"Beer, it appears, talked too much" —Headline. As we understand it beer always talks too much if a fellow gets enough of it in his system

That New Bern is fast gaining renown as a winter resort as well as a summer resort, is evidenced by the large number of northern visitors who are spending the chilly months here. According to our way of thinking, Florida's resorts and also those of the Pacific coast are not near as preferable as can be found right along the North Carolina coast.

Taking advantage of the immense amount of advertising the case has received, the moving picture people have dramatized the Frank case and soon we will be sitting back in the theatres watching the whole tragedy fit across the screen. There's no doubt but that we will all be there to see the show, regardless of the fact that we have read and discussed all of its horrible details time and again and spoke of its damaging influence to the morals of the country.

We notice that Editor W. O.
Saunders of the Elizabeth City Independent, is planning to give the town of Plymouth a newspaper. We predict that with the first issue the temperature of that section will rise several degrees and will later touch fever heat and remain there.

A noted English war expert has been quoted as saying that in less than three months Tommy Atkins will be singing "Tipperary" in the streets of Berlin. It appears to us that if the Kaiser's forces continue to make progress in the next two months as they have in the past, that it will be a case of the Tu-tonic forces parading around the lanes of London to the strains of "Der Wacht Am Rhein."

The newspapers of the State have had considerable to say of late in regard to the destruction of the monument to the memory of Prof. Elisha Mitchell which has for years topped the mountain of that name and which was recently dynamited. The following from the Charlotte Observer in regard to the conservation of the mountain is of interest:

"If the State of North Carolina does not soon put in evidence some deapreciation of the value of the peak of Mount Mitchell, how would it do to ask the government to take care of it? A bill has passed the House of Congress making a National Park of 230,000 acres around Long's Peak, in Colorado, the first acquisition of a National reservation since a million acres of Glacier Park land was set aside in 1910. The government recently took over Biltmore forest and the preservation of that estate is assured for all time. The United States could make of Mount Mitchell the finest mountain park east of the Rockies, and it would do the work right. The Asheville watershed, which is along one side of the mountain, preserves a section of Mount Mitchell, but the mountain otherwise is at the mercy of the lumberman and the Observer is of opinion that it would be a fine thing to get the Federal Government interested. It is none too soon for the State to be taking the fate of Mount Mitchell under serious consideration."

Col. S. H. Leard, General Passenger Agent of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, is a booster of the first water and we are only sorry that there are not more men of his caliber. "Business conditions in all lines in Eastern North Carolina are good" he said yesterday and we know that these are his honest convictions.
Another thing that Col. Leard is doing that is proving of real worth to this section is the great interest he is taking in the development of the whole of the tidewater section of North Carolina and his efforts are bearing fruit.

A traveling man who is accustomed to paying New Bern a visit every so-often was heard to remark few days ago while standing in the lobby of one of the local hotels, that this is a mighty "dry" town. The visitor was right. This is a "dry" town and judging from the tenacity with which the officers, both State and Federal, are after the violators of the prohibition and Internal Revenue Laws, it bids fair to be a wee bit "drier" ere long.

Over in Greenville the ladies are starting several good movements pertaining to bettering the conditions of the town. We wish them success in their work and Greenville may rest assured that the town will be materially benefitted. Much of the public improvement around New Bern is due solely to the efforts of the public spirited women and whenever we hear that the female movement is behind any movement we rest assured that it will be done properly.

ONSLOW W. C. T. U. PLAN A MEETING

Arrangements Made for A Gathering in Jacksonville On February 2

Jacksonville, Jan. 21.—The ladies of the Jacksonville Christian Temperance Union are preparing for a public Temperance meeting to be given in Jacksonville at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening, February 2nd.

We don't know whether it is generally known that such an organization as W. C. T. U. exists at Jacksonville; but we are glad to report that such is the case. Mrs.
Cyrus Thompson is president, and Mrs. R. N. Sciff is the Treasurer.

The meeting that has been planned to be held next week has for its purpose the arousing of general interest along the line of work carried on by the union. Dr. Cyrus Thompson will discuss the question of Constitutional Prohibition, with reference to the Hobson amendment, which has recently been before the National Congress.

NEW MEXICAN CABINET NAMED

Provisional President Appoints His Corps of Assistants

Mexico City, Jan. 21.—Provisional President Garza, in a statement issued late Wednesday, said he was trying to bring about satisfactory arrangements for re-establishment of tranquility in Mexico City.

The cabinet named by President Garza is as follows:

Minister of Foreign Affairs, Senor Ortiz Rodriguez.
Justice, Rodrigo Gomez.
Agriculture, General Palafox.
Interior, Senor Zuechme.
War, General Serratos.
Public Instruction, Roa Ramon.
Communications, Vasquez Chap-ino.
Fomento, Senor Castilla.

General Gutierrez, former provisional president, who fled from the capital Saturday, was reported here to have taken to the woods with a few followers, most of his troops having abandoned him.

ARE INVESTIGATING POISONING CASE

New York Grand Jury Looking Into Death of Rogers Children

New York, Jan. 21.—With the inquest date still not set and the Grand Jurors not in session, little progress today marked District Attorney Martin's investigation of the strange love tangle in which Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters "Rogers" is the central figure. Abraham Levy, her counsel, was again before Mr. Martin, pleading that his client be not forced to appear at the inquest.

"It is inhuman," the lawyer protested. "Mrs. Walters will only be made an object of curiosity. She has suffered enough sorrow already, and added publicity surely is unnecessarily cruel. Her appearance can serve no legal purpose that cannot as well be served in another manner."

What answer the District Attorney made could not be learned, but it is reported he remained steadfast in his determination to have Mrs. Walters testify when official investigation of the deaths of her two babies is made.
She was reported as improving steady-ly in the Lebanon hospital today. Lorya E. Rogers spent the night in the building.

Rogers caused astonishment and laughter in the day by donning a "disguise," consisting of a heavy green ulster and automobile goggles.
A newspaper photographer tried to obtain a picture of him in this strange attire, but Rogers fled down Westchester Avenue and eluded his pursuer by a frantic leap to a trolley car.

When the Grand Jury convenes Dr. William G. Hague will be called again. His assistant, Dr. Henry Woods, and two Lebanon hospital nurses also will be summoned. A report persists that Mrs. Caroline Giddings Rogers will be called back to the city to be questioned.

Atlanta, Jan. 21.—The Frank case shortly is to be seen in the movies.
A report from New York says that George K. Rolands, who wrote and produced the "Mendel Beilis" film drama, has dramatized his conception of the Frank case in five reels, which are now about to go on the market.

The play, of course, is based on the famous trial in Atlanta, and the events leading up to it. Mr. Rolands is quoted as saying he believes the nation-wide publicity of the case will make the film a success.

Among those playing prominent parts in "The Frank Case" are Wilson Borelio as Leo M. Frank, Iva Shepard as Frank's wife, and William Cavanaugh as the Solicitor. The cast also includes George Middleton, Frank Byans, Charles Graham, William Galusha, Marie Pavia, Sidney D'Albrook and Roy Applegate. The picture will be released within a few days.

H. K. THAW BACK TO NEW YORK

Will Probably Be Carried
There On Next
Saturday

New York, Jan. 21.—Franklin Kenedy, Deputy Attorney General of New York, left this city today for Washington, to see that the Supreme Court's mandate for the return of Harry K. Thaw to this State is forwarded here on time. The order will be issued to-morrow, and should be in the Attorney General's hands on that day. As soon as it is received Kennedy and William Travers Jeremy will start for Concord, N. H., where the mandate will be "entered" officially.

Kennedy and Jerome are confident that the Federal Court in New Hampshire will turn Thaw over to them without requiring the signature of Judge Edgar Aldrich of the United States District Court to the papers.
If the Court will not take such action, Jerome is prepared to go to Massachusetts for Judge Aldrich's signature. It is expected that nothing will occur to prevent Thaw's arrival in New York by Saturday next, at the latest.

Will Bring Him Here On Train.
Jerome ridiculed the idea that any automobile will be necessary to bring Thaw back to this State. He appeared not to have the slightest worry over possible habeas corpus proceedings.

"There will be no mystery and no heroics in the matter," Jerome said.
"Thaw will be brought here in a train, an ordinary, every-day train, and lodged in the Tombs just as soon as he arrives."

It is expected that Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess County and two of his deputies will have actual charge of Thaw, when the return journey from New Hampshire is begun.

A despatch from Concord to-day stated that Thaw's lawyer in the New Hampshire city, Maurice Smart-left and George F. Morris, will make no attempt to delay the transfer of their client to the New York authorities after the necessary papers are produced. The attorneys said Thaw's chances of making a successful fight for freedom are better in New York State than in New Hampshire.

Judge Must Withdraw Writ.
The Concord dispatch also pointed out the necessity for Judge Aldrich to withdraw the writ of habeas corpus, which he granted earlier, and which stayed the extradition of Thaw on the order of the Governor of New Hampshire. The transfer of Thaw from Federal to New York State officials will follow, and the extradition order then will be restored automatically. It is reported that Judge Aldrich, who is holding court in Boston, is prepared to go to Concord whenever his presence there in the Thaw case is wanted.

A despatch from Denver, Col., last night quotes O. H. Hilton, Western counsel for Thaw, as saying that Richard J. Butler, former Tammany Assemblyman, who was indicted for aiding Stanford White's slayer to escape from Matteawan, is preparing to turn State's evidence.
Butler and four others are implicated with Thaw in the conspiracy prosecution pending in this State.

EX-GOV. UPHAN VISITS BEAUFORT

Cruises Down to That Place On Board His Handsome
Yacht, Comrade

Ex-Governor William B. Uphan, of Wisconsin, who arrived in New Bern Monday, January the fourth, aboard his yacht, Comrade, of Gray Bay, returned yesterday from Morehead City and Beaufort where he spent about a week. On his return from Beaufort he was accompanied by Messames Clark and Thomas and Misses Myrtle Clark and Annie Mason, of Beaufort and W. Zueber-ner, of Baltimore, Md.

Ex-Governor Uphan, whose home is in Marshville, Wis., left home about fourteen months ago and has been cruising ever since. He stopped in the principal cities on the Mississippi river and the south and east coast, reaching New York about four months ago. From there he went to Baltimore, Norfolk and from there he came to New Bern where he will remain until about the first of February, when he will leave for northern waters to spend the summer.

NO TRACE OF STEVE SMITH'S BODY

Fell Overboard From the Freight Boat
'Carl T.'

In yesterday's issue of the Journal was an article telling of the accidental drowning of Steve Smith, engineer of the gas boat "Carl T." near the mouth of Adams Creek; but the particulars of the accident were not given out as the message reaching New Bern only stated that he had fallen from the boat and was drowned.

Captain Taylor, of this boat was in New Bern yesterday and gave out an interview telling how Mr. Smith happened to fall overboard. Captain Taylor stated that Mr. Smith was in the engine room with a colored boy, when he learned that they had lost a small scow, which they had been towing. He went to the pilot room and informed Captain Taylor of this and in going back to the engine room from some unknown cause fell overboard. The colored boy saw him fall and at once notified the captain who stopped the boat as quick as possible. While turning the boat around Captain Taylor saw Mr. Smith in the water just as he went down. Although he waited there for more than an hour, the body did not come to the surface. He made efforts to locate the body, but failing in this he went to Morehead City, from which place he sent the message to New Bern. Captain Taylor came to New Bern yesterday and told Captain Joyner, of the Revenue Cutter Pamlico, and he immediately went to the scene with his crew in search of the body.

THREE-STICKER RUNS ON SHORE

The George N. Reed Stranded Near Pea Island Life-Saving Station

Norfolk, Jan. 21.—With her rudder gone and leaking at a lively rate, the three-masted schooner George N.
Reed, Captain H. M. Bell, stranded on the North Carolina coast, one and three-quarter miles south of the Pea Island life-saving station at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and it is feared will prove a total loss.

Captain Bell and six members of the schooner's crew were taken off the vessel yesterday by the life-savers from the Pea Island, Oregon Inlet and New Inlet life-saving stations in their self-righting surf boats and are being cared for at the Pea Island station. Reports received yesterday stated that the Reed is full of water.

NEGRO "SHRINERS" ARE DISBANDED

Dusky Travelers Cannot Pad the Sands of the 'Desert' nor Seek Oasis

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 21.—Several hundred negroes who called themselves members of the "Ancient Arabic Egyptian Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrines," have now a number of fozes, emblems and other insignia of Shrines for which they have no further use. Thanks to the efforts of Ponte-nate Forrest Adair, of Yaarb Temple, Atlanta, and W. H. Terrell, the temple's attorney, the negro order will have to take another name or go out of business.

The petition was brought in the Atlanta courts some time ago by Potentate Forrest Adair, representing the order, against Charles Faison, et al., Faison being the so-called potentate of the local lodge, which had sprung up with a close imitation of the name and insignia of the famous Masonic order. Judge H.
L. Patterson, of the Blue Ridge circuit, was named to hear the suit for injunction, as every Atlanta judge was either a Shriner or a near relative of one. Judge Patterson granted a temporary injunction against the negro order, and this week made it permanent.

The injunction applies only to the State of Georgia, but it is expected to be followed by similar suits in those states where the negro order, said to be founded in Washington, makes its appearance.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN WILL BY NO MEANS RESIGN

Washington, Jan. 21.—The White House today denied reports that Bryan had threatened to resign if President Wilson endorsed Roger Sullivan.
There is visible preparation for a fight in the open House when the army appropriation bill is taken up.

A. T. Land left last night for a business visit to Winston-Salem.

ANOTHER ARREST IN WRECK CASE

Two Men Held Charged With Causing Seaboard
Fatality

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—With the arrest here Wednesday of Will Grant, a negro, formerly employed as fireman of Engineer T. S. Stone, and the arrest at Hamlet today of M. R.
Kelly, a white man, on the charge of forgery, officers working on the Seaboard wreck case, in which Engineer Stone lost his life, believe that they are in a fair way to determine whether the wreck was due to an accident or foul play. On Saturday, it is said, Kelly attempted to cash the pay check of Conductor J. S. Murray, but was balked by the teller of the Merchant's National Bank. It is also said that Kelly purloined a book of passes from the superintendent's office in Hamlet several days ago and secured free transportation over the lines of the Seaboard. Kelly was employed by the Seaboard, but was discharged about five months ago.

Will Grant, the negro, formerly fireman for Engineer Stone, declared in Columbia, it is said that it was a good thing that he had been "let down"—taken from that engine—because he would go to the electric chair for killing Mr. Stone and he did not want to do that. The arrest of Grant was made by Special Agent McDonald of the Seaboard.

Seaboard officials will bring Kelly to Raleigh today, it was learned at Hamlet, to face the charge of attempting to secure money on Conductor Murray's check. There is no other charge against him, but the wreck matter may be probed thoroughly.

The wreck at Osgood Tuesday night resulted in the death of Engineer Stone of this city and the probably fatal injury of his colored fireman. Foul play was suspected and detectives and bloodhounds were put on the case.

CONVENTION OF TRADE BODIES
Began Yesterday In St.
Louis—A Notable
Gathering

THE BASEBALL INQUIRY IS ON
Noted Case Is Being Investigated In Illinois Court
This Week

St. Louis, Jan. 21.—With considerable emphasis placed upon the subject of interference with American cargoes, the National Foreign Trade Convention begins today the first of a two days' constructive conference upon foreign trade conditions. Commercial, industrial, financial and transportation men are represented among the delegates and speakers.

John Bassett Moore, formerly counsellor to the State Department will speak on "Problems Arising in War and Commerce," an address based upon a close study of the subject and dealing with the present controversy between belligerent countries and neutral shippers. His address will be discussed by men like D. W. Kemp-ner of the Galveston Cotton Exchange and Henry Howard, vice-president of the Merrimac Chemical Company of Boston.

Trade opportunities with the Near East will be described by J. Wylie Brown, executive secretary of the American Chamber of Commerce for the Levant at Constantinople. Brown is making a special trip to the United States to organize branches of the Levant Chamber in cities of the rank of New York, Boston, Detroit, Chicago, Baltimore, New Orleans and this city. Brown says that conditions in the near future will furnish an unusual chance for American exporters.

The difficulties of the smaller manufacturers and producers are to be considered at the conference by a discussion, "Problems of the Smaller Manufacturer and Merchant in Developing Foreign Trade," with W. C.
Downs, United States commercial attache for Australasia, as leader. He will be followed by such experts as H. C. Lewis, manager of the National Paper and Type company and C.
D. Mitchell of the Chattanooga Flow Company.

The merchant marine is on the program for discussion by James J. Hill and Welding Ring, ex-president of the New York Produce Exchange.

Educators like Prof. Edwin F. Gay, dean of the Graduate School of Business Administration at Harvard University; Prof. J. W. Jenks of New York University and Prof. G. L. Swig-gett of the University of Tennessee, and bankers like James B. Forgan of Chicago, Benjamin Joy of Boston, James K. Lynch of San Francisco, and A. W. Ferguson, general manager of R. G. Dun & Co., are on the program.

The opening address will be delivered by Secretary of Commerce W. C.
Redfield and James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation will speak on general foreign trade conditions. Other prominent men will be heard in short talks and the conference will be devoted into small sessions for practical work.

TO EXPEDITE THE ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL

Washington, Jan. 21.—The House met early today to expedite the army appropriation bill. General debate was to continue eight hours, followed by five-minute speeches.
