

LIVE NEWS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF GASTON

BUDGET OF LIVE NEWS ITEMS FROM BELMONT

By Mrs. Adelaide Smith Beard

Study Class Meets With Mrs. Cox.

The Presbyterian Mission Study Class met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. H. Cox. In spite of the inclement weather there was a good attendance, about twenty-five members being present. The study lesson was led by Mrs. W. T. Hall, the topic for which was "Seed Sowing in Korea." A collection was taken up for home missions, which amounted to $17.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. F. Cox, Mrs. Leland Cox and Miss Lottie Cox, served a delicious fruit salad course, sandwiches and coffee during the pleasant social hour which brought the meeting to a close.

Teachers Complete Study Course.

The members of the Belmont school faculty, with the exception of the High School teachers, who have been taking a reading study class, have finished their course and had examination on it. Prof. H. C. Sisk, who conducted the class, was delighted with the results, and stated that the marks made were among the highest he has ever seen made in this kind of work, showing the high grade of work done by the teachers in the Belmont schools. The teachers from the Tuckasee and South Point schools were also members of the class. Owing to illness and bad weather, several of those taking the course have been unable to take their examinations as yet.

The primary teachers will now begin a course on physical education, which will be a practical demonstration in gymnastics, games and story plays. Miss Elizabeth Hall, who took a special course in this at Columbia University, will have charge of the class.

New Books for School Library.

The educational committee of the Woman's Club, composed of Mrs. P. P. Hall, Mrs. J. T. Dandy, Miss Melba Crawford and Miss Annie Motter, went to Charlotte Monday to purchase books for the school library. A number of splendid sets of books, including Scott, Dickens and other classics and books suitable for young folks, were brought. Something over a hundred dollars was invested, and other books will be bought later on. The eleventh grade has charge of the library, two members of that class having it in charge daily.

Personal and Local.

The Camp Fire girls are practicing on a play to be given in the next week or so. It is an Indian play entitled "Dinah-bonah," and promises to be quite interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Armstrong are welcoming a little son, Charles William, born Tuesday, February 1, Mrs. Armstrong was Miss Lany Loper before marriage.

Mrs. R. L. Stone and Mrs. V. R. McAdams were Charlotte shoppers on Tuesday.

Mrs. B. S. Ford, who has been sick for several weeks, is now much better.

Mrs. L. P. Orendow spent Tuesday in Gastonia. She was accompanied home by Miss Lennie Spencer, who will be her guest for several days.

Miss Gladys Brazier, a student at the Sacred Heart College, has been sick for the past several days.

Mrs. G. W. Howe, little Miss Margaret and Master George spent Tuesday in Gastonia, the guests of Mrs. T. A. Ratchford.

Miss Mary McLean, of Gastonia, is spending several days here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lowry R. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson will have as special the day guests Thursday her mother, Mrs. P. W. Hall, and Miss Irma Reid, of Lowell.

The teachers at "The Tenpenny" are planning to give a minstrel show in the near future, the proceeds of which are to go towards the fund for purchasing a new piano. Further particulars as to date and characters, etc., will be announced soon.

SUNNYSIDE NEWS.

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.

BESSEMER CITY, Feb. 1.—We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Watts in the loss of their 18-month-old son, who died last Wednesday. The funeral services were conducted at Mt. Beulah Baptist church and the body was placed in the cemetery there.

Mr. Jerome Chiemer is again seriously ill.

Also Mrs. David Mitchem is on the sick list at this writing.

Messrs. S. L. Kiser and B. H. Carpenter were Gastonia visitors Saturday.

Mr. Palmer Biggerstaff, of Boiling Springs High School, came home Sunday to rest a few days as he was not able to continue his studies.

Mr. Oliver Black will leave Tuesday for his home in Bisbee, Arizona.

Mr. Pressley Morrow, son of Mr. W. P. Morrow, will leave Thursday for Newnan, Ga., to take a course in photography.

Mr. and Mrs. Chera Moore have moved to Sunnyside from near Dallas. Misses Lizzie Harmon and Geneva Kiser spent the weekend with home-folks.

Messrs. Ben and Harry Tarbee and Fred Biggerstaff spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Herbert Carpenter.

Mr. Tyrre Kiser, of Bessemer City, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Paul Kiser.

Practically all the children are back in school today after several days vacation last week on account of the snow.

The only way to keep up with Gastonia and Gaston affairs is to read The Gazette every day. See editorial page for subscription rates.

LOWELL LOCALS

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette. LOWELL, Feb. 2.—Miss Edith Robinson and Miss Margaret Hudson were Yorkville visitors last week, the guests of Miss Allie Stephens.

Mrs. J. R. Titman had as her weekend visitors last week her daughters, Misses Nell Titman, of the graded school faculty of Hickory Grove, S. C., Clara Titman, stenographer for the P. & N. freight office, Greenville, S. C., and Ida Titman, who is in training at the Presbyterian Hospital, Charlotte.

Mr. J. C. Gardner, of Blackell, N. Y., spent several days in town last week, the guest of his cousin, Mrs. M. A. Tanguar.

Miss Meek Beard, of the high school faculty, spent the weekend at her home in Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes had for their guests Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Rose Rhyne and son, Billy, of Raulo, and Mr. H. G. Alexander, of Greensboro.

Mr. G. Frank Hovis was a Rutherfordton visitor Friday.

Mr. Leo Calhoun, of New London, was the guest last week of Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Ransauer.

Mrs. G. Frank Hovis and children spent a few days in Blacksburg, S. C., last week.

School resumed its work Monday after closing only one day for the snow.

The Woman's Club will hold its regular February meeting Thursday afternoon, February 3, at 3 o'clock at the graded school auditorium. The program will be in charge of the civic committee, who have secured to address the club on civics Mrs. S. A. Robinson, of Gastonia. Every member is urged to be present.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist church will meet Saturday afternoon, February 5, at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. R. H. Kennington at the parsonage. It is hoped all members will be present.

A Country Girl's Creed.

I am glad to live in the country. I love its beauty and its spirit. I rejoice in the things I can do as a country girl for my home and my neighborhood.

I believe I can share in the beauty around me in the fragrance of the orchard in the spring, in the heading wheat at harvest time, in the soaring song of birds, and in the glow of the sunset on the far horizon. I want to express the beauty in my own life as naturally and as happily as the wild rose blooms by the roadside.

I believe I can have a part in the courageous spirit of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

I believe I can have a part in the strength and endurance of the country. I believe I can have a part in the courage of the country. The spirit has entered into the blood in our pastures. The stars placed in its sky call for a steady, unflinching courage.

ALEXIS NEWS

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette. ALEXIS, Feb. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Early Abernathy, of Cherokee Falls, S. C., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Abernathy.

The singing convention was postponed on account of the snow until the fifth Sunday in May.

Mr. W. P. Styers and family spent the weekend in Cherryville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Styers.

The school was knocked out of business one day last week on account of the deep snow.

Miss Frances Moore, of Stanley, spent Sunday with Mrs. Carl Stroupe.

Mr. L. B. Dellinger and son, Olin, were Gastonia visitors Saturday.

Mr. Charlie Hager, of Stanley, returned Sunday with Mr. Loy Hoover.

Miss Lola Mauney, a student of Mt. Olive, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mauney.

Miss Levey Soder is very ill with an attack of grip.

DOUGH BOYS LIKE TO READ ABOUT JULIUS CAESAR.

(By The Associated Press.) COBLENZ, Feb. 1.—Tales of adventure in the American West are the favorite reading matter of the American Doughboys in Germany and Zouf Grey is the most popular author.

Strangely enough, Julius Caesar ranks second with the Doughboys, who are very fond of translations of Caesar's daily Wars. This is due to Caesar's activities in the Rhine Valley and the ruins of his bridge, built across the Rhine which fits Caesar's work out of two schoolbooks, and makes it a schoolbook that enters the American Doughboy's mind.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

Books which describe the legends surrounding the Roman Empire are popular with the Doughboys who are mostly uneducated and prefer the Wagnerian legends of the Germanic past to the actual history of the Roman Empire.

QUILLEN'S PARAGRAPH.

The simplified spelling of propaganda is bull.

America's greatest overhead expense is the money paid for bluesy stock.

We shall avoid balloon travel until the things have a boomerange attachment.

Perhaps a school teacher shuts her eyes when she is kissed in order to avoid the scrutiny of her pupils.

The man who howls loudest for government by the people gets maddest when drawn for jury duty.

Friction makes heat, perhaps, but this doesn't apply to the friction between the tenant and the janitor.

When a man lies in his grave, the tombstone lies above him.

In case of war, the days might not include the eastern part of the United States; but the taxes would.

It may be well to explain that Lionel Lincoln Pope, the Italian flyer, is not the father of aviation in Italy.

Railway travel will never be without its thorns until special coaches are run for fresh-air heads.

The Florida state man who would stop street standing in Washington seems determined to put the golf in gallant.

A new Congress seems much likelier than the old's hope to attract attention with out making itself a nuisance.

You can say one thing for dancing in this day of jive's—it keeps the toes from losing one of its legs.

Five-cent food items are not so popular as the old-fashioned loaf.

Reflection concerning the Flamingo incident must emphasize that these are no quack quack quack quack quack quack.

Make your own friends, and when you do give a A. B. will send out in the blue sky the papers that will give your name away.

Not even America would be surprised to see a wall of hard-line stream America's eyes who can't lead over far enough to lose their own shoes.

There are four reasons why men affect to despise women: first, because they desire to get it and don't get it; second, because they are too busy to get it; third, because they are too stupid to get it; and fourth, because they are too lazy to get it.

The man who knows he is wrong, the man who makes his life important, and the man who thinks he is right.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

WHO WANTS A SNOW MAN?

A little Gastonia girl made a snow man of the very dust and what she had of the recent snow. He stood in the north yard and successfully resisted the advances of the sun but fell before the rays. An older sister found the snow man and said, "What is the matter?" "He is dead."

"My snow man is gone?" wailed the girl.

"Gone, well?" replied her sister. "With snow, who wants a snow man, my dear?"

WHEN AUNTIE MOVES AROUND.

"Wonder what the immortal Robert L. Stevenson would think of present-day society?" said a friend of the literary critic. "And then he would say, 'From the records of the "Voyages".'"

"Whatever Auntie moves around."

"He crosses me like a curious sound; they shall be back for me on the floor; American life after through the door."

READY TO BE WED AFTER 4 WEEKS SLEEP.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Awakened from a four week's sleep one day after she was to have been married, Miss Yetta Lehman, 21 today said she felt no ill effects and would be wed in a week or two.

Attending physicians said she had not been suffering from sleeping sickness and that they were unable to diagnose the malady.

Fatigued from social duties during the Christmas holidays, Miss Lehman went to sleep January 1, and for many days she lay without moving a muscle and at times was delirious.

SOVIET "ENVOY" AND FAMILY DEPORTED: Left to right; Gregory Weinstein, Mrs. Martens and Ludwig C. A. K. Martens. In front of Martens; his son, William and to William's right, his chum. They were photographed on the liner Stockholm, which sailed for Sweden with Martens and his party, who were deported. c)U&U

Advertisement for 'twenty "11" "ONE-ELEVEN" Cigarettes 15¢'. The ad features a large illustration of a pack of cigarettes with the number '111' on it. Text includes 'EUROPEAN purchasing in this country slackened. High-grade tobacco formerly shipped abroad accumulated. We bought it. This is the unusual condition which enabled us to produce such a quality cigarette as One-Eleven at so low a price. FINALLY—try them! Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —which means that if you don't like "111" cigarettes you can get your money back from the dealer.'

Advertisement for 'Music Lovers'. Text includes 'For the next ten days we will place on sale about 2,000 Columbia double-disc Phonograph Records that the regular price is one dollar each but to get every owner of a Phonograph in our store we will sell them for eighty-five cents each. The Records are the regular catalogue of the Columbia Company and are not any Special Records that are sold at a reduction. All February releases are included in this sale. We would be glad for you to come in and look over our stock whether you buy or not. Winget Jewelry Company'.

Advertisement for 'Say Lady'. Text includes 'Don't forget to include some fruits and vegetables in your next grocery order, if you would have you and yours in perfect health eat more of them. What could be better to give the little ones for lunch at school or between meals than an apple or orange? And You Will Save Money. The B - J Co. Wholesale Fruits and Produce We Sell Merchants Only. Phone 678'.

N. C. ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE MEETS AT GREENSBORO GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 2.—Address of welcome by Rev. J. Clyde Furman and Judge N. L. Linn, of Greensboro, opened the twenty-first annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina here today. The W. L. Pugh, president of the Anti-Saloon League, presided at the opening of the convention, which will continue through tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A hundred people gathered at the New York City Police Station today to see the trial of a woman who had been charged with the murder of her husband. The woman, who is named as Mrs. Mary Jane Smith, was charged with the murder of her husband, John Smith, on January 15. The trial is expected to last several days.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A hundred people gathered at the New York City Police Station today to see the trial of a woman who had been charged with the murder of her husband. The woman, who is named as Mrs. Mary Jane Smith, was charged with the murder of her husband, John Smith, on January 15. The trial is expected to last several days.

The only way to keep up with Gastonia and Gaston affairs is to read The Gazette every day. See editorial page for subscription rates.