AMERICAN LEGION OPPOSES

SALINA, Kans., Jan. 10 .- Lines were drawn sharply here today in the contest arising over the entry into Kansas of the non-partisan league movement

While A. C. Townley, head of the league, was conducting mass meetings for those interested in the movement, at another building not far away representatives of American Legion posts from all parts of the state, together with others opposing the movement were laying plans for a state wide organization to check the league's activities and bring about the departure from the state of those behind it.
