CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS MEET

Will Prepare Folders Containing Data and Information About Gastonia and Gaston County for Distribution at Norfolk and Greenville.
 At the regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Thursday afternoon, it was decided upon recommendation of Secretary Allen that descriptive folders of Gastonia and Gaston county should be prepared for distribution at the coming Rotary and Kiwanis district meetings to be held in April in Norfolk and Greenville. Numbers of Gastonians will attend both these meetings. These folders will contain much valuable information about the industrial growth of the county. An industrial map of the county will also be prepared.
 The new quarters of the chamber, containing large and small assembly halls, are practically completed. Preliminary plans for the formal opening are underway. The annual dinner of the Chamber will be featured by an address from some nationally known figure.
 Plans for a drive to increase the membership of the Chamber were also discussed.

PAN HANDLE SCHOOL COMPLETES ORGANIZATION OF BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS.

Panhandle School completed organization of its first Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Club according to the report given out by Assistant County Agent, Miss Brown. The following officers were elected: Coman Wilson, Pres., Floyd Dellinger, Vice-Presi., Una Henry, Secretary, with Mr. D. H. Dellinger and Miss Chloe Dellinger as club leaders.
 Panhandle is only a small one teacher school but what it lacks in size it makes up in spirit and enthusiasm. The most excellent work of this school this year is due to the efforts of its teacher Miss Chloe Dellinger. The club members have selected Pig and Poultry for their projects as follows:
 Pig Project.
 Floyd Dellinger, Cherryville, R. I., Hugh Fisher, Cherryville, R. I., S. S. Harrelson, Cherryville, R. I., Ralph Harrelson, Cherryville, R. I., Poultry Project.
 Dewey Craft, Cherryville, R. I., Mozelle Eaker, Cherryville, R. I., Jesse Fisher, Cherryville, R. I., Una Henry, Cherryville, R. I., Coman Wilson, Cherryville, R. I., Stacey Harrelson, Cherryville, R. I.

A CORRECTION.

Representative Gaston's Denial Corroborates Story of Gazette's Raleigh Correspondent.
 To the Editors:
 Representative Gaston's denial that he opposed the salary raising bill for Gaston County as carried in The Gazette corroborates the story that was carried in the correspondence. He did not oppose the bill but affixed his name as introducer, and he was quoted as saying that he would not oppose the measure since the other representative from Gaston County favored it, which would make his objection useless. The facts were contained in a statement made to your correspondent by Mr. Gaston at the time a copy of the bill was furnished. Upon request for permission to give publicity to his statements he said he was not talking for publication at the time, and this correction is gladly given him.

AT THE THEATRES

ROSCOE ARBUCKLE
 IN FEATURE FILM
 Rotund Comedian Stars in "The Life of The Party."
 The first of the five-reel feature comedies in which Roscoe Arbuckle, the famous heavyweight star, is to appear, by arrangement with Joseph M. Schenck is "The Life of The Party," adapted from Irvin S. Cobb's story of the same name. The picture will be shown at the Gastonian Theater Friday and Saturday.
 The story reveals the adventures and love affairs of an affable young lawyer, Algonzo Leary, in his efforts to break the Milk Trust. Leary's powerful adversaries attempt to ruin his reputation by sending a notorious "vamp" to black mail him, but he not only succeeds in withstanding her charms, but beats out the corporation's candidate for mayor at the polls. The picture is declared to be rich in laughs, one of the funniest situations being when Leary attends a masquerade party attired as a child of three and, through a misunderstanding is chased all over town by indignant citizens and policemen.
 Mr. Arbuckle's support includes Frank Campeau, Viola Daniel and Winifred Greenwood. Walter Woods adapted the story to the screen and Joseph Henabery directed. It is a Paramount production.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

 leaders as John M. Morehead, national committeeman; Frank Linney, state chairman, and J. Elwood Cox, of High Point; R. W. Wood, Brownlow Jackson, Irvin Tucker, Gilliam Grissom, former Representative James J. Britt, James D. Dorsett, of Spencer, and Charles J. Harris, of Asheville; A. D. Ward, of New Bern, and J. L. Hawley, of Hamlet, are also here.
Mr. Cox for Collector?
 In connection with the presence in Washington of North Carolina Republicans there was gossip here today that J. Elwood Cox may be offered the position of internal revenue collector for North Carolina or if an additional district is created may be given the western collection district. Mr. Cox is not an aspirant for the place. He is a man of means and would take the position at a sacrifice of time and money, but there is basis for the belief that the Republican party wants to give the patronage in the south to men of business ability, and not mere politicians, and to build up respect for the party in this way.
 Mr. Cox, a banker and capitalist, is known personally to the new secretary of the treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, and he might be persuaded to take the place.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Armstrong wish to express their highest appreciation and thanks to their friends for their many kindnesses during the sickness and death of their infant son.
