Saturday's messmeeting of tax payors brought out in a very startling manner the dangers that are likely to prise from The Associated Press is exclusively meetings of this sort. Most of phose present felt that they had grievances th stances, and perhaps justly were they aggrieved. Particularly were the farmers out of heart because of the turn the revaluation processes had taken. If cotton had been bringing 40 cents a pound, there would never have been called such a meet ing as was held at the courthouse Sat. urday. There would have been no dissatisfaction with the present county of slight increase. But, because of the unprecedented slump in the price of cotton and all farm products, the farmers are
