Northern Mexico Quiet. Juarez, Dec. 20.-The situation in northern Mexico today appeared to be one of waiting, so far as military operations were concerned. Villa, rebel chief at Chihuahua, was waiting for word where he was to be joined by General Carranza, head of the revoluion, who now is at Hermosillo.

At Ojinaga, where practically all the northern federal forces are camped preparations continued for what apseared to be a departure from that place. General Mercado, federal commander who is to be relieved of active campaigning, had said he intended to march against Chihuahua, but others believed the federals had another plan in mind, possibly an advance on to Wilmington Wednesday by Constable Davis. He is alleged to have broken into the home of Mr. Meares Harriss at Carolina Heights on Thanksgiving Day.

There was taken from the house a turkey, two razors, a grey sweater and a cap. Two negroes testified that they helped him eat a turkey at his home, but they thought nothing of this as it was Thanksgiving when turkey is supposed to be served. The other things missing from the home were found at the home of a negro named Brown, who said that they were carried there by Pearsall. Two negroes testified that he was seen to leave the premises of Mr. Harriss' home on Thanksgiving Day.

Pearsall has a reputation as a sprinter and although closely chased for several days he was able to make his escape. When it was learned that he had gone in the direction of New Bern the warrant was sent there by Instice Harriss. The chief of police at that place knowing his ability to run, and that fast, worked a clever ruse on him. When he saw Pearsall cutting wood in a yard he arrested another aegro who happened to be passing along charging him with vagrancy. The negro protested his innocence and made quite a racket. Several of hi race, including Pearsall, rushed up to see what was the matter. When the chief was able to catch Pearsall squarely he turned the other one loose and informed Pearsalt that he was the one wanted.-Wilmington Star.
