

In Memory of
MRS. LULA BRYAN JACKSON

On the evening of June 3rd, 1915 the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bryan and claimed for his own their beloved daughter and sister, Lula. If we pause to ask why it was that she should be taken just in the morning of life let us remember that God doeth all things well. Let us pause an id life's busy scenes to recall the memory of one loved and honored by all who knew her. Let us remember her. Let us remember that the memory of good deeds she did in this life will be in the memory of age like the coral islands, green and sunny amidst the melancholy waste of ocean and that she will shine like so many suns, in the kingdom of the Father emitting a splendor like the glorious body of the Lord.

Her deathbed was like the deep calm repose of a summer evening sky when all nature is hushed to rest; the departing soul, like the vanishing sun, peacefully disappearing only to shine in another and brighter hemisphere. As she crossed into the great beyond we could see her grasp the hand of her Redeemer and enter into that great city never built with hands, nor hoary with the years of time; a city which glories in having Jesus for its king, angels for its guards, saints for citizens; whose walls are salvation, and whose gates are praise. Heaven is a place of complete victory and glorious triumph. This is the battlefield; there is the land of the sword, and the spear; this is the land of the wrath and the crown. This is the land of the garment rolled in blood, and the dust of the fight; that is the land of the trumpet's joyful sound; that is the place of the white robe, and of the shout of conquest. Gold paved its streets, and around its secure and blissful homes rise walls of jasper. Earth holds no such city; the depths of ocean no such pearls as form its gates. No storms sweep its glassy sea; no winter strips its trees; no thunder shakes the serene and cloudless sky. Day there never darkens into night. Harps and palms are in their hands, whole crowns of glory flash and blaze upon the heads of its sinless and white-robed inhabitants.

She is gone! No longer shrinking from the winter winds, of lifting her calm pure forehead to the summer's kiss; no longer gazing with her brown and glorious eyes into a far-off sky; no longer yearning with a holy heart for heaven; no longer here; she is there; gazing, seeing, knowing, loving, as the blessed only see and know and love. Her battle's fought; and the victory is won. She is bathed in an ocean of purity and benevolence and happiness to all eternity.

Earth has one angel less, and heaven one more, since yesterday. Already kneeling at the throne, she has received her welcome, and is resting on the bosom of her Savior. She is survived by her husband, Mrs. C. J. Jackson and four children, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bryan, and three brothers, Messrs. Fred, Ford and Herbert Bryan.

We sincerely and lovingly sympathize with the bereaved family. May the sweet consolation which God gives to his beloved comfort them in their deep sorrow. We commend them to the tender care of that Higher Power to which we look for all things.

A Friend, Serena Hill, Havelock, N. C.

George Crockett, colored, and nine years of age, was arrested last night on a charge of larceny. The boy, it is claimed, stole a number of articles around in the Northern part of the city, among which was a mesh bag from the home of Thomas Capps. This was returned. The alleged thief spent the night in the city jail.

Albert White, colored, is in jail charged with breaking into lockers at the local plant of the John L. Roper Lumber Company. For some weeks articles have been disappearing from those lockers and White was thought to be the thief. A trap was set for him and last night he was caught in the act of breaking into one of them.

Harry Richardson, colored, was placed under arrest last night on a charge of stealing from S. H. Kwan & Company's store. A lady saw the negro place two bracelets in his pocket and informed the manager of the theft. The negro denied the theft but upon being searched the stolen articles were found in his pocket. He is now in jail.

A telegram receiver here yesterday from Charles Coplon who is in Baltimore at the bedside of his father, S. Coplon who on Friday underwent an operation there, stated that the condition of the latter was very satisfactory and that he was resting as well as possible under the circumstances.

Quite a sensation was created on the Elk's corner last night a few hours ago, when a colored man had a fit. The man fell just as he started across Middle street, and this with the crowd of spectators who rushed up, completely broke up the service that was being conducted on that corner by the members of the Salvation Army. The man was put into a hack and carried to his home.

Judge George Connor Favors The Solicitor

Says Records Detrimental to His Personal and Official Character Should be Expunged--Hears Argument of Counsel--Decision Soon.

George W. Connor yesterday afternoon practically cleared Solicitor Charles L. Abernethy from any stigma placed upon him by Judge Frank Carter during the wrangle that the two had in New Bern over the Baughman case when he declared that all records referring to the solicitor subsequent to the records after the Baughman case, should be expunged. The final chapter of this famous case came up yesterday when Solicitor Abernethy through his counsel, N. J. Rouse, of Kinston, argued before Judge Connor to have Judge Carter's records on the Record Book of Craven Superior Court expunged of anything detrimental to the personal and official acts of the solicitor. Mr. Rouse rehearsed the whole case, went into detail as to the continuance of the case against Baughman, charged with manslaughter and showed where these continuances were in proper accordance with the law, and were, under the circumstances, necessary.

In his decision Judge Connor stated that he found that all negotiations leading up to the continuance of the case were in accordance with the usual method and that the solicitor was justified in the way that he handled that part of the proceedings. In conclusion he stated that he would take the entire matter under consideration, look over the court records, the findings of the Legislative Investigating Committee and direct that his findings be entered upon the minutes of the Court.

The general opinion here is that Judge Connor will wipe off the records made by Judge Carter for which the solicitor is asking.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES ARE TO MEET

Will Pass on the Resignation of Prof. H. B. Craven

There will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the New Bern city schools in the Superintendent's office Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, at which the Board will pass on the resignation of Superintendent H. B. Craven.

Prof. Craven tendered his resignation to the Board at a recent meeting but instead of passing on it at that meeting a committee was appointed to confer with Prof. Craven and see if he would not accept the place with a leave of absence for a few months.

THE JAPANESE ARE GREATLY EXCITED

Wars and Rumors of Wars Causes Disturbances There

Tokio, June 3.—The resolution introduced in the house of representatives Tuesday by the opposition expressing lack of confidence in the present administration was rejected today by a vote of 333 to 232.

Extreme disorder marked the session. All the members of the cabinet were in their seats. Premier Okuma and Foreign Minister Kato defended the recent negotiations with China, and K. Hara, M. Inukai and H. Ogawa attacked them.

The resolution charged the cabinet with having failed in the negotiations with China from the beginning; with having aroused the suspicions of foreign powers, and with having harmed the prestige of the empire. Hoots, jeers and words of derision punctuated the speeches delivered on it, but the ovations for Premier Okuma and Minister Kato smothered the cries of the opposition.

K. Hara advanced the claim that Japan's aggression in China during the war in Europe had aroused misunderstanding, destroyed the friendship of the powers, and placed Japan in a position of isolation, while H. Ogawa declared concessions had been granted to the Hanyehing Company because China had been backed by the United States. Minister Kato denied that the powers had urged abandonment of the fifty group of Japanese demands.

"We demanded those in the interests of peace," he said. "No power compelled us to do so. I am convinced that the intellectual classes of the world will understand and commend the course of Japan."

Great interest has attached to the announcement of Premier Okuma and Minister of War Oka in the diet that the army is to be increased by two divisions. This is the first step to the eventual creation of an army of twenty-five divisions.

PLEASING RECITAL GIVEN AT DOVER

Was Given By A Popular Young Lady of That Place

Dover, June 5.—Miss Mabel West is always doing something to make her friends and neighbors feel that life is worth living, and this indeed was no exception.

Last night at 8:30 in her parlor on West street she gave the following musical program to her music class.

- Duet—Rhapsody March—F. List, Hazel West and Blanche Kilpatrick.
- Grasshopper—Cochran—Proben Elmore.
- Waltz—Op. 101, No. 11—C. Gurliitt—Dorie Richardson.
- Sing Robin Sing—Spaulding—Charlotte Pittman.
- My Lesson Today—Spaulding—Elizabeth Parrott.
- Morning Prayer—Op. 422, No. 2—Gurliitt—Eugenia Pittman.
- Tweedle-dee Polka—Op. 422, No. 2—Engelman—Ruby Kilpatrick.
- Fraumeri—Schumann—Blanche Kilpatrick.
- Chan Sou De Soir—Hackett—Hazel West.

One could easily tell from the sweet music rendered by her class, some of whom are only beginners, that she is giving them full time and her devoted attention. After the arranged program was rendered fruits of various kind were served to all present.

Last but not least, were several numbers rendered by Miss Gladis West, and from her graceful touch and her sweet music it is clearly seen that her time in college is being well spent, and that soon she will be a competent instructor in music.

SUSPECT CADET "CRIBBING"

Two Classes at Annapolis Re-examined in Spanish

Annapolis, June 5.—Strongly suspecting that certain members of the first and second classes had secured access to the examination papers in Spanish last week. Rear Admiral Pullman, Superintendent of the Naval Academy, directed that all the members of the classes should be re-examined, and this was done today.

JOHN H. FISHER GIVEN ONE YEAR

Found Guilty of Embezzling Funds of Mutual Aid Bank

John H. Fisher, colored cashier of the defunct Mutual Aid Banking Company, was yesterday convicted of embezzling funds to the amount of more than fifteen hundred dollars and sentenced to jail for a period of one year with the privilege of being hired out if he paid all the court costs at the end of six months. The Mutual Aid Banking Company was an institution conducted largely by colored people, the majority of its stockholders and depositors being member of that race. Fisher, as its cashier, had full charge of the funds and it was shown that he did with them just as he desired. Weeks before the doors of the bank were closed the institution was known to be in a shaky condition and its closing did not come unexpectedly. It is probable that the convicted cashier will be hired out and will not spend the sentence in jail.

RECOVERED IN SECTIONS

Submarine F-4 Must Be Taken Up In This Manner

Washington, June 3.—Admiral Moore, at Honolulu, today reported to the Navy Department that the submarine F-4 probably can be recovered in sections.

The vessel now is 48 feet below the surface, nearly upside down, with her top badly caved in.

The weather is unfavorable to lift her further and the sea makes it dangerous for divers to explore her hull. "I have reached the conclusion," Admiral Moore cabled, "that the F-4 will likely break in two with the present methods of lifting. We can probably lift the parts if she breaks in two. Should she not break there is great danger that the forward end will break and block the channel."

THIS TIME—"VINEGAR"

Wilmington Man Thought It Was Booze

Wilmington, June 3.—Charged with selling a half pint of vinegar which he claimed was the "real stuff," Willie Canady, colored, was before the Recorder yesterday on a charge of larceny by trick. The Recorder, however, found that there is no law prohibiting a man from selling vinegar as the "real stuff" and discharged the negro. May Clifford, white, who was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of selling whiskey, was fined $25 and the costs. An earlier trial was prevented on account of her illness. Lucile Garrison and Maude Adams, both white women, were tried on a charge of vagrancy.

The cases against Leonard Sterne, white, charged with blackmail, was continued until tomorrow on account of the absence of the defendant's attorney.

There will be a special Communication of Doric Lodge Number 568, A. F. and A. M. this evening at eight o'clock. Work in the M. M. degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

TIPS ARE UNDER BAN IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia, S. C., June 3.—South Carolina's anti-tipping law, passed by the last legislature, went into effect yesterday.

Hotel owners, barber shop proprietors, Pullman car conductors and others affected have posted notices forbidding tipping in the State.

The law prohibits giving a tip in any form. Employer as well as employee is liable under the terms of the measure.

AGED WOMAN OUTRAGED

Dastardly Crime Committed By A Negro

CONFERENCE TO TRY CLERGYMAN

Rev. E. P. Green to Face Body At Raleigh Saturday

Raleigh, June 3.—The St. Mary's Conference which has attracted a large number of Episcopalians to Raleigh, will end Saturday and on that morning the standing committee of the diocese will try the Rev. E. P. Green, deposed from the ministry several years ago.

There is no charge of improper conduct of any sort against Mr. Green. He had been a regularly ordained clergyman and left the Episcopal ministry, joining the Methodist conference. He served there several years and years to come back. The questions for the Episcopalians to settle is his standing. He has stood his examinations, has been ordained properly and has defended against the faith only by quitting it.

The former rector is a native of Warrenton and grew up there as a Baptist lawyer. He "turned" Episcopal in a somewhat romantic way and served about twenty years in that faith. He married in Rowan county where he held parishes a number of years. When he took the itinerancy with the Methodists he was regarded a big stroke for them, although it is said that the new convert was advised by his presiding elder against leaving the Episcopalians.

The minister is well advanced in years but still strong. The sole question for the Episcopalians to decide is whether he shall be allowed to re-enter the ministry.

ATLANTA, GA. HAS DIVORCES GALORE

Atlanta, June 3.—J. H. Banks, former traveling freight agent of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad in Atlanta, but now of New Orleans today was made defendant in a suit for divorce filed by Attorneys Arnaud & Donohoe, in behalf of Mrs. Kate M. Banks.

In the petition Mrs. Banks also set forth that her husband had violated an alimony agreement, entered into between the two in March, 1914. She said that he had agreed to pay her $25 per month for the support of herself and child, but that he left the State after making one payment.

Mrs. Banks charged cruel treatment, alleging that his acts of cruelty culminated December 9, 1913, when he drove her away from home, moving her and her effects to the home of her mother. She charged that, despite the fact that he received a good salary, he failed to support her and the child.

Another Atlanta railroad official, W. B. Calhoun, assistant passenger agent in the Union station today was sued for divorce, a petition being filed in behalf of Mrs. Ola Calhoun, by Attorney Lawton Nalley.

Mrs. Calhoun, whose home is at No. 115 Lawton street, said that she and her husband had been living in a state of separation since July, 1911. Cruel treatment was the general ground alleged.

SAN MARINO IS READY TO SCRAP

Tiny Republic Declares War Against the Austrians

Lugano, June 3.—The tiny republic San Marino has declared war on Austria.

San Marino is the smallest independent country in the world. It has had its separate government for many centuries, free from molestation from the powers. It has always been internally pacific and remarkably well administered. The nation contains only 22 square miles of mountainous land. The pursuits of the people are pastoral. They number but about 9,000 or 10,000 souls, men, women and children, and the army that San Marino put into the field will be only about one full regiment of infantry with two or three obsolete cannon.

Italy, it is presumed, furnished the ammunition for the "army."

San Marino is in Italy, far enough removed from Austria to be practically safe from attack from the great power that she has dared. Whether an "expedition" will be sent has not been stated.

TRYING TO AVERT STRIKE IN CHICAGO

Chicago, June 3.—Negotiations to avert a strike of 14,000 street car employes here were reopened today. Officials of the companies asked representatives of the unions to meet with them in an attempt to bring about a settlement of the wage disputes. Mayor Thompson also laid plans looking to an amicable adjustment. The men had voted to strike to enforce the demands for a wage increase.
