A

RALPH INCE PRODUCTION

A story that pictures the northland in all its romantic glory—of a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted, who faced death to forget the torments of an aching heart.

FRIDAY

DOROTHY DALTON

IN

SIR JAMES BARRIE'S FAMOUS PLAY
"HALF AN HOUR"

Year after year she had lived for others, while the deep wild waters of the love-yearning in her piled up and up against her narrow life. One day the flood-gates broke! And all the barren years were swept away in half an hour!

A romance dressed in richness and beauty, yet sounding the depths of human experience.

CLOVER CULLINGS.

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.

CLOVER, S. C., Dec. 16.—Messrs. T. J. McNeely, and R. S. Dickson, of Gastonia, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Clover with friends. Mr. T. J. McNeely has accepted a position at Durham, N. C., and will leave Gastonia on Tuesday, December 21, to take up his new duties in Durham. His many Clover friends learn with sorrow that Mr. McNeely will move so far away. At one time, he most acceptably filled the position of superintendent of the Clover Cotton Manufacturing Co. He was quite popular with both the citizens of Clover and the operatives of the plant of which he was superintendent.

Miss Ellen Clinkscale left Tuesday morning for her home in Spartanburg after spending a week with her cousin, Miss Louise Smith.

Mrs. Hope Forbes, of Crowders Creek, was a visitor in Clover Monday.

Mr. W. H. Sherer, who for some time has conducted a grocery store here, on December 1 changed his business into a "cash and carry" store.

Miss Cora Wilson, efficient clerk in Counts' store, has been sick for several days.

Mrs. Dave Parrott spent the weekend in York with her father, Mr. Bredna Parrott.

Mrs. H. L. Wright and Miss Bess Adams, spent Friday evening in Rock Hill. Miss Adams attended a party. Mrs. Wright visited relatives.

Supt. E. B. Moore, of the Clover Mills Company, spent the past weekend at his summer home in Kansas, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brisson spent Sunday in Clover with relatives.

Rev. D. L. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church, was unable to fill his appointment last Sunday, being confined to his room.

Mrs. Eva Henry has been sick for some days.

Mr. W. P. Smith has returned after spending a week hunting at Hilton Head, S. C. The party of which he was a member were quite successful in the hunt. They killed eight deer and over a hundred squirrels and other small game.

The people of Clover were greatly shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden death on Friday of Miss Lillie Ashe, of Lowryville. For a number of years Miss Ashe was home demonstration agent in York county and gave many interesting and helpful demonstrations in Clover. The ladies of Clover feel a great loss in her death and can truly say that she will be greatly missed in this community, and that the world is a better world for her having lived in it.

Mrs. Mary Speck, of York, spent the weekend in Clover, the guest of Miss Bleeker Beaumgard.

Mrs. J. E. Beaumgard, Misses Bleeker Beaumgard, Mary Speck, Annie Lee Adams and Bess Jackson motored to Gastonia on Saturday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Wylie and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Pursley shopped in Gastonia Friday afternoon.

Messrs. Randolph Scott, of Charlotte, E. O. Fitzsimmons and Ernest Allen, of Clover, were guests of Mr. Chris Summerford, of the Bethany section, for an all day hunt on Saturday. They bagged a number of birds, rabbits and squirrels. Messrs. Scott and Fitzsimmons motored to Charlotte on Saturday night.

The college girls who will arrive this week for the holidays include Misses Martha Smith, G. W. C. Greenville, S. C. Claude Smith and Ethel Adams, Virginia College, Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. Minnie Neil Morton and Miss Jessie Neil have returned to Clover after spending several days in Charlotte with their sister, Miss Annie Neil.

Most encouraging reports have been received from the bedside of Mr. T. H. Allen, who is a patient at Chick Springs sanatorium. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

There are being perfected for a Christmas entertainment to be held at the Hawthorn Mission Sunday school on Christmas eve.

OLNEY LOCALS.

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.

OLNEY, Dec. 15.—The many friends of Mrs. Frank Hawkes will be glad to know she is now improving from a recent illness of pleurisy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bruce Robinson have another son. He answers to the name of E. B. Jr.

Miss Jane Torrence, who has been spending two weeks or more with the family of Mr. M. C. Davis, returned to her home in Gastonia yesterday. Miss Torrence makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Hanna in Gastonia. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna expect to move this week into their new home, a pretty bungalow, on the South Broad street extension, which has just been completed.

Mr. W. M. Nolen, of Gastonia, attended the morning services at Olney Sunday.

Miss Ella Dixon, of Charlotte, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Dixon, attending services at Olney Sunday.

Mr. Tom Wilson was an Olney visitor Sunday.

Mrs. W. R. Hendrix, of Charlotte, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Howe.

Mrs. R. C. Robinson has been ill for a few days.

Mrs. Emily Robinson visited her son, Mr. M. A. Rhyme, last Monday.

Mr. Carl Robinson, of Shelby, visited homefolks last Sunday, attending services at First Presbyterian Church, Gastonia.

Miss Julia Carroll and Mrs. Emma Barrett, of Clover, came up for church Sunday.

Miss Cora Wilson, of Clover, has been quite ill for the last two weeks with mastoiditis.

Most of our schools are planning to have Christmas trees and appropriate exercises before closing next week for the holidays.

POSTUM CEREAL

used in place of coffee has many advantages, soon recognized. Postum is better for health, costs less than coffee, yet has a flavor very similar to coffee.

Postum Cereal should be boiled a full fifteen minutes. Another form Instant Postum is made instantly in the cup, no boiling required.
