Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached. I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfort-When the blood would flow to my head-I suppose that was what it was-I would laint and feel so weak.

"I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. "I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any Army City represented an outlay in haildings alone of several hundred thou sand dollars. Its sole patronage was the Camp Funston soldiers and during the s pilot on the NC4, the famous naval war period it boasted "the largest pool hall, the largest barber shop and the lantic voyage, and was in the cockpit of largest laundry in the United States." It also had theatres, stores, cafes, dance halls and churches. With the dwindling of the camp population the town's business has been reduced accordingly.
