

Eliminate the Terrors of Winter

Selz Royal Blue footwear for men, women and children are the best protection for your feet during the winter. They are strong and durable, easy and comfortable because they are built for comfort as well as wear. They are really soft and flexible to a surprising degree because the leather is properly tanned.

There's no economy in wearing old shoes when the mercury is descending because it means a new pair of shoes or a doctor bill. Better come now and see what we have for you in the Selz famous Royal Blue Line.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SOME REMARKS ON INCOMES

Pertinent Just Now When the Subject is a Matter of General Discussion.

Incomes are now being taxed. It is therefore, desirable that something should be known about them. An income is anything which you cannot live upon expressed in terms of lawful money. Lawful money is anything which will be accepted by the members of a state legislature, or a police captain, or your wife. Incomes were created for two purposes; to be about and to live beyond. Many people who will not have to pay any are complaining to their friends and neighbors about the way they are oppressed by the income tax. This is one of those natural phenomena which no scientist has been able to explain.

Incomes vary in size according to how many people have worked for you in the past or are working for you at present. No income is without honor somewhere, except in the family it is vainly attempting to support. Here it is generally despised and looked down upon.

An income tax is an effort on the part of the government to make you feel that you are wealthy. Also to support the government in its main business in life, namely, living beyond its income.

The government, which receives a larger income than any one else, should be taxed upon it. The proceeds might go toward relieving millionaires in distress.

Every income is known by the company it keeps.—Life.

PROVED HE WAS ELIGIBLE

Effective Demonstration Convicted Jayhawker That He Had a Valuable Recruit.

Robert Thorpe, an old Missouri stage driver, who recently died in Texas, used to tell a story of how Anderson, the Jayhawker, got one of his recruits. The Anderson boys held up Thorpe's stage near Glasgow one day. Among the passengers was a raw-boned young Missourian who looked about as tough as the Jayhawkers themselves.

"Give me yer val'ables," Anderson demanded of the youth as he went down the line.

"Ain't got none," answered the young squirrel hunter.

"Where yo' going?"

"To fine Anderson's Jayhawkers."

The rebel leader sized him up.

"Kin ye swim the Missouri river?" he asked him.

"Reckon so," the young man answered.

"Could ye kill a man?"

"Reckon so."

Anderson stepped forward and spat in the youngster's face. The youth bounded at the Jayhawker like a cat, caught him full in the face with a right swing and went down on top of him, kicking and clawing.

The Jayhawkers pulled the young demon off and their leader got up.

"You belong," he said. "Boys, give him a hawse."

Not a Nature Faker.

Lover, the zoo keeper, was feeding filleted plinies to a pair of robust young kingfishers.

"You can't give a kingfisher in captivity its natural food," he said. "Its natural food is minnows, sunnies and sticklebacks. It eats these fish when living its wild life in the woods, beside the streams, without any difficulty, and yet to eat such fish, you know, is like eating so many papers of pins."

"How can it eat such bony fish? I wish to speak with all delicacy—I throw up all the bones afterward. Yes, it throws up the bones after the meal in a little ball. Nature bones its fish for it."

"But a kingfisher in captivity little exercise and loses its ability to throw up bones. In captivity its natural food would kill it."

"Nature, in a word, refuses to bone fish for captive kingfishers, and therefore we, taking nature's place, feed the birds filleted sea food."

In the Spirit of Christmas Jollity

By S. E. KISER

Many a woman is known by the Christmas presents she takes back to be exchanged.

If there is a Christmas season in heaven the department store clerk will hardly want to go there.

The woman who looks for the price mark on her present generally gets mad if she finds it.

A good thing about some Christmas presents is that they don't last more than a day or two.

People who put off buying things they really need until after Christmas hardly ever find them in their stockings.

Some people don't permit their children to believe in Santa Claus because they selfishly want all the credit themselves.

If Santa Claus were a woman Christmas would always have to be postponed for a few days while she administered the finishing touches.

Lucky Givers.

With happy hearts some people give. And never mind the price. They know the gifts they will receive. Are sure to be as nice.

A Warning to Liars.

"What was the happiest moment of your life, dear?" she asked.
"It was when you said yes, darling," he replied.
She sighed and permitted her cheek to rest against his breast for a long time. Then she said:
"Harry, do you remember that diamond ring we looked at in 'Blasen's' I was there yesterday and they had it still. What a splendid Christmas present it would make."
After he had reached the next room he whispered to himself:
"That's always the way. Never told a lie in my life without having immediate cause to be sorry for it."

When a man knocks his own town it's a sign that his neighbors are holding the offices.

Having one's jewelry stolen seems to be an indication that one belongs to the inclusive set.

Pride is a good thing, but to protect it from misjudgment, see that it is not mistaken for a growth.

It is hard to tell whether women dress to please the men or to excite the envy of each other.

The adage that dead men tell no tales seems just a little grim as a motto for a city hospital.
