GENERAL CARRANZA IS AFTER MORE POWER

Wants United States To Recognize Him as The Leader of The Mexicans. Villa Not Heard From By President.

SON DIED IN JAIL; MOTHER IS SUING

Catawba Sheriff and Prominent Men Are Defendants

WANTS RECOGNITION

The leader of the Constitutional faction in his reply did not ask directly for the recognition of the Constitutional cause either tacitly or otherwise, but detailed at great length the contention of the party of which he is at the head and told of the reforms and conquests accomplished by it.

IS IN CONTROL

General Carranza pointed out that the Constitutionalists control all the supports in Mexico and recently have been successful in a number of important military engagements. Under his leadership, he declared, are nine-tenths of the population of Mexico.

VILLA IS SILENT

General Carranza's reply is interpreted here as an indication that the "first chief" is willing to sacrifice his own ambition for the good of the country and will consent to step down and out if peace is restored in Mexico.
