GAFFNEY CHAMBER VOICES CONFIDENCE IN MR. CASH

GAFFNEY, S. C., Jan. 28.—At the last meeting of the directors of the Gaffney Chamber of Commerce that body went on record in expressing its confidence and sympathy with E. R. Cash, who has been unfortunate in managing the business of the Cash mills of Gaffney, which recently went into the hands of a receiver.

The directors in speaking of the matter after the endorsement of Mr. Cash said that they were not unimpressed of what Mr. Cash had done for the town of Gaffney since he has been a resident here and that his misfortune was simply the result of the hard times, and would probably have happened to any other individual. In discussing the matter yesterday, Mr. Cash was deeply affected by the action of the directors of the chamber and expressed himself as being deeply grateful for the confidence which they had voiced.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

A Directory Showing Where Services Will Be Held Tomorrow In the Churches of the City and County of All Denominations, Together With News Items Concerning Religious Activities Of All Sorts In Gaston.

—Rev. George R. Gillespie, Editor—

"IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN." "Of all the words of tongue or pen the saddest are these, 'It might have been.'"

It was with profound regret that ministers and Christian people in general received the announcement of the calling off of the Union Bible conference scheduled for Gastonia this week.

Dr. William Evans came over from Charlotte Monday afternoon and for more than an hour, in the Main Street Methodist church, held the minds and thoughts of a representative Gastonia audience firmly fixed on God's Word in a remarkable exposition of the First Epistle of John, which was a wonderful exhibition of his familiarity with the Bible and his remarkable memory. It is earnestly hoped that Dr. Evans may come to Gastonia again in the near future for a protracted Bible conference.

Congregational Meeting. A meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church has been called for the morning service hour tomorrow. Matters of vital importance to church and congregation are to be discussed at this meeting and a roll of names of members from all parts of the church field is earnestly desired.

Deacons' Convention. Rev. A. D. P. Robinson, D. D., of near Danbury, S. C.; Rev. A. A. Mendenhall, D. D., of Charlotte, and Rev. Alexander Martin, D. D., of Rock Hill, S. C., are among the notable speakers who have accepted invitations to make addresses at the seventeenth annual convention of the deacons of Kings Mountain Presbytery, which will be held at the Broad Street Presbyterian church February 15 and 16.

Church Advertising. A Gastonian recently remarked to the writer, "If I had not picked up a copy of the Saturday Gazette I certainly would have missed a good service in a country church. I saw the notice of the service there, filed my name as passenger car with family and friends and I will enjoy a delightful service." And that pastor had an attendance of seven more than he would have had because he sent his notice to The Gazette.

When Gypsy Smith, Jr., conducted a protracted meeting in Gastonia last November he preached to the largest single audience of men and women possibly ever assembled in Gastonia, and because the forenoon and noon of these meetings reached the people in every part of the county through the aid of advertisements in The Daily Gazette, that he will pay the church, The people like to be informed about the meetings, stock and prices, even though they are regular customers, and they like to be informed about the church service and the pastor's sermon, even though they are regular attendants. The Gastonia Daily Gazette, now in its new and splendid home, with its latest equipment and a staff of a first-class man at the helm, is turning out daily a paper similar to the popular newspaper that goes into thousands of Gastonian homes and is a must for churches and ministers alike. It pays to advertise.

To stimulate Christian preaching for the churches this splendid paper makes its Saturday page available to all pastors in the county absolutely free and is anxious to make some copies of your Sunday sermons. It is the desire of the publishers to make these church notices as worthwhile and as readable as any other notices in the paper. All you are asked to do is to call our attention

Friday of each week, phones 232, 212, or 495, and dictate your order of service for the following Sunday. If you are contemplating a revival, conference or special meeting of any kind it will pay your church to call phone 59 and give copy for a display advertisement at reduced rates to churches.

Merchants are eager to secure space in church papers and "it's a poor rule that don't work both ways." The main reason why churches do not advertise more is because they haven't tried it out. Try it once and be convinced.
