The Home of Good Clothes

BESSEMER BRIEFS.

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.

BESSEMER CITY, Jan. 10.—At her beautiful home on the pinnacle of Whetstone Mountain, Mrs. A. J. Owens most delightfully entertained in honor of Mrs. J. W. Harris, the new bride of the town, on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4:30. Book was played at several tables, after which a delicious salad course with hot coffee was served. Little Phil Elliott, the cute little grandson of Mrs. Owens, dressed as Santa Claus, came in with his cart loaded with useful and elaborate presents and took them to the bride. The bride in a gracious manner thanked him cordially. Those invited to enjoy Mrs. Owens' hospitality were: Madames Lee Thornburg, E. L. Fromberger, Frank Fromberger, E. L. Peil, Bob Kennedy, J. Haverly, June Rhyme, Thos. Royster, E. Deeler, Sholar, Bob Gray, Ella Robins, J. J. Harrell, R. R. Caldwell, Sam Davis, Howard Horsey, Elliott, and Misses Emma and Serena Kiser, Ruth Garrison, Guffey, Harrelson, Smith, Lentz, Alexander, Lindberger, Harrell, Wil. James, Grigg, Fatum and Bates. Mrs. Harris was formerly Miss Clippard, one of our teachers in this school here. She and Mr. Harris, one of the druggists of this place, were quietly married here during the Christmas season. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are making their home at present with Mr. and Mrs. Owens.

The Civic League will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon in the music room of the school building, with Mrs. A. J. Owens presiding. After dispensing with the routine work the ladies decided to bear the expense of having received the tonsils of some newly children of the town whose parents are unable to have it done. The league will also put in several new fountains in the school building. A committee was appointed to investigate.

The Bellietier Players played to a full and appreciative audience here Friday night in the auditorium of the school building. The play, "The New Year's Eve," was presented, also a "reproduction" of Shakespeare's "Othello." Several songs were given.

Mr. James Ross Caldwell is on the sick list.

Misses Mary Ware and Ella Harmon visited Misses Bertie and Myrtle Caldwell last week.

Miss Effie Service, who has a position at Charlotte, is spending a part of her vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paysour and Master Waldo and Mrs. Belle Niell were guests to supper Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. George, of Cherraville.

Dr. Patrick visited in Gastonia Sunday.

AGED VETERAN DIED SUDDENLY IN ROAD

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.

STANLEY, Jan. 10.—Mrs. James Morris and Miss Bessie Morris went to Lincolnton Saturday to visit Miss Amelia Summey, who is in a hospital there, very ill after a serious operation.

All the teachers are back, after the holidays and the school is at work, forging ahead toward the finishing of a good year. The music department, under Miss Ruth Sherrill, is largely patronized and adds much to our school, which is fast becoming one of the best in the county.

Today the remains of Uncle Ned Pennington were taken to Maiden for burial. Late Saturday afternoon he was coming from a son's at Mariposa to his son John's, who lives here, and had almost made the trip when he dropped dead by the wayside, where he was shortly found by some colored people. He had been spending most of his time at the old soldiers' home at Raleigh, but was visiting relatives for a while during the holidays. The fact that there were no marks of violence on his body and that his watch and purse were not molested is conclusive evidence that his death was from natural causes.

J. B. Callow is suffering great pain and inconvenience from an ugly hurt received on his hand while repairing an automobile wheel at his garage. It gave him considerable worry at first, but the hurt is much better now.

Dr. F. V. Taylor is building a nice new office building, which he expects to occupy soon.

Rev. Albert Sherrill preached at Alexis in the school auditorium last Saturday night to a large congregation. Later in the year it may be possible that a class will be organized and a Methodist church built there.

The Stanley Mercantile Company had another auction sale last Saturday afternoon, which was well attended.

Midshipman Hazel Clemmer, of the naval station at Norfolk, Va., is at home, at his father's, L. D. Clemmer, on a 20 day leave.

Because of the very inclement weather Sunday night, there was no service at the Methodist church.

17TH FIELD ARTILLERY IS REMOVED TO CAMP BRAGG

Outfit Came From Big Camp at San Antonio; 753 Men in Regiment.

FAYETTEVILLE, Jan. 10.—The transportation of the Seventeenth Field Artillery regiment from Camp Travis, Texas, to Camp Bragg was completed this morning with the arrival of the last of the units composing the regiment. Six batteries and headquarters and supply companies make up the outfit, the personnel numbering 17 officers and 753 enlisted men. The regiment is under the command of Major Charles E. Ide.

The movement of the Seventeenth from Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, began on the 5th instant. The regiment is transferred to Camp Bragg to become part of an artillery corps made up also of the Fifth and Twenty-first Field Artillery regiments. The Fifth was sent here from Camp Dix, N. J., in November, while the Twenty-first has been stationed at Camp Bragg since its return from overseas.

The Seventeenth Field Artillery until the issuance of the order sending it here, was a part of the famous Second division and took part in all the engagements of that renowned division, from Belleau Wood to the Argonne Forest. It has been stationed at Camp Travis for the past year. The Seventeenth will become the artillery headquarters of the Fourth corps area.

With the arrival of the Seventeenth regiment, Camp Bragg now has representatives of three of the most renowned American divisions, the Fifth Field Artillery being from the First division and the Twenty-first from the Fifth.

DEATHS

REV. R. S. ABERNETHY.

The many friends in Gastonia and the county of Rev. R. S. Abernethy will learn with regret that he died yesterday afternoon at his home at Connelley Springs. His daughter, Mrs. McG. Anders, and Dr. Anders left this morning to attend the funeral which will probably be held some time this afternoon. A son, Prof. E. J. Abernethy, principal of the West graded school, is ill at his home here and was unable to go to the funeral. Mrs. David P. Delinger, of Cherraville, is also a daughter.

Particulars regarding Mr. Abernethy's death are lacking, though it is understood here that he died suddenly. Deceased was for many years in the textile industry, being a member of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Southern Methodist Church. Several years ago he took the superannuation relationship because of ill health. He was a frequent visitor to Gastonia and had a host of friends here.

A fuller sketch of deceased will appear in a later issue of The Gazette.

J. W. UNDERWOOD.

J. W. Underwood, of Gaston county, died last night about 8 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. N. M. Jones, 405 East Oak street.

Mr. Underwood had been suffering with an abscess of the head for more than 12 months and had been in Charlotte undergoing treatment. He underwent an operation last week.

He was 39 years of age. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Underwood, of River Bend, Gaston county. One brother, Lemmie Underwood, survives, along with the following sisters: Mrs. N. M. Jones, Mrs. I. E. Lindberger, Charlotte; Mrs. Roscoe Farrar, Lowell; Mrs. Robert Pryor, Mount Holly, and Mrs. Vance Hunter, Ralford, Va.

Pending the arrival of his parents last night, no funeral arrangements had been made, but it was thought the services will be held some time this afternoon.

UNION LOCALS.

UNION, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Claudia Sullivan, of Hickory, with her son, Thomas, and daughter, Grace Henderson, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Henderson this week.

Mrs. Mary J. Patrick is spending the week in Belmont, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Stowe, as Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Stowe have left for a trip to Boston.

The Ladies Aid Society of Olney church met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. A. Sparrow.

PROHIBITION FORCES ARE BETRAYED, SAYS AGENT

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 10.—D. J. Gantt, federal prohibition agent for the division of the Southeast, which embraces several of the Southern States, who is here today on public business, said that he had found in his investigations of the liquor situation that the liquor men were able to reach on an average of one man in every 12 he hires to assist him in his work.

"We are betrayed at about the same ratio Christ was in dealing with his apostles," said Mr. Gantt. "It does not take us long to ferret out the weak men, however, and get rid of them. The mere fact that the operations of the men involved must grow larger and larger to keep up with the detection of the inevitable. For a time we will overlook men not being able to see what they should see, but we do not do this for any great length of time, and it is not often that a man who is not straight is kept in the service very long. There seems to be something about the business that makes men susceptible. We have men who come to us with the very best references, who have been tried and found absolutely reliable in other walks of life, but who cannot withstand the temptations and with us presenting liquor men."

The federal court judges have started on a plan, however, that will break up liquor selling and liquor making. J. J. Stephens and heavy boys will do it. They must make it big enough, however, to make it unprofitable to those engaged in the traffic.

BANS EVENING WEDDINGS BECAUSE OF CHARACTER OF GOWNS WORN

(By The Associated Press.)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 11.—Evening weddings at Calvary Protestant Episcopal church here are banned, under an order of Rev. E. J. Van Erten, the pastor, made public today. This action conforms with Rev. Mr. Erten's New Year's sermon, when, in a review of the times, he paid much attention to evening gowns worn by women. He commented on the "lack of decorum often manifested" and said that some of the gowns did not conform with the sacred character of marriage.

BISHOP KILGO UNDERGOES AN OPERATION AT BALTIMORE

CHARLOTTE, Jan. 10.—A telegram to Mrs. John C. Kilgo tonight states that Bishop Kilgo was operated on at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, today, by Dr. John M. T. Finney, and that he stood the operation well. His condition was good following the operation. The wire was sent by his son-in-law, Bailey T. Groome, who accompanied him, and who will remain with him until he is able to return to Charlotte. The nature of his trouble was not stated.
