffic Will Soon Be Banished.

FORMER OFFICIAL ALSO SPEAKS Tells Why He Changed His Convictions in Regard To Saloon.

Columbus, O., Nov. 15.—Predicting that a resolution prohibiting the traffic in intoxicants as beverages in the United States and all territories under its jurisdiction soon would be adopted by Congress and declaring that "if I am then Governor of Kansas I will immediately convene the Legislature in special session if necessary for the purpose of ratifying the amendment," Gov. George H. Hodges, of Kansas, today threw the fifteenth biennial convention of the American Anti-Saloon League into an uproar of applause.

Governor Hanna of North Dakota, another speaker, gave statistics to show the prosperity of his State under "prohibition" reign and said the "brewers' year book" showed no consumption in his State of their manufacture in 1911.

The day session was brought to a climax with astirring address by former Gov. M. R. Patterson, of Tennessee, in which he gave reasons for his enlisting with the anti-saloon movement.

"The Anti-Saloon League and I have not always been friends," said Mr. Patterson. "The paths we traveled were wide apart. But the path I traveled turned in its course. It ran to the other and we now find ourselves marching in the same direction, actuated by the same desire to destroy the traffic in liquor and redeem a nation from its course."

"I am neither ashamed nor abashed to stand before this great audience and acknowledge the wrong when I once advocated policies which would have made legal a trade which I have come to look upon as having no rightful place in Christian civilization.

Commenting on one of his own messages to the Tennessee Legislature in which he opposed further legislation to regulate the saloon traffic, Mr. Patterson declared that at that time those were his honest convictions based upon a misguided judgment. Continuing, he said:

"I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts where I have prosecuted crime. I know and have been a participant in its paralyzing and corroding influence in the social and public life of our National Capitol. As the Governor of Tennessee I have seen it a veritable and raging center of storm around which gathered its defenders and assailants, and from which sprang divisions in parties, disputes in families and dissensions in churches.

"Going through life I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boy-hood, blasting their hopes and consigning them to untimely graves. I have seen its forked lightning strike my first born —the child of my young manhood. At last I have felt its foul and stealthy blow as it turned upon me its deadly and shaming wrath—upon me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence.

"I cast aside all pride of opinion and went to the throne of Almighty God.
There on bended knees I asked for light and strength and they came.

"The saloon cannot produce one vera-cious witness in its favor. It stands a convicted felon and must receive the sentence of the law. It must go, never to return and, with the going of the saloon, liquor itself should go."

The program of the convention calls for three sessions tomorrow, the convention concluding its work tomorrow night.

PREPARING FOR THE TEACHERS

RALEIGH CITIZENS MAKING READY FOR THE IN-STRUCTORS.

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—Preparations are in full swing for the convening of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly November 26 and continuing through November 29. The official program is to come from the printers within the next day or two.

J. W. Bailey will deliver the address of welcome and Supt. J. Y. Joyner will make the response. Gov.
Erner Craig will make an address Wednesday morning. Friday evening the marble bust of Calvin H. Wiley will be presented to the State through an address by Acting President Graham of the University of North Carolina and accepted by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes for the State.

The State Associations of Primary Teachers, Kindergarten and Grammar Grade Teachers, State Associations of County and City Superintendents and Associations of Academies and Colleges. High School Teachers and Principals are all provided with special programs adapted to their special work and suitable halls for the sessions of each have been procured and distinguished speakers and specialists of renown are booked for special demonstration work.

COTTON CROP IN CRAVEN SHORT

GINNERS REPORT SHOWS THAT THERE HAS BEEN LARGE DECREASE.

The ginners report for Craven county issued November 1, shows that only 1,994 bales had been ginned up to that period. On November 1, 1912, the number of bales ginned was 3,656. This shows that the decrease since last year is 1,662 bales.

These figures prove conclusively that there has been a short crop in this section. The cotton growers have had numerous drawbacks and to those who are familiar with existing conditions it is a source of wonder that the amount ginned up to November 1, ever reached the fifteen hundred bales mark.

Perhaps the greatest cause of the short cotton crop was the storm and flood early in September. This literally devastated many cotton fields and caused an immense loss to the farmers.

NEW CONCERNS ARE CHARTERED

ONE COMPANY TO BUILD AND OPERATE VENEER
PLANT.

Two new corporations who are to do business in this city received charters during the past week. They are:
New Bern Hay, Grain and Feed Company at New Bern. The authori-zated capital stock $25,000, and business will begin with $5,000, subscribed by C. A. Seifert, E. M. Lupton, A. Hamilton, J. M. Ippock, all of New Bern.

New Bern Veneer and Panel Company, of New Bern, to build and operate a plant for the manufacture of lumber, veneer products, paneling, truck and fruit crates, baskets and boxes, etc. The authorized capital stock is $50,000; subscribed, $12,000, the incorporators being Dr. W. W.
Dawson, of Grifton; George M. Dunkel, of Wilson, and J. Frank Komp, of Greenville.
