

THE PRICES ARE LOW OF COURSE; BUT THAT'S ONLY HALF THE STORY!

The Clothing - the Furnishings - the Hats - everything is out of the "guaranteed" kind. They're the sort of goods that have built our reputation for quality.

We can sacrifice profits - we're doing it in this sale; but we couldn't afford to lessen quality. 'Twould mean "good-bye" to our reputation!

We had big sales in our days, but we've never held a sale that equals this Great January Clearance.

Lowest Prices. Highest Quality.

ATTUNED.

The kindness of the silver star is laid Upon my bosom; where I daily pass The blown narcissus greets me from the grass; And winds and the great sun and the meek shade All make me free of love in glen and glade; In the deep wild, impassioned for the sea, Yet has the headlong river thought for me And whispers in my ear, with voice a maid Might envy for soft sound, O Nature bright! There is such beauty in the grassy sod Such warmth and splendor where the skies expand. That to the soul attuned liest Pisgah's height In every hill doth rise, and speak of God, Each vale of earth smiles up a Promised Land! - Edward Wilbur Mason in the Teron to Saturday Night.

MR. AND MRS. MOORE GAVE LUNCHEON.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore entertained Wednesday at their home on North Highland street at a 2 o'clock luncheon, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Pearson and little daughter, Mary Jane; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Prouton and daughter, Cordeba, and Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Torrence and children, Lois and Elizabeth.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS TOOK FOUR MILE HIKE.

The Mohave Camp Fire girls enjoyed a four mile hike Friday afternoon with their guide, Miss Marian Harvey, and Mrs. J. Holland Morrow as chaperones. Special guests were Mrs. Gaston and Miss Altman, a number of seventh grade students, and Master J. Holland Morrow, Jr. The Camp Fire girls each carried a delightful lunch and bacon and wieners were toasted before the fire.

THE DEAR CREATURES ARE MATCHMAKERS, ALL.

"How about this, now?" asked a very charming girl, quoting the following from an amusing recent book that deals largely with the Masonic secrets of the married:

Married women have a way of dangling pretty girls before handsome and fascinating bachelors as an angler dangles varied flies before a sophisticated trout. And the bachelors, though they sometimes have the air of almost taking them, usually turn away in time and dart back to the safe shadows of their singleness.

BOYS' CHAPTER HELD INTERESTING MEETING.

The Zeta Ypsilon Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, held its regular January meeting Friday afternoon with the chapter leader, Mrs. W. T. Love, at her home on East Franklin avenue. After the usual business session stories of the life of Robert E. Lee were told by the boys and an interesting program rendered. The boys are greatly interested in Confederate history and feel an especial pride in the veterans of the Soldier's Home at Raleigh, to whom they have sent numerous gifts. At Christmas these old men were remembered with gifts of tobacco and cigars. During the afternoon Mrs. Love served hot chocolate and wafers.

FRIEND HUSBAND SHOWN PROPER APPRECIATION.

The thing sounds too good to be true, but it really happened. Let me narrate it for you. It really happened. Right here in Gastonia, too.

She is a housekeeper, a wife, and a mother, which is a far greater and more complicated job than being president of the United States or ambassador to Mexico. She was going out to a social affair which would keep her beyond the noon hour, so she rose early and prepared a delectable meal for her large and ten porcupine cookless family. A maid that could be left out on the ledge for them and still look as pretty and taste as good as steaming viands ever did. To prepare such a meal takes both the domestic and artistic temperaments and, when breakfast is under way at the same time, rushes one considerably, too. But she did it and surveying her handiwork knew that it was good. No, did she forget to place the friendly and soothing coffee pot on the gas range with a suggestive match nearby. Then she went out, looking very handsome and unburied.

When she returned, late in the afternoon, she sighed a bit as she entered the door. The house looked dreary and deserted and the dishes were unwashed. But right here a charming surprise awaited her, a rare and most surprising surprise. In the midst of these empty and unwashed dishes lay a brief but soul-satisfying note written in the business-like hand of the head of the household. It read: "Good dinner. Thank you."

No wonder she felt rested and happy immediately. No wonder that dishwashing became a dream and cooking supper a poem. No wonder she told her friend about it, one so seldom has such news to tell.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Miss Margaret Patton leaves tonight for Philadelphia, Pa., where she will spend ten days, visiting friends.

Miss Virginia Busch returned Thursday from Cherryville where she spent a few days with friends.

Miss Carrie Rudwick left Tuesday night for New York and other northern markets. She expects to be away about two weeks.

Miss Harry G. Noble returned Thursday to her home in Birmingham after spending a month in the city as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. Thompkins, and Miss Carrie Rudwick.

John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Episcopal church was a fellow of Lincoln College for 26 years. In recognition of that fact the seal of Lincoln College has been carved over one of the bay windows of the new Wesley Family building at the University of Illinois.

The exercises in connection with the dedication will occur four days beginning February 15th and closing February 19th. Representative clergymen will be present from all over the United States and Canada. Four of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church will take part in the program: Bishops Thomas Neelton, of Chicago, Wm. McDonald, of Washington, F. J. McCormick, of Pittsburgh, and Thos. S. Henderson, of Detroit.

A pigment put out by the University of Illinois students will be a roster of the exercises. This pigment will show John Wesley as a student at Oxford University as well as some of the life episodes of his life. The closing exercises will be taken by foreign students of the University, Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, Hindustani, and Latin Americans.

Two of the most beautiful rooms in the building will be set apart for the use of the 200 foreign students of the University, and will be known as the international rooms.

The Social Center is the first of a group of buildings which the Methodist Episcopal church has under way at the University of Illinois under its Century program. The entire group will cost well over $1,000,000. The architecture is Gothic and the material is Bedford stone.

WOULD ERADICATE CATTLE TICK FROM ENTIRE STATE. BY MAX D. ALBENHOFF. RAYLEIGH, Jan. 21. - Statewide tick eradication is provided for in a bill introduced in the House today by Representative Johnson and over which a hard fight will be made both at the committee hearing and when the measure comes back to the floor for final consideration. The bill is understood to have been drafted by W. Q. McGill, of Wilmington, president of the North Carolina Land Owners Association. There are twenty-two counties in Eastern North Carolina known as "tick-infected counties" and it is to rid this section of
