

TROOPS ARE MOBILIZED, IT IS THOUGHT, FOR CONCERTED ATTACK ON MEXICO CITY

Carranza's Son-in-Law Goes to Vera Cruz to Prepare For the President's Coming - Famine Impending in Mexico City Forces Carranza to Seek a Compromise With Revolutionary Forces.

EL PASO, TEX., May 7.—Mobilization of troops, believed to be intended for use in a concerted attack on Mexico City, continued today at Juarez as numerous reports of the flight of President Carranza before the spread of the revolution were awaited.

T. R. Beltran, commercial agent of the liberal constitutional party at El Paso, is authority for the statement that Carranza is preparing to seek a compromise with the revolutionary forces.

Among troops enroute to Juarez, according to General Jose Gonzalez Escobar, commander of Juarez, are 5,000 men from Sonora, who will arrive at Chas Granda today.

HIGH COST OF SOUP TO BE INVESTIGATED.

MINEOLA, N. Y., May 7.—More than two score army reserve aviators, fresh from their studies in 12 eastern colleges, engaged in preliminary tryouts on Mitchell field here today, preparatory to taking part in the first intercollegiate field day this afternoon.

The events on the afternoon program included a 20 minute altitude test, a 100 mile race—four laps of 25 miles each over Long Island territory—trials at landing on a T mark and maneuvering tests.

Three committees, recently appointed, have made all arrangements for the banquet, which promises to be a most delightful and inspiring affair.

Va., one of the best known ministers in the country, will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist church Sunday morning and in the afternoon will dedicate the new Methodist church at Malde.

There is no greater platform speaker in the country than Bishop Darlington and no higher officer in the Methodist church is more popular than he.

PROFITEERING IN INDUSTRY IS FUNDAMENTAL CAUSE OF ALL HIGH PRICES

WASHINGTON, May 7.—A study of profiteering in American industry, made under the auspices of the railway brotherhoods, was presented to the railroad labor board today in support of the railway workers' demands of higher pay and to refute the charge that increased labor costs are responsible for the high cost of living.

Prepared by W. J. Lauek, former secretary of the war labor board, the study seeks to show that profiteering in industry is the fundamental cause for high prices in practically all commodities.

Calling attention to the war-made millionaires, he study contends that a three-fold relationship exists between high prices, profiteering and the addition to the quota of millionaires.

The menace of the future lies in the probability that the vast profits which are still held in reserve will be capitalized in order that under the pretext of a fair return on capital, those who own them may continue to take the larger proportion of national income.

Of the extraordinary increase in the price of sugar now amounting to 800 per cent, the study says, the increase of labor cost paid by the consumer was less than 15 per cent.

ed States was pictured in the net profits of these concerns which, it was said, rose from an average of $11,000,000 during the years 1913-1914 to $34,000,000 for the years 1916-1918.

In the meat packing industry, where profits were said to have increased between 300 and 400 per cent the labor item was only so small that a wage increase of 100 per cent would add less than five per cent to the total cost of the meat.

SOME STRONG WORDS SAID ABOUT HYMNS

COLOGNE, England, April 29.—Some very strong words about hymns have been said by the Rev. J. H. Hopkinson, vicar of Holy Trinity church here, and son of the former vice-chancellor of Manchester University.

"We have learned," he says, "that war is not a matter of fluttering banners and clashing swords and beating drums, but merely a sickening and dirty butchery of lads in water-clogged or fly-infested trenches."

"We shall be less ready than we were to compare the movement of the church to that of a victorious army. Hymns that we could sing unthinkingly before the war have become a lying blasphemy."

EMMA GOLDMAN IS HOMESICK FOR U. S.

Says It Is Hard to Accustom Herself to Russia and Things Russian — Writes Letter to Chicago Friend — Wants to Come Back.

(By The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, May 7.—Emma Goldman, radical deported to Russia with Alexander Berkman and others on the soviet "ack" Buford, has found it difficult to acclimatize herself in the land of her birth and is "home sick" for the United States, according to a letter from her to Dr. Ben L. Reitman, long her friend, made public today.

"I miss America. I lived there thirty years, you know," said Miss Goldman. "However, if I could at least hear from those dear to me I left behind it would not be so difficult."

John W. Champion, secretary of the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross, chief "agitator" said strikers' soft shirts might be any color except white.

He added that the strikers had taken a step toward efficiency in dressing by having collars attached to shirts, thus eliminating time spent searching for a button and attaching the collar.

Committee on Orphanage Has Four Different Propositions, One Each in Mecklenburg, and Iredell Counties, One in South Carolina and the Linwood College Proposition — Reformed Presbyterian Delegate Would Put Name of Jesus Christ in Preamble to Constitution.

The sessions of the A. R. P. Synod today began at 9:30, with the prospect that this will be one of the busiest days of the entire meeting.

Whereas, The unity, justice, tranquility, defence, welfare and liberty of nations, the objects specified in the preamble of the Constitution of the United States, are to be secured by recognizing the authority and obeying the laws of Jesus Christ, and

Whereas, The enthronement of Jesus Christ as Saviour and King in the life of the people of the United States should be followed, as a consequence, by the acknowledgement of His authority in "the supreme law of the land," therefore,

We respectfully present and urge our petition that the preamble of the National Constitution be amended to read in substance as follows:

We, the People of the United States, devoutly recognizing the Authority and Law of Jesus Christ, the Saviour and King of nations, and desiring to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common Defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The committee appointed a year ago to canvass the eastern section of the church to ascertain whether or not it is desirable to establish an orphanage in this section today recommended that an orphanage be established in the eastern section of the church, and that one of the following propositions be accepted:

1. The Linwood College property, at the price to Synod of $125,000. This property consists of 320 acres of land, buildings, furniture, etc.

2. The Stony Point property, consisting of five acres of land, with an eleven room building. This property is valued at $6,500, of which Stony Point proposes to pay $2,000.

3. The Ora proposition. Mr. W. J. Fleming, of Ora, S. C., offers to give 25 acres of land, valued at $100 per acre, within one-half mile of Ora church, and with this land $10,000 for support of orphanage.

4. The Sardis proposition. Sardis church in Mecklenburg county proposes to give 50 acres of land valued at $6,000, within three-quarters of a mile from Sardis church, and with this land $1,000 for support of orphanage.

These propositions were clearly explained on the floor of Synod. The committee on orphanage has all the propositions under consideration and will bring in a recommendation later.

At 11 a. m. Rev. Rufus W. Miller, of Pittsburg, presented greetings from the Reformed Churches of America holding the Presbyterian system.

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock an audience was present at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church that packed the building.

skine College, the Woman's College of Due West, and the Erskine Theological Seminary. A college of the denomination has within the past been established at Fayetteville, Tenn and is already taking a fine stand from the standpoint of attendance and efficient work accomplished.

The minister of the evening had for his text Psalm 138:2—"Thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." God has revealed Himself, the speaker said, in visions, by signs, by angelic visitations, in sacrifices and offerings, and by his works of creation and providence, but the most prominent way in which he has revealed himself is through his word.

In developing the subject, Mr. Pressly showed that the Word of God transcends all other revelations. All others are temporal and transitory. Jacob saw the ladder reaching to heaven on which the angels were descending and ascending, but this vision lasted only for a little while and was never repeated.

Dr. E. N. Orr, of Charlotte, field secretary of the Interchurch World Movement for North and South Carolina at 9 o'clock presented the claims of this movement, speaking of its origin, of its organization, of its plan or program.

Mr. Orr is himself an Associate Reformed Presbyterian, the son of Rev. W. W. Orr, D. D., of Charlotte. He also married a niece of Mr. S. N. Boyce, of Gastonia, Miss Jessie Boyce, of Due West, S. C.

The one thing that has caused the greatest amount of interest that has come before the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod up to this time was the disposition of the surplus secured from the Forward Movement campaign.

Whereas, in the Financial Campaign of the Forward Movement, the goal of $250,000 set by the Synod has not only been reached, but pledges have been received for more than $500,000, thereby affording a reasonable expectation of a large
