Dutch Supper at Sacred Heart College.

The Sodality of the Children of Mary gave a Dutch supper Wednesday evening at the Sacred Heart College. The college gymnasium was attractively arranged as a Dutch garden in a color scheme of red and green, spring flowers adding a bright touch everywhere. An elaborate luncheon course was served at numerous tables, tastefully appointed and each with a centerpiece of flowers. Several interesting games and contests were arranged for the amusement of the young folks. Miss Katherine Burright, president of the sodality, assisted by the members, received in the auditorium, where music and dancing furnished much pleasure for the completion of the evening's entertainment. A number of people from Charlotte and Gastonia were here for the occasion.

Personals.

All that has been heard on the streets of Belmont for the past few days has been "Clean up." Committees of ladies have visited everybody in the town urging them to have their trash ready to haul by Monday, and from the reports given by them they are meeting with the co-operation of everyone in the community. So it is expected that Belmont will be a much cleaner town at the end of next week.

LINWOOD COLLEGE

Correspondence of The Daily Gazette. LINWOOD COLLEGE, Apr. 1.—The Senior class presented the comedy-drama "Wills and Wags," to a large audience, at Clover on Tuesday night. It was not only given an enthusiastic audience, but also served the cast and glee club with a delightful lunch.

The cast was well chosen and all deserve honorable mention. Maude Mabry, as Bernice Halstead, was a very attractive young lady who found herself in difficulties, but made the best of them. Eugenia Thornburg, as Amy, Bernice's sister, made the audience feel the joy and enthusiasm of sweet sixteen, while Julia Salley, as their guest, Luez Gray, was charmingly practical and ever ready to lend a helping hand. The step-mother Mrs. Halstead, was impersonated by Evelyn Pressley. Mrs. Halstead was a society woman with seemingly good intentions, but misled by her son, Dwight Bradley. James Foy, as Dwight Bradley, a fortune hunter, made one shiver for fear that he would succeed in his scheme. Charles Foy, as Dr. Burton, a young physician, helped to straighten out the tangles and won the audience, as well as the heroine. Jake Ford played the part of "Sammy," a darky-bell-boy. He kept everybody laughing at his unexpected appearances and sayings. "Bub", Harry Falls, and "Sis", Imogene Salley, were children of the soil with hearts as good as gold and habits nicely.

On Thursday afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00 Master Billy Reid entertained about forty of his little friends at a party in honor of his fifth birthday anniversary. The little folks were told when entering that hidden all around were eggs of all colors so with much merriment all the eggs were soon in the hands of the youngsters. After many outdoor games the guests were ushered into the dining room that was prettily decorated in the pink flowers of the season and crepe paper draperies with pink shaded lights carried out perfectly the color scheme of pink. The centerpiece for the table was a large frosted birthday cake on which stood five tiny pink candles in pink ruffled holders. In a circle around the cake marched fluffy cotton bunnies and chicks. Pink ice cream with cake was served, followed by colored nuts, candy and orange punch. The little host's mother, Mrs. James W. Reid, was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. L. N. Patrick, of Gastonia. Master Billy was the recipient of many gifts.

"Wal, it's a considerable distance—"

"Shucks! My idea of a real patriot is a man who will go just as far to cast his ballot as he would go to see a circus."

unique. Whenever they appeared a laugh was sure to follow. If you have lost your appetite and can no longer enjoy your meals, by all means see "Bub" and "Sis" and take a new lease on life.

Eugene Lindsay, as sheriff, and Archie Whitesides, as attorney, did well.

Several selections were given by the Glee Club, "Carolina Chorus," and were enjoyed by all.

The play was given at Bessemer City Friday night, March 25, and the cast expects to present it at Mt. Holly in the near future.

The proceeds go to the Annual, which is expected to be the best ever.

CALLAS DOTS

(By MRS. JOE GRIBBLE)

DALLAS, April 1.—An intensely interesting and snappy game of basketball was played on the local grounds Thursday afternoon between Stanley and Dallas witnessed by a large and enthusiastically crowd. The first fourth of the game stood 4 to 0 in favor of Stanley but the home team steadily gained from the beginning of the second fourth winning over her opponents 20 to 11.

Each girl on the home team starred in her particular position, displaying the careful training of the coach, Miss Willie Webb, and seldom did a team ever receive such roaring cheers and yells. The line-up was: Forwards, Misses Katie Pasour and Ruth Summey; guards, Misses Katherine Lewis and Mattie Hoffman; centers, Misses Willie Hoffman and Alpheus Rhyme. A marked feature of the entire game was the steady nerve and cool heads on the part of the players of both teams.

The Stanley team left on such short notice after the game the reporter was unable to obtain their line-up.

Mrs. R. E. Cooke and Mrs. Vernon Clemmer were delightful joint hostesses to the Young Matron's Club at the former's home Thursday afternoon.

This getting together once a month is quite an inspiration to the young matrons and being thrifty, as well, plans were formulated whereby the various phases of topics most interesting to housekeepers will be discussed as follows: Fancy work, Mrs. R. E. Cooke and Mrs. G. S. Spargo; cooking and canning, Mrs. Ralph Summey and Mrs. Joe Gribble; health and home care, of the sick, Mrs. Everett Brown and Mrs. C. C. Caskey; literature, Mrs. Bert Rudisill and Mrs. Lawrence Holland; music and socials, Mrs. Latham Friday and Mrs. John H. Lewis. As yet Mrs. Lewis is not a member of the club but it is felt sure she will aid us in these departments. A new member, Mrs. Bert Rudisill, was welcomed and we have the pleasure of meeting with her at our next regular meeting, the last Tuesday in April. Health will be the subject lead by Mrs. Everett Brown and Mrs. C. C. Caskey.

During the afternoon Mrs. Latham Friday rendered delightful music which was greatly enjoyed and after several games of rook were played the hostesses served refreshments in two courses. Chicken salad, with pickles, saltines and ice tea followed by ice cream with pineapple syrup and marshmallow cake.

The latest enterprise for Dallas is the establishment of a shoe repairing shop in the Rhyne building by Mr. W. T. Bradford, of Charlotte, who has been in this kind of business for the past four or five years. Champion machinery for doing the work in the very best way has been installed.

Misses Mary Hoffman, Esther Lindeberger, Louise Rhyme, Messrs. Chlod Clemmer, Frank Carpenter and Wayne Pasour motored to Newton Tuesday afternoon to witness the baseball game between Lenoir College and Catawba, resulting 4 to 0 in favor of Catawba.

The game was most exciting as no score was made for either side until the beginning of the eighth inning. Sam McAllister, a Dallas boy, starred for the Lenoir team.

Mr. W. L. Reinhardt, of Rock Hill, spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reinhardt.

Mr. J. B. Houser, of Cherryville, and Mayor E. L. Houser, of Dallas, were business visitors in Charlotte Tuesday.

Mrs. G. S. Spargo received a most severe sprain when her ankle turned while stepping from the lower step of a neighbor's home one day last week. She is still confined to bed, but we are glad to report it is improving.

President O. J. Rhyme and Secretary S. L. M. Pasour give notice of an important meeting of the Farmers Union to be held at Dallas town hall April 2. All land owners in Dallas township are urged to be present.
