

NEW BERN, NORTH CAROLINA, AUG. 13, 1915

SOCIETY WOMAN HEAVILY FINED

New York Judge Pops it to Her for Contempt of Court

New York, Aug. 10.—The heaviest fine ever imposed by the Supreme Court of this State for contempt fell today upon Mrs. Sarah L. Robertson, wife of Dr. Joseph A. Robertson, of the Polyclinic Hospital. Justice Grogan fined her $42,496 for failing to appear for supplementary examination. The court decreed that if the fine is not paid Mrs. Robertson must go to Ludlow street jail. Mrs. Robertson was last heard of in Long Branch, N. J., where she moved immediately after a $90,000 verdict was returned against her in favor of the Wall street brokerage firm of H. Content & Company, with whom she speculated heavily in Union Pacific stock.

THE CONCEALED BONDS

The sensational disclosure that $102,000 worth of bonds and mortgages which she owned had suddenly disappeared was made by Mrs. Robertson at the second hearing. She could not account for the loss, and an adjournment was taken to give her time to search for the missing securities. She returned at the third hearing and testified that she had hunted high and low for the bonds, but could not find them either in her city home or in the Long Branch home. The latter place had been presented to her by her first husband who left her a million dollars fortune upon his death.
