GASTONIA KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ARE HONORED

Malta Degree Conferred at York Rite Meeting at Asheville, N. C., by Gas-tonia Commandery.

The following from the fraternal order page of the Sunday Charlotte Observer be read with interest in Gaston

"We are very glad to announce to the Knights Templar of North Carolina, the successful work being done by Gastonia commandery. Though the youngest in the state, they have forged to the front in secomplishing what others have long attempted in the past, of conferring the Malta degree in full form. By those nonneed to be the finest ever presented in the history of the order in this jurisdiction, and reflects the true worth and merit of the members composing the order in Gastonia.

"We are very happy to learn of this ionor, which has come to Gastonia commandery, and we feel that where the spirit of Masours prevails, efforts are always rewarded, and success quickly follows. We heartily rejoice to know that Castonia has set the pace for others to follow, and that before another year passes, that they will lead the state in every degree conferred in the comman dery. They are a live body of young brothers, with only the good of the order at heart, and each strives in his own part. to excel his brother. When brothren work on this basis, and the principles and precepts of their teachings are carried out, nothing but success will come to them. We would like to comment on each litether who so successfully took part in the conferring of the Mafta degree; but as we were not present, our ef forts would prove futile, as we would prefer doing justice to one and all who took part, and as we were absent we Keep up the strule, brethren and sir knights, you have the talent, intellectual needs, determination, are well qualified, and with your ambition, combined with mental attainments, and the spirit of templarism prevailing at all your under takings, you are destined to be the lead ing commandery in the state, such as North Carolina has never accomplished before, in so short a time. You reprecontrol over the northern and western sent one of the oldest and greates; Ma some bodies in existence, and as each detier between. Silests and Germany has give is unfolded to the candidate, it car ries with it a message of history, inter spersed with moble inspiration, berois achievements, and Christian zeal, which awakens an interest of blealism, and the development of the hidden talents hidden beneath the mines of tradition, all work ing together in one great aim and desire to create a stronger chain of brother hood, and the redemption of the wander ing soul, in search of the fatherhood of

"It is also reported that Gastonia commandery has the finest choir in the state, composed of Misses Mary Ramsey, Marie Torrence, Rath Mason, Edmes Smith and Mesdames J. Holland Morrow and H. Rutter, and Miss Marlan Harvey. Messrs, L. E. Adams, R. H. Bennett, J. W. Watson, and W. G. Hamner.
