A SALE THAT BRINGS PRICES
BELOW REPLACEMENT VALUES You'll find prices in this January Clearance below the prices we will have to ask for equal qualities in the spring! Why?
Simply because it's up to every merchant to move his stock, even at a loss, that orders for more merchandise may go through to manufacturers, and help them to get busy.
That's the only way that we can do our bit toward getting back to the normal basis all of us are striving for.

BESSEMER BRIEFS.
Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.
BESSEMER CITY, Jan. 14.—In order to keep the chapel exercises from becoming monotonous for the pupils of the school here, Prof. Ballard frequently has the various classes to conduct the devotional exercises in the mornings.
Tuesday morning Miss Harrison's room had charge and rendered the following program: Song, "Holy, Holy," by class, Scripture reading, 121st Psalm, Annie Lee Butler; Prayer, by Prof.
Rhyne, "When the Little Boy Ran Away," by Louise Lang, Piano solo, Eva Fronberger. Song, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," Mattie Scarboro.
"The Grapevine Swing," by Haskell O'Brien. "The Christmas Kid," by Ruth Shetley.
Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the program committee of the Home Economics Club will meet in the domestic science rooms to prepare programs for three meetings. This committee is composed of three members, Mesdames M. I.
Sholar and M. P. Shetley and Miss Laurel Tatum, domestic science teacher.
Mrs. Isaac Bovis is president, Mrs. Howard Horsely, vice president, and Mrs. E.
L. Fronberger, secretary and treasurer.
Miss Bates has organized her music and expression pupils into a club. They will meet Saturday afternoon and elect officers.
Quite a number of people have small-pox, but it is in a mild form.
Mr. Miles Rhyne, one of our merchants, is in Gastonia today.
Mrs. Z. T. Rhyne is ill.
Miss Lizzie Gamble, of route two, who was ill last week, is better.
Mr. Bob Gray, the popular machinist here, was taken very ill Tuesday with appendicitis. He was taken to a hospital in Gastonia and stood the operation nicely.

LINCOLN WOULD GET THIRTY MILES OF HARD SURFACE
Lincoln County News.
Mr. T. H. Cansler, becoming interested in the proposed bill to come before the legislature for issuing bonds for a state system of hard-surfaced highways, wrote to Mr. Rhyne of the association, asking him what Lincoln could expect to receive under the proposed bill should it pass that is what would Lincoln county's portion be estimated. In answer Mr. Rhyne says that the allotment to Lincoln as at present outlined would amount to about 20 miles possibly a hard-surfaced highway to run east or west to the line of 6 miles in Shelby road, and another to the Gaston line 5 miles, connecting with Gastonia to Catawba line 8 miles connecting with Newton road to Charlotte.
This is a tentative plan of course and depends on future developments.
Of course whether the legislature takes action looking to hard-surfaced highways to all parts of the state depends on whether the people in the counties make their desires known in sufficient numbers to cause action by the legislature. It is a big proposition and will of course be considered seriously, but action will depend on what the entire people think of the matter.

WHEN THE KNOCKERS KNOCK.
(Detroit Free Press.)
When the seoffers seoff and the mockers mock,
And the knockers stand out the side and knock,
Just not up your sleeves and buckle in,
And just stick to your task, you're bound to win.
If the thing's worth while you are sure to hear
The seoffers-doubt and the seoffers jeer;
For never a victor has risen yet But somewhere the jibes of the wise has met.
So, deaf to the seoffers, just work along,
And stick to your task, you're bound to be strong.
Toss folks a smile when you hear them mock;
It's a healthy sign when the knockers knock!

FAVORITE HYMNS
OF LEE AND JACKSON.
In response to request a list of the favorite hymns of Generals Robert E.
Lee and Stonewall Jackson is given below. "How Firm a Foundation" is generally known to have been a favorite with Lee, Davis and Jackson. An especial favorite of Jackson's was "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken, Zion, City of Our God," sung to the tune of Harwell. Another favorite was "Let Us Pass Over the River," his last words being a quotation from this hymn. The first hymn Jackson heard was the 51st Psalm sung by his wife, "Show Pity, Oh Lord, Pardon," The state president of the U. P. C. has requested that selections from among the favorite hymns of these two generals be sung at the churches Sunday, this being the Sunday preceding Lee-Jackson day, observed January 19.

GASTON COUNTY
WAR MOTHERS MET.
The Gaston County War Mothers' Association met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. A. McLean at her home on York street. The attendance was good, quite a number of mothers from over the county being present. A very enthusiastic meeting was held, the feature of the program being an informal talk by Mrs.
John K. Patterson, of Concord, who is State War Mother. Mrs. Patterson explained the object of the organization and was heard with much pleasure. At the close of the meeting Mrs. McLean served a delightful chicken salad course with necessities.

It is earnestly desired by the promoters of the local chapter that all interested war mothers throughout the county will enroll themselves as members of this organization. Meetings will be held on the second Wednesday of each month at 3 o'clock with Mrs. A. A.
McLean, War Mother of the Gaston County Association, and a cordial invitation to attend is extended all interested mothers.
