

JAPANESE PRESS INTERESTED IN AGREEMENT TO LIMIT NAVAL ARMAMENTS
(By The Associated Press.)

TOKIO, Dec. 20.—The Japanese press is manifesting great interest in the proposal of Senator Borah, of Idaho, for a tripartite naval agreement under which the United States, Great Britain and Japan would pledge themselves to limitation of naval armaments. In general the newspapers favor the idea, but regard Japan's present program as a legitimate one.

In expressing strong approval of the Borah proposal the Mainichi Shimbun of Osaka, compares Japan's yearly expenditure of 10,000,000 yen for teachers' salaries with the 500,000,000 yen naval expenditures.

It declares the present rate of expenditure for the navy is suicidal and that it is the duty of statesmanship to remove the causes which necessitate such large armaments.

Of the Tokio papers the Jiji Shimpō expresses the hope that the senate will pass the Borah resolution as a means of relieving the world from a fresh outbreak of rivalry in armaments. Japan's eight battleship and eight battle cruiser program is not a menace to peace, this newspaper insists, but America's intention to have the first navy in the world, it says, will cause England to expand her build-up with the 500,000,000 yen naval expenditure.

The Nichi Nichi Shimbun holds that Japan's geographical and international position does not permit her to indulge in disarmament, but that eventually the world situation will necessitate a naval agreement. The present policies of the governments, it thinks, should pave the way to this end. If the United States reduces her armaments the others will follow, says this journal, and it argues that the responsibility for disarmament rests upon America.
