TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1915

It is a safe bet that the Captain and crew of the American ship William F. Fry which was sunk by the German boat, Prinz Eitel Friedrich, will be somewhere around waiting the fun when the latter sails out from the Virginia Capes.

While yesterday was the official day for cleaning up in New Bern, it might as well be understood that every day is a clean up day in this city.

The ruling of the Supreme Court in regard to the contempt case in which Judge R. B. Peeble and two Goldsboro editors were the principal figures, was received with joy by every North Carolina editor.

In our opinion the captain of the German ship Prinz Eitel Friedrich, now anchored at Newport News, Va., has no more idea of going out of the Virginia Capes than he has of flying.

There's one law that the last General Assembly forgot to pass; a law which would save North Carolina editors from many an evil thought and that was an act making it a felony for a man to rush into a newspaper office, frantically shout "gimme a paper" and then rush out just as frantically without even saying "much obliged" for "thanksoodop".

MISS BARTLING LAID AT REST

Beautiful and Impressive Funeral Yesterday Afternoon

Sad but impressive ceremonies yesterday afternoon marked the last sad rites over the remains of Miss Mable Bartling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bartling who reside on Spencer avenue, Ghent, and who died while undergoing an operation at the Methodist Episcopal hospital, Philadelphia, Tuesday afternoon.

The casket bearing the body was taken from the home to Centenary Methodist church a few minutes previous to 4 o'clock and that edifice was filled with friends of the family who had come to join in the mourning.

rendered by Prof. J. H. Bourdais. From the church the funeral cortege moved to Cedar Grove cemetery and there amidst a shower of floral tributes, the similarity of which has never before been seen in New Bern, the body was laid at rest.

"Dear Brother: Although the General Assembly did not grant the law to prohibit the delivery of liquor for beverage purposes, as asked for by the moral and church forces of the State, we were successful in getting through some very helpful and needful legislation.

"We have already served notice that this battle will continue until we have prohibited the receipt of liquor in this State, and the work will go on until the last blockade distillery is destroyed and national prohibition is enacted; and I ask your constant and continued support and the support of your church that the Anti-Saloon League may carry forward this desirable program.

IN MEMORIAM Please allow me space to announce the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Donerson, the young wife of Mr. Van Donerson, who departed from this life of sorrow, October the fifteenth 1914. She was sixteen years, six months, and twenty eight days old. She suffered greatly for about two weeks before she died. All was done for her that loving hands could do, but the Lord saw best and said "Come up higher." So we hope she is resting in the arms of Jesus. She leaves a husband, one child, a dear father and mother, four brothers, one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but we mourn not as those who have no hope for we know she is sweetly resting in the arms of Jesus. She was kind and loving and was loved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Methodist church at Lane Chapel. The remains were taken to the family burying grounds at Bethany. A precious one from us has gone, a voice we love is still, a place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled. 'Tis hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart, 'tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, we must forever part. Dearest loved one we must lay thee in the peaceful grave's embrace, but thy memory will be cherished, 'til we see thy Heavenly face. God bless and comfort all and may they try to meet her, in the prayer of a loving friend. J. E. Daugherty, of New Bern, N. C. returned home last night after spending the day in the city attending a special meeting of the County Commissioners.
