

It's Easter; Sunday

Little need to parade the virtues of our clothes for the Easter parade. Our friends have confidence. They believe in us. That's why business is so brisk.

But we're not so busy now as we will be later in the week. Need anything? Values are as attractive as the variety.

All the ladies of the Methodist church who have flowers and are willing to donate for the Easter decoration, please notify Mrs. E. O. Jennings not later than Friday.

STUDY CLUB WITH MRS. McCONNELL.

The Study Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. D. E. McConnell as hostess at her home on West Second avenue. The living room was lovely with a variety of spring flowers. "Napoleon in Italy" was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. H. B. Moore. Mrs. T. W. Wilson read a paper entitled "Metternich's Policy" and Mrs. D. A. Garrison gave a reading from Mrs. Browning, "King Victor Emanuel Entering Florence."

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served in the dining room. The club colors, white and gold, were charmingly emphasized in the decorations and refreshments. The center decoration for the table was a crystal vase of jonquils and the favors were dainty jonquil baskets fashioned of yellow crepe paper and filled with yellow and white mints. A chicken salad course with pickles, wafers, cheese straws, and hot tea was served. Musical selections by the McConnell children on the flute, Mandolin, and violin were greatly enjoyed, as were also two beautifully rendered piano solos by Mrs. R. H. Philhower of Norfolk, Va., who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Edleman.

WINNERS IN STATE MUSICAL CONTEST.

In the North Carolina contest for young musicians, held on March 11 in Greensboro in connection with the meeting of the State Federation of Music Clubs, Mrs. Helen Forester Caldwell, conductor, Mrs. J. O. Oglethorpe, pianist, and Miss Emily Rose Knox, violinist, were the winners out of quite a number of contestants. The following account of the contest is from the Greensboro Daily Record:

The contestants in the voice department were Miss E. C. Caldwell, the winner; Miss Katherine Johnson, Greensboro; Miss Eugenia Patterson, Greensboro; Miss Karen E. Poole, Nashville; and Miss Naman Johnson, Winston-Salem. The pianists were Miss Louise Burton, Nashville, and Mrs. Whitaker. The violinists were Miss Ruby Johnson, Statesville; Miss Knox, and Arthur S. Talmadge, Fayetteville.

Mrs. Caldwell's program included Mio Ferrando, an aria from Donizetti's La Favorita; Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace, by Pottier; O World, Strouping Sea, by Delius; and Call me a Spring Song of the Robin Woman, Mrs. Whitaker played the Beethoven sonata, opus 27, No. 2; Chopin's Etude in A flat; and Liszt's Etude in D flat. Miss Knox presented the first movement of Lalo's Symphonie Espagnole; the first movement of Turini's Devil's Tail sonata; and Zephyr, a composition of Holby.

The judges were, for voices, Miss New Stephens of Atlanta; Prof. E. M. Batts of Elon college; and Mrs. Frank A. Schelling of Akron, O., president of the national federation of music clubs. For piano, they were Miss Abner Minor and Mortimer Browning, both of Greensboro, and Professor Bondin of Statesville. For violin, they were Miss Helen Meyer and C. J. Brockmann, of Greensboro, and Mrs. Frances Sturm of Elon College.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH ARSON.

GREENWOOD, S. C., March 23.—Mrs. Sarah Womack, proprietor of a drugstore establishment at Calum Falls, Yadonville county, was arrested yesterday on the charge of arson and placed in jail at Abbeville. Her stock of goods was damaged by fire on the night of February 19.

Mr. Merchant: The Stags wear clothes, shoes, hats and eat like other people. We pull for and help a brother. Think it over.

THINGS THAT NEVER DIE.

The pure, the bright, the beautiful That stirred our hearts in youth, The impulses to wordless prayer, The streams of love and truth; The longing after something lost, The spirit's yearning cry, The striving after better hopes— These things can never die.

The timid hands stretched forth to aid A brother in his need; A kindly word in grief's dark hour That proved a friend indeed; The plea for mercy softly breathed, When justice threatens high, The sorrow of a contrite heart— "These things shall never die."

Let nothing pass, for every hand Must find some work to do; Loss not a chance to waken love— Be firm and just and true; So shall a light that cannot fade Beam on thee from on high, And angel voices say to thee— "These things shall never die."
