CHURCH NOTICES.

On Going to Church.

St. Paul: "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another."

Bernard Shaw: "Any place where men dwell, village or city, is a reflection of the consciousness of every single man. In my consciousness there is a market, a garden, a dwelling, a workshop, a lover's walk—above all, a cathedral. My appeal to the Master is: Mirror this cathedral for me in enduring stone; make it with hands; let it direct its sure and clear appeal to my senses, so that when my spirit is vaguely groping after an elusive mood my eye shall be caught by the skyward tower, showing me where, within the cathedral, I may find my way to the cathedral within me."

John Wanamaker: "Why do I go to church? You might just as pertinently inquire, 'Why do I eat?' or 'Why do I sleep?' because I find that one is just as necessary to my well-being as another. I could eat well and sleep well, and yet be a very miserable man without the spiritual uplift that only comes from an attendance upon the Divine ordinances."

Wall Street Journal: "The biggest boost for business will be a revival of religion and real church-going."

A Brooklyn Judge: "I have never had before me in my twelve or fifteen years' experience on the bench a boy or girl who was a regular member of the church."

RALEIGH MAN APPOINTED MISSIONARY TO CHINA.

WEST RALEIGH, Aug. 12.—Gordon K. Middleton, instructor in agriculture in the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering, has been named an agricultural missionary to China by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and will leave soon to take up his work in Kain-fong, Honan Province.

To form the basis of the agricultural and livestock department of the college a number of American breeders have contributed a number of head of dairy cattle and Mr. Middleton will take these to China with him. The dairy herd will be cared for by Chinese boys in exchange for their board and tuition. In addition, a demonstration farm similar to those operated in connection with American agricultural college will be established at the college and Chinese farmers as a cooperative guide.

The total number of blind persons in the world is estimated at 2,390,000.

SUCCESS IN MARRIED LIFE

To insure it, Says Court Official, Each Should Be a Partner, as in Business Enterprise.

A wide experience with husbands and wives has enabled Mrs. Julia L. McGuire of the Chicago court of domestic relations to formulate these principles which she gives in People's Magazine. "It can all be summed up in about the same way textbooks on business tell one to sum up the proposition of going into business partnership:

"1. Know your partner. Study him—or her—under trying circumstances as well as when things are going well.

"2. Be sure that you and your partner agree in your purposes and ambitions. Compare notes with each other and find out whether you have the same tastes and hopes for the future. Find out your prospective partner's idea of what to do in prosperity or adversity.

"3. Settle upon your working program for the future. Decide how you will apportion your working funds; face frankly the possibilities for trouble, and arrange in advance to meet them. Determine in advance the direction in which you will expend your establishment when you have savings to disburse.

"4. Institute an adequate system of cost accounting to see to it that your funds go for the purposes you have agreed upon. Get into the habit of being frank with each other, of clearing up misunderstandings instead of letting them fester.

"5. Go to it—and stick to it—along these lines.

"6. Unless one of you has hidden faults, you will not fail.

"That is what I have learned from my contact with forty-four thousand unhappy marriages, which I have been able to sum up, scrutinize and analyze. The soundest advice to both men and women that I could give is: 'Play fair and use common sense with husband or wife.'"

LONG A FAMOUS PLAYHOUSE

Walnut Street Theater, in Philadelphia, to Be Torn Down, Dates From the Year 1809.

The oldest playhouse in America, which is to be replaced in part at least by a modern structure, is the Walnut street theater in Philadelphia, opened in 1809. It has never missed a season in these 111 years.

Edwin Forrest made his first regular appearance here at the age of fourteen, getting his first start through the influential backing of Col. John Swift, at one time mayor of Philadelphia. The play in which Forrest appeared was "Douglas," and in the cast were Wheatley, Mrs. Williams, Joe Jefferson's grandmother, and Warren and Wood, managers of the theater and of the stock company. Warren and Wood considered themselves very unfortunate in the cast of novices they had to deal with and were greatly surprised when Forrest acquitted himself so well that the public expressed a desire for the play's repetition.

The English tragedian, Edmund Kean, appeared at the Walnut in 1821. During the 16 nights of his engagement the receipts ran as high as $1-379, only once falling below $650. In those days this was considered a prodigious sum in theatrical circles.

Beaver Money.

John Jacob Astor introduced the beaver skin as a medium of exchange, and it was not until beaver hats were replaced by the modern felt hat made from rabbit fur that beaver money went out of fashion.

For about 100 years the beaver skin had its fixed value by which the cost of any other article was determined. It is said that the process of making hats from rabbit pelts actually saved beaver from extinction in North America.

Most of the beaver was trapped by Indians, and ambitious white men exerted their wits in separating the red man from his treasures.

If an Indian thought he needed furs to keep warm, he was given a drink of something that made him feel that he wouldn't need an overcoat, after all.—Detroit News.

Make a Beginning.

Many people prosper on ideas that come from without. In a measure these are common property. The really great ventures that make outstanding men are those born within a man and therefore peculiarly his property. When appreciated and acted upon they give him the inside chance that others will cover when they see him beginning to climb. So instead of sitting around moping it's "up to you" to start something. Let your thinker sink deep down into your anatomy and mine the unused possibilities that are rusting out for want of use. And rest assured unexpected possibilities will open up just as soon as you start something.—Exchange.

Missouri Weather.

The frequent rains recently have made us appreciate what an old lady from Arkansas said about us once after a visit up here. When she made up her mind to go home she remarked: "Well, yer see, honey, it's this here-away: In Missouri when it starts to rain it never quits, and when it clouds up the sun never shines, and when it does get clear you never see a cloud again, and when it gets hot it nevs, turns cool, and when it once gets cold it never warms up no more."—Clinton (Mo.) GREAT IMPROVEMENT PLANNED FOR NEW YORK'S WATER FRONT.
(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The greatest water front improvement here in 50 years, involving the removal of 32 antiquated piers along the Hudson river, and the erection in their stead of 18 new and vastly larger piers of latest design, has been planned by Murray Hulbert, commissioner of docks, and approved by the Sinking Fund Commission. The improvement will cost $50,000,000 and will require 10 years to complete. Work is expected to be started next spring.

This with the proposed vehicular tunnel to New Jersey is expected to solve New York's west side dock problem. The new waterfront system is to consist of wide piers, slips and marginal streets, with warehouses and tracks where available in the rear.

The cost of the construction is expected to pay for itself within four years time," according to Deputy Dock Commissioner Michael Cosgrove. "A permanent sea wall has been built along the entire stretch, no rock will be encountered to make a depth of 40 feet and most of the real estate is owned by the city.

"These new piers will increase the pier storage area 50 per cent if they are made only one story," said Mr. Cosgrove. "But because of the high value of this waterfront it will be uneconomical to stop even at two stories. They will have the most modern appliances for rapid handling of freight, including electric cranes, helpers and hoists of all kinds.

"The present lower North River water front is just what it was in 1871. Its slips are so narrow there is not room in them at once for two big steamships. To afford relief the War Department has three times permitted the pier headlines to extend further offshore. The more these narrow piers were brought out, the worse the slips became, because boats have been continually growing bigger.

"The new plan," said President F. H. La Guardia of the Board of Aldermen, "means that New York is going to have 18 piers from 350 to 1,025 feet in length in place of the 32 dilapidated structures which are a disgrace to the city. Between each pier there will be a maximum dockage space of 300 feet and a minimum of 275 feet. Two piers of the new piers will be 100 feet wide, seven 150 feet and nine 125 feet."

Along New York's 578 miles of waterfront the Dock Commission has under way other projects under contracts amounting to $20,000,000.

BIG DIRIGIBLE R-38 IS NEARING COMPLETION.
(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. Latest reports received at the Navy Department are that the dirigible R-38, now being constructed for the American navy by the Royal Airship Works, at Bedford, Eng., is more than 60 per cent completed and probably will be ready to take the air by the latter part of November.

When the great dirigible, which will surpass in size any airship ever constructed, thrusts her nose out of the hangar at Bedford for the first time there will be a tremendous commotion. Through her trial flight. Several training cruises on the British dirigible R-33, used by the British government for anti-submarine purposes, have been made by American naval personnel who will bring the R-38's crew and the mammoth airship will be arranged by experienced sailors of the air who she sets out on her trans-Atlantic flight, which officials say will be made next year or May.

With a gas volume of 2,724,000 cubic feet, the R-38 will surpass in size the largest rigid airship yet turned out by the Zeppelin Company, the L-71 by 204, and cubic feet and the British dirigible R-33, which crossed the Atlantic last year, by 711,000 cubic feet. Her six engines will develop 1,950 horsepower, or 100 more than the most powerful Zeppelin craft and she has a gas bag at an estimated maximum speed of 75 miles an hour.

To accommodate the 604 foot stretch of the R-38, the naval airship hangar at Cape May, N. J., already had been lengthened to 700 feet and also increased in height. The two large hangars now under construction at Lakeland, N. J., probably will not be completed until July, 1921, or after the R-38's arrival.

TOMBSTONE FOR SALE.
(By The Associated Press.)

REHAPÉST, Hungary, July 23.—"Nice family tombstone, little used; for sale," an advertisement published in the newspapers here, has directed attention again to the poverty of the formerly well-to-do families. Many of them early began to sell rugs, furniture and jewelry to get food but some now have nothing left but heirlooms.

Lieutenants Bowlen and Davidson of the American Relief Administration, found it necessary, recently, to select from 152,000 "intellectual" applicants those who should be given 4,000 available relief parcels.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Aug. 13.—Whale hunting from a baby blimp is a project of Captain John D. Loop, a resident here, who has had many years experience whaling in the old-fashioned way. Captain Loop has invented an aerial harpoon to be dropped upon the whale with a buoy attached to trace the leviathan after he is struck. When the whale comes
