

LUTHERAN SUMMER SCHOOL FOR CHURCH WORKERS

Plans are being completed and effected for holding a summer school for church workers at Mt. Pleasant, N. C. Lutheran of the North Carolina Synod and the Tennessee Synod are supporting the work. The school will be attended by many from both synods.

The school will begin with a reception on next Monday evening, July 19, and continue until July 23. There will be classes, conferences, round table work and lectures for all church workers. These will be conducted by specialists from all parts of the country. Some of the eminent teachers who will conduct the work are Rev. D. Burt Smith, D. D., of Easton, Pa.; Rev. J. W. Horine, D. D., of Columbus, S. C.; Rev. S. S. Waltz, D. D., of Chicago, Ill.; Miss Sadie Goggins, of Newberry, S. C.; Mrs. John M. Cook, of Concord, N. C., and Mrs. E. A. Shenk, of Greensboro, N. C. Mrs. Evelyn Gurly Kane, noted reader from Washington, D. C., will give a rendition of "If I Were King" as one of the entertainment numbers. Other prominent speakers and teachers are on the program. There will be a week of profitable work.

The school will be held in the main building of Mont Aeneas Seminary. Board and rooms will be furnished at a very nominal cost. A large attendance is expected. Get in touch at once with Rev. J. H. C. Fisher, Mt. Pleasant, N. C., if you wish to be assured of entertainment. This will be a profitable combination of helpful inspiration and restful vacation and will give an opportunity to study the problems of the day from the viewpoint of the church.

A new form of lightning arrester for telephone lines has eight blocks of carbon mounted on a revolving disk so that one can be installed quickly in place of one that has been burned out.

In a new combined telephone receiver and transmitter the latter consists of a horn projecting at such an angle from the ear box as to rest at one side of instead of in front of a user's lips.

AD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Toupalik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief.

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

M'MANUS GIVES HISTORY OF "JIGGS"

Latter and "Maggie" Are Declared Real Characters of His Mind.

NEW YORK, July 13.—George McManus, creator of "Bringing Up Father," has just returned from a triumphant trans-continental tour. At a dozen large cities between the Atlantic and the Pacific he was accorded a welcome not unlike that usually given a prince or potentate.

The movie stars greeted him at Los Angeles and he was the guest of Charlie Chaplin during his stay there. At San Francisco the "Dinty Moore" club, named after the haven that McManus depicts "Jiggs" flying to, gave the great comic artist an old-fashioned "Dinty" welcome. He was taken in an aeroplane over the San Francisco territory. The crowd that welcomed him at Seattle might have greeted a presidential candidate so warm was their enthusiasm.

On his return through Canada he renewed many acquaintances for the Canadians are numbered among the keenest "Jiggs" fans.

H. M. Bitner, managing editor of the Pittsburg Press, was his host for a week in Pittsburg; there Miss Laura Brown the daring aviator bombarded the town with leaflets announcing the presence of the creator of "Jiggs."

burg at several matinee parties. On the day of his departure he was guest at an athletic meet attended by 50,000 and most of that number insisted upon shaking his hand.

Addressing the gathering McManus gave this short autobiography of his famous character "Jiggs."

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF "JIGGS,"

By George McManus.

"Jiggs" was born in Ireland.

He came to this country expecting to find gold on the streets of New York, but found bricks and cobblestones instead. He became a hod carrier.

Romance came into his life when he met "Maggie," a waitress at a small cafe, who put heaping dishes of corned beef and cabbage before him. They were married.

"Jiggs" became thrifty. Instead of carrying bricks he bought and sold them on commission. Then he manufactured them. Street brawls in the old days in New York provided a great market for "Jiggs' bricks, which were harder than ordinary bricks. He grew rich.

At this point in his career Maggie and their daughter Nora changed their viewpoint of life. Society, counts, dukes and college professors became their idols.

But "Jiggs" stuck to his clay pipe and continued to work his lips at the thought of corned beef and cabbage.

But Maggie opposed "Jiggs' low-brow ideas and started to make her arguments clear by hurling rolling pins, vases, pots, pans and furniture at the offender. And so they continued to live their lives, "Jiggs" longing for "them good old days" and Maggie for a bid to Count de Spoo's ball.

Despite the fact that Maggie has almost destroyed their wedding set by using the dishes as missiles, deep down in her heart she still loves "Jiggs."

"Jiggs" and "Maggie" are real characters in my mind, and in drawing them I try to please the public. We have been successful so far. "Bringing Up Father" is making its debut in motion pictures while the series of books are selling like hot cakes. A game with "Jiggs" and "Maggie," the principals, is also extremely popular.

You Guard Against Burglars, But What About Rats?

Rats steal millions of dollars worth of grain, chickens, eggs, etc. Destroy property and are a menace to health. If you are troubled with rats, try RAT-SNAP. It will surely kill them — prevent odors. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Comes in cakes.
