GOVERNOR COOLIDGE RECEIVES NOTICE OF HIS NOMINATION FOR OFFICE OF VICE-PRESIDENT

In Speech of Acceptance Governor Coolidge Outlines Need of the Nation to be "Rescue From the Reactions of War" - Ceremonies Held on Allen Field, a Natural Amphitheater.

(By the Associated Press.)

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—Governor Calvin Coolidge was formally notified today of his nomination as the republican candidate for vice president in exercises which began with a meeting of the notification committee and an informal luncheon for the committeemen at the Coolidge home at noon, and concluded with ceremonies of notification at 3 p. m. on the Allen field of Smith College.

The little college city was decorated with the national colors, and pictures of the governor were everywhere displayed. All business was suspended during the afternoon, and the city was crowded with visitors from the adjoining "hill town" section of Massachusetts. Special trains brought delegations from Boston and neighboring states. Scores of influential leaders of the party also were here.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—Rescue from the reactions of war was described as the transcendent need of the nation in the address which Governor Coolidge delivered here today in accepting formally the republican nomination for vice president. "The chief task that lies before us," he said, "is to repossess the people of their government and their property."

Governor Coolidge found another source of gravest public concern to be "the reactionary tendency to substitute private will for the public will." "The observance of the law," he said, "is the greatest solvent of public ills."

The scene of the notification was Allen field, the recreation ground of Smith College, a natural amphitheater. Governor Coolidge heard from Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, the formal announcement of his nomination "by the spontaneous wish" of the party.

"The proposed league of nations without reservations as submitted by the president to the senate met with deserved opposition from republican senators," said Governor Coolidge. "Our party by the record of its members in the senate and by the solemn declaration of its platform, by performance and by promise approves the principle of agreement among nations to preserve peace and pledges itself to the making of such an agreement, preserving American independence and rights, as will meet every duty America owes to humanity. This language is purposely broad, not exclusive, but inclusive. The republican party is not narrow enough to limit itself to one idea, but wide and broad enough to provide for the adoption of the best plan that can be devised at the time of action."

"Your presence tells me," said Governor Coolidge, in opening his address, "of a leader and a cause. A leader in Warren G. Harding, the united choice of a united party, a statesman of ability, seasoned by experience, a fitting representative of the common aspirations of his fellow citizens, wise enough to seek counsel, great enough to recognize merit, and in all things a stalwart American; the cause of our common country, as declared in the platform of the republican party, the defense of our institutions from every assault, the restoration of constitutional government, the maintenance of law and order, the relief of economic distress, the encouragement of industry and agriculture, the enactment of humanitarian laws, the defense of the rights of our citizens everywhere, the rehabilitation of this nation in the estimation of all peoples, under an agreement, meeting our every duty, to preserve the peace of the world, always with unyielding Americanism—under such a leader, such a cause, I serve."

ties have put a well nigh unbearable burden on every home. "The most obvious plan to begin re-trenchment is by eliminating the extravagance of the government itself. That great breeder of public and private extravagance, the excess profits tax, should be revised and a recourse had to customs taxes on imports, one of the most wholesome of all means of raising revenue, for it is voluntary in effect and taxes consumption rather than production."

"A revision of taxation must be accompanied by a reduction of that private extravagance which the returns from luxury taxes reveal as surpassing all comprehension. There has been profiteering. It should be punished because it is wrong. But it is idle to look to such action for relief. This class profit by scarcity, but they do not cause it."

"As every one knows now, the difficulty is caused by a scarcity of material an abundance of money and insufficient production. The government must reduce the amount of money as fast as it can without curtailing necessary credits. Production must be increased. There must be a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension for the interdependence of capital, management and labor, and the better facilities for the prompt and reasonable settlement of industrial disputes. The farmers need an enlarged power of organization whereby the original producer may profit to a larger degree by the high prices paid for his produce by the ultimate consumer, and at the same time decrease the cost of food."

"But all these difficulties depend for final solution on the character and moral force of the nation. Unless these forces abound and manifest themselves in work done, there is no real remedy. Whenever in the future this nation undertakes to assess its strength and resources, the largest item will be the role of those who served her in every patriotic capacity in the world war. Care of dependents, relief from distress, restoration from infirmity, provision for education, honorable preferment in the public service, a helping hand everywhere, are theirs, not as a favor but by right."

"There is especially due to the colored race a more general recognition of their constitutional rights. Tempted with disloyalty, they remained loyal, serving in the military forces with distinction, obedient to the draft to the extent of hundreds of thousands, investing $1 out of every $5 they possessed in liberty bonds; surely they hold the double title of citizenship, by birth and by conquest, to be relieved from all imposition, to be defended from lynching, and to be freely granted equal opportunities. Equal suffrage, for which I have always voted, is coming. The party stands pledged to pursue endeavors to hasten ratification. The destiny, the greatness of America lies around the hearthstone. If thrift and industry are taught there, and the example of self-sacrifice oft appears, if honor abide there and high ideals, if there the building of fortune be subordinated to the building of character, America will live in security, rejoicing in abundant prosperity, and good government at home, and in peace, respect and confidence abroad. If these virtues be absent there is no power that can supply these blessings. Look well then to the hearthstone; therein all hope for America lies."

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—Governor Morrow, of Kentucky, who will make the notification speech, reached the city during the night and this morning was in conference with party leaders. Among other early arrivals was Harry M. Daugherty, of Columbus, O., Senator Harding's convention manager and his personal representative at the exercises. National Chairman Will H. Hays was unable to attend.

GOVERNOR MORROW NOTIFIES GOVERNOR COOLIDGE OF HIS NOMINATION

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—"This nomination is tendered you as the spontaneous wish of your party," said Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, principal speaker at the ceremonies attending the notification here today of Governor Calvin Coolidge, of his nomination as candidate of the republican party for vice president. "The West Called to the East," Governor Morrow said, "North and South heard the call and the nation made an-

CLAIMS AGAINST U. S. WILL BE CREDITED ON DEBTS

(By the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Reduction of the allied debt to the United States by the application to the debts of the various governments of amounts awarded them on claims against this country growing out of the war, was considered today by the treasury.

Payment of claims against the United States will not be made in cash or credit to debtor nations, according to present plans but amounts recovered from this country will be charged off America's bill.

Negotiations are under way with France to settle in this manner claims amounting to $190,000,000 awarded that country by the war department. France is said to be anxious to receive the amount of the claims in cash so it may buy certain commodities in the United States but the treasury takes the position, according to officials, that it cannot pay out if a greater sum is owed in return.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKET

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 27.—The trend of prices was downward again at the opening of today's stock market. Sentiment among traders and commission houses with out-of-town connections was increasingly bearish because of the strained credit conditions. Crucible Steel, one of yesterday's weakest features, recorded an initial loss of 1 3/4 points, and other active industrials were lower by fractions to one point. Oils were moderately supported, however, Royal Dutch gaining one point. Rates of exchange on London were slightly lower.

EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE

(By the Associated Press.)

SANTIAGO, Chile, July 27.—Advices received this afternoon from various sections indicate that this morning's earthquake had a vertical movement, affecting the central provinces generally. The quake lasted more than a minute in the town of Los Andes, at the foot of the main Andean range, where it seemed more intense than in any other section. The glass dome of the fine arts building in Santiago was broken. There were isolated cases of minor damages, but no reports of injuries to persons have been received.

—Mr. C. F. Johnson, of Greensboro, a mechanical expert on Packards, arrived in the city Monday night. He will be with the new company organized here to sell Packard cars.

Governor Morrow attacked the democratic national administration for what he termed its hesitation, blundering and stubbornness and called the league of nations an attempt to bind the United States to the bloody feuds of Europe. "It is fitting," Mr. Morrow said, "that in Massachusetts at this fountain of American inspiration, we solemnly determine that the heritage which made us free, independent and prosperous, shall not be bartered for a mess of unknown potage."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Governor Morrow continued. "At home grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to, press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people. But, confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, entrusted with the great process of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it bent all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, committed to place in his stead, have for more than a year, and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multi-colored garments of internationalism; to take from us our sovereignty—and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the blood feuds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth, and to involve us in the greed and strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Governor Morrow asserted, Governor Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said. "We now await your message, convinced that it will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the republican party and that it will proclaim our America will know that Captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings—home, to the needs of the hour—home, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises—home, to solve our problems here and to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

FIFTH AND FINAL CUP RACE TODAY

Shamrock and Resolute Off in Last Race of Series With Clear Skies and Good Weather Conditions.

(By the Associated Press.) SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 27.—The fifth international yacht race, postponed Saturday because of too much wind and declared off yesterday after the two cup sloops had floundered around four hours in a calm, today was ordered postponed at 11 o'clock at 15 minute intervals while the crews whistled for a wind.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 27.—Clear skies, a smooth sea and a seven knot wind from the northwest—these were conditions at 8 o'clock this morning, for the fifth and final America's cup race, which at that hour promised to develop into another drifting match. Shamrock as usual was first to get under way. Getting up her main sails and big club topsail, she took a tow for the starting line. Resolute also set up a big club topsail.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 27.—Resolute got under way a little after 10 o'clock. Meanwhile Shamrock dropped her tow after rounding Sandy Hook point and breaking out an outer jib, stood away for Ambrose channel. The wind had hauled into the eastward, as it did yesterday at this time, and the challenger was able to head for the lighthouse on the port tack. The ocean was filled with soft spots, but Jersey fishermen believed that before the day was over, the wind would get into the southward, which would give the yachts a beat to the outer mark.

Some of Shamrock's crew are becoming restive over the races, as they have come to the conclusion that the challenger cannot go to weather with Resolute and that a craft that fails on that point of sailing cannot lift the cup. Believing they have no chance to win, the sailors are ready to return to England and do not wish to remain here for any further sailing on Shamrock against Resolute and a Vintie, as has been suggested. The regatta committee announced that the time allowance which Shamrock must give Resolute would remain at six minutes, 40 seconds. Although eager to run off the final race and break the tie for the America's cup, skippers of Resolute and Shamrock IV found scarcely a cupful of air when they reached the Ambrose channel lightship, the starting point in today's 30-mile windward and leeward contest. If no breeze arises by 2:19, the race will have to be postponed until tomorrow, for it must be sailed within six hours and before sundown.

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 27.—A general selling pressure from the South with rumors of freer offerings of spots and selling by local and Wall Street interests caused another drop in cotton prices early today. MRS. LEROY WAS SLAIN IN DETROIT APARTMENT

(By the Associated Press.)

DETROIT, July 27.—That Mrs. Leroy was slain in the Harper avenue apartment house here was conclusively proven today, according to the police, by finding there of blankets identical with those in which the body was wrapped before it was placed in the trunk. Another blanket has not been accounted for and police believe the vital organs of the body were placed in it and put in the second trunk. A call has been sent to every express office in the country to check over uncalled for baggage, in an effort to locate the second trunk.

Police today divided their attention between a hunt for Leroy, husband of the slain woman, and a second trunk believed to contain the vital organs of the body, and which is known to have been sent from the Harper avenue apartment house where the Leroy's lived.

Police believe that examination of the organs might reveal whether death was due to a criminal operation, as has been hinted since Mrs. Trumbull made her statement. It was Patrolman and Mrs. Trumbull who identified the victim through clothing found in the trunk.

Mrs. Trumbull was to go to New York today to view the body. The police declared today they had established that Mrs. Leroy planned an attempt at suicide before her death.

Saint Paul's Baptist church, colored, had a big rally on Sunday, the 18th, to raise money for the new church which they intend to build some time next year. Ten companies were formed to carry on the campaign. Each was expected to bring in $200 dollars. They did that and more, going over the top with a total of $2,291.20. The pastor, Rev. D. J. Avery, and all those engaged in the campaign wish to heartily thank their white friends for their aid in raising the money. Next fall the church expects to raise $3,000 more for the erection of the new church building.
